Boxing Bouts to Be Formal; Fans Wear Full Dress Suit

Detroit Boxing Club to Establish Sister Organization To Famous National Sporting Club of London-Bring Your Ladies to Prize Fights.

How would you like to attend a prize fight in full dress? How would you like to strut down the aisle toward the roped arena with a "sweet ward the roped arena with a "sweet voing thing" hanging ou your arm, all bit up in her latest evening gown? The Detroit Boxing club intends to give the American fight fan an opportunity to enjoy just those feelings. They have written to the famous National Sporting club of London for instructions on how to conduct an organization similar to the N. S. C. in Detroit. And they are serious about it. They intend to "see it through," according to Lou Bycraft, secretary and treasurer of the Detroit Boxing club.

No one will be allowed to attend a prize fight at the Detroit club unless he is garbed in evening dress. All pugilistic affairs will be strictly be strictly formal. The ladies fair will be there, and of maybe some "twist and twirf will bring a box of chocolates.
