URGES CHANGE IN METHOD OF TRIALS BY JURY

Member of Constitutional Convention Proposes Five-Sixths Agreement Be Made to Govern.

Lincoln, Neb., March 12.—(Special.)—The constitutional convention is getting to that point where the warm sunshine is calling for the members to get back and plant their potato crop and so the great problem now is to keep the members until the job is over.

The well-known Hammond case, recently in the supreme court, entered into the proceedings Friday when Peterson of Lancaster introduced an amendment to 221 of the bill of rights governing the trial by jury. Peterson's amendment extended the proposal for a five-sixths agreement to govern by including cases of constructive contempt. Judge Albert of Columbus said that if Mrs. Hammond were to be allowed a jury trial her son would not have been returned to her.

The convention passed the following proposals:

Number 221: forbidding public utilities to control or parallel property without permission of the state railway commission. Vote, 74 to 2.

Number 222: referring to mutual and co-operative organizations. Mutual or co-operative organizations may limit number of shares to one stockholder and the right of transfer, and one vote to each stockholder.

Number 223: laws may be enacted providing for the investigation, submission and determination of controversies between employer and employee in any business affected with the public interest, and for the prevention of unfair business practices and unconscionable gains affecting the public welfare. An industrial commission may be created for the purpose of administering and enforcing such laws, and an appeal shall lie to the supreme court from the final orders and judgment of such commission. Vote, 42 to 12.

Number 224: the reorganization of the executive department. It will be amended on its next passage through committee of the whole, retaining the land commissioner and other minor changes. Vote, 77 to 6.

Number 225: providing for the election of railway commissioners by districts and taking away the right of the railway commission to regulate publicly owned common carriers. It will be amended on its next passage. It is to get sufficient votes, but with the understanding that it would be amended making the commissioners elective at large, when up for third reading, it finally passed by a vote of 55 to 29.

Fremont Women to Enter Race for School Board

Fremont, Neb., March 12.—(Special.)—For the first time in several years Fremont women will have a candidate in the race for school board at the spring election. The Woman's club, which has taken a leading part in the agitation for an increase of teachers' salaries, has endorsed Mrs. C. G. Marshall and Miss Elizabeth Forster, a teacher in the city schools, and will ask the republicans and democrats to endorse them. For several years the two parties have "fused" on school board candidates. The terms of C. D. Marr and Charles F. Dodge expire this spring.

Fremont Creamery Men Blame Farmers for High Milk Price

Fremont, Neb., March 12.—(Special.)—Fremont creamery operators blame the farmers for the high price of milk in Fremont, declaring that the wholesale cost is higher here than in Chicago. A cut in the retail price of milk is predicted within the next week or two, however. Creamery men say it will drop 1 and perhaps 2 cents a quart. Milk sells in Fremont now for 17 cents a quart.

Famous Movie Star Condemns Curling Iron

"Little Mary" Pickford, whose pretty curly locks have been so much admired, writes that she has never used the curling iron. She fails to see the wisdom of burning the life out of the hair. That the heated iron is ruinous to the hair is being more and more appreciated. Many are discarding this instrument of torture in favor of plain, healthy hair. This is not only harmless but is really beneficial to the hair. Instead of giving one's tresses a burnt-out, lifeless appearance, it gives them a bright luster, and the curls look like natural curls. It is a simple thing to procure a few ounces of liquid silberine from the drugists and apply a little with a tooth brush—brushing from root to tip—before doing up the hair. The beautiful wavy effect which results is agreeably surprising.

Woods Enters Race As Delegate to the G. O. P. Convention

Lincoln, Neb., March 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Mark W. Woods of Lincoln filed a petition with more than 1,000 names, Friday, as a candidate for delegate to the national republican convention from the First congressional district. With his filing Mr. Woods says: "Personally, I feel that Nebraska should instruct its delegation for Gen. John J. Pershing, our fellow citizen, who has so signally proven his right to leadership that the republican party owes it to the country and to itself to nominate him at Chicago.

"I recognize, however, the obligation of every delegate to faithfully represent the wish of the people of his state, and if elected I will vote for the choice of the people of Nebraska as expressed at the April primary."

Andrew P. Moran of Nebraska City has filed as a delegate from the First congressional district. Like Mr. Woods, he favors Pershing for the nomination, but pledges himself to abide by the preferential vote.

State Compensation Commission Turns Down Two Claims Cases

Lincoln, March 12.—(Special.)—Two Omaha cases for compensation were returned down by the compensation commissioner Tuesday as not entitled to relief under the law. Sherman Keeley, working on the farm of Dr. B. B. Davis of Omaha, fell through a man hole in the hay loft and broke his arm. The compensation commissioner decided that the matter comes under the head of farm labor, which is exempt under the law.

Alfred Murphy received alleged injuries while working for Armour & Co. He claimed that while lifting a box of shoes he strained himself. It was shown that he had been ill before and the claim was turned down.

James Stevens, working for the National Roofing company, on an agreement with the company, was given $750.

Agent Sarcasically Justifies the Present High Price of Sugar

Lincoln, Neb., March 12.—(Special Telegram.)—Commenting on the price of sugar, A. E. Anderson, field agent for the United States bureau of crop estimates, in a statement made public here today said: "There seems to be as much justification for the present high price of sugar as there is for a $60 suit of men's clothes made from a quantity of wool costing originally $3 to $5."

From government statistics, he said, "we learn that the United States may draw its supply of 4,800,000 tons from a production of 6,800,000 tons."

"Excluding the 1,250,000 tons that it is estimated the allies will take, leaves a total of 5,550,000," his statement continued. "If we deduct from this, 4,550,000 tons required by the United States there are still 1,000,000 tons available for other world demands. There seems to be as much justification for the present high price of sugar as there is for a $60 suit of men's clothes made from a quantity of wool costing originally $3 to $5."

Approves Plan for New State Fair Entrance

Lincoln, Neb., March 12.—(Special Telegram.)—City Commissioner Hensley has approved the plan of Secretary Danielson of the Nebraska State Fair board providing for a separate entrance and exit to the state fair grounds. It is believed that the proposed routing of automobiles to the present Seventeenth street entrance and provision for an exit on Sixteenth street will do much to relieve the congestion which has become serious during the last three or four years. The new plan will necessitate paving Sixteenth street from X street to the fair grounds.
