

COUNCIL FLAYED FOR GRANTING OF DANCE PERMITS

"Three Frightful Clubs of the Devil" Are Attacked by Rev. Charles W. Savidge In Sermon.

Rev. Charles W. Savidge, at the People's church last night, flayed the city council for its recent refusal to heed the request of a body of women who asked to have Sunday dancing abolished in Omaha.

"When God says, 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy,' the city council said, 'Now God, go back and sit down; we are running this town,'" declared Rev. Mr. Savidge.

"The modern dance is full of lust. The modern dance is full of hell. Teachers of dancing tell me there are only three kinds of artistic dancing now, the fox trot, the one step and the waltz. I know of more than those, and in these dances the dancers imitate the movements of the sea and of wild animals. They dance the grizzly bear, the turkey trot, the Apache, the bunny hug, the can can, the shimmy. At burlesque theaters they have a dance which I should call the sparse clothing and high kicking dance. Large congregations assemble and stay to witness these disgraceful spectacles."

"I know two young men, of Omaha's wealthy families who came to early and disgraceful deaths in consequence of mingling with such society."

"Who ever got a good wife, selected on the public dancing floor? Do you ask the dances to come and pray for you in your dying hour?"

"The city council, in my judgment, has built a hopper in which the devil grinds out his grist, in which the

"We are not making our criminals today from the company of people who are studying in our Sunday schools and who are devoutly worshipping God in our churches. We are making our criminal classes from those who go to Sunday night dances, who attend the burlesque theaters, where nude women expose their persons for gain, by those who spend their evenings, including the sacred hours of Sunday night, at the pool halls and like places."

"We are thus turning out thieves and highwaymen and prostitutes and men who despise God and look lightly upon the property and lives of others. They despise God and His commandments and throw off religious restraint."

"It must make the devil laugh to see how we are doing. The officers of the city forgetting their holy obligations to promote virtue and the fear of God, which are the basis of all prosperity among the people. They furnish the occasion and the means by which souls are destroyed."

"Then these same city fathers instruct the police to buy shotguns and to travel in high-powered cars and bring in these sinners, dead or alive."

"I ask: how can we have good people when we insult God and have no respect for His day? The burlesque theater, the pool room and the Sunday night public dance are three frightful clubs in the hands of the devil to beat our people to death."

Woman Who Craved Love Gets Too Many Husbands

San Francisco, March 14.—Murphy C. Curran had his marriage to Irene C. Sancartier annulled upon evidence she had a husband living and the presentation of the following letters:

From the wife:
"Dear Billy: It is all off. We must never meet again. But he is to blame. He hasn't loved me for the past three years. He was so cold that I wrote you that if you really loved me I would get a divorce and come to you. But now it is all changed. He says he loves me. I asked him to prove it. He comes first if he loves me. Forgive me. I meant no harm. I only craved love."

Sancartier wrote in part:
"My wife swears that she loves me and wants only me. In view of this I insist that communication between you and her cease. I will stand for no deception. I will take her back because of love. So come clean with me. Do justice to the woman you say you love. Get that marriage annulled. I will tolerate no double crossing."

The body of R. C. Phelps, 48 years old, who died Friday in his apartment at the Hotel Fontenelle, was taken to Chicago yesterday for burial. Mr. Phelps was the owner of the candy section of the Brandeis store and Phelps' Hut at 1708 Douglas Street. He was a 32d Mason, Elk, Shriner and a member of the Omaha club and Athletic club.

His demands are met immediately. He has demonstrated through murder and arson that he means what he says. Carranza holds soldiers along the sea coast and collects tolls from the oil men in another way. Then furnish the occasion and the means by which souls are destroyed."

"Then these same city fathers instruct the police to buy shotguns and to travel in high-powered cars and bring in these sinners, dead or alive."

against France. They would dispossess France of Syria to absorb it for themselves. They made Feisal into a portentous figure as candidate for the throne of Syria. They have created with their hands a danger against which they will have to fight.

Feisal Had Support.

"It cannot be supposed that Feisal has made his proclamation without assurance of support. It is not doubted that the Germanophile Turkish national party under Mustapha Kemel and Enver Bey has promised that support on the basis of a general religious uprising in Asia Minor against the allies.

"At the same time there has been a close alliance between the Turkish nationalist forces and the soviet destroyers of Denikin. Thus Syria is linked with Turkey and southern Russia.

"With this situation calling for immediate attention of the allies in Asia Minor, the other unit of the combination acts for the purpose of distracting and dividing allied effort.

Evidence of Accord.

"That action occurred yesterday in Berlin in the form of a bloodless revolution executed not without evidence of an accord existing between the rebels and the party overthrown.

The same troops that placed Noske in power 10 months ago are the ones who marched into Berlin to mark his overthrow.

Now the situation on the Rhine tightens. The attention of France is divided between her difficulties in far-off Syria and the more immediate menace to her northeastern frontier.

Observers of these events perceive in their peculiar interrelation the gravest possibilities of a new war. In fact, the question is being asked whether the new developments are the signal of a German re-birth of a world confederation in Asia Minor."

Wife Helps Husband Turn Bigamist to Wed Daughter of Rich Man

New York, March 14.—When Albert Graubard, 28, conductor on a surface car, was arraigned before Judge Rosalsky he pleaded guilty to bigamy.

The complainant against him was his first wife, Mrs. Sadie Graubard, who said that she was married to the defendant in 1912. They had three children.

She said she accidentally heard on January 12 last that her husband had met Mollie Blaustein, 18 years old, whose father is wealthy, and had married her.

"Your honor, my first wife knew I was going to be married to this girl," Graubard testified. She gave me the money to hire an evening suit in which to be married.

Mollie B. Austin, when called to the stand, said:

"Judge, why his wife first came to me—they brought her to my house, and they discussed my marriage.

"She told me she was his sister."

"Yes," replied Mrs. Graubard, "he told me to do it, judge."

"Well, this is too much for me," said Judge Rosalsky. "I will reward you for sentence."

The court then instructed Probation Officer Irving Halpern to investigate all the facts in the case and report to him before the day of sentence.
