AGAINST WORLD'S CHAMP FIGHTER

Will Be Charged With Paying Divorced Wife $1,500 to Get Her to Refuse to Testify.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.
Los Angeles, Cal. March 16.—
Formal charges by O. O. Orr, special agent of the Department of Justice against Jack Dempsey, of naving, through certain agents, paid Maxine Wayne, his divorced wife, the sum of $1,500 to leave the country and thus escape testifying against him in the slacker sharges n the federal court at San Franrisco, will be threshed out in the ederal district court here, as the overt act of paying Mrs. Dempsey money to leave the country was committed in Los Augeles. It is now proposed by the federal agents to have the entire investigation and trial of Dempsey on various ac-cusations against him transferred to Los Angeles. Prosecution for viola-tion of the Mann act is also being seriously considered in the Dempsey ase as he is alleged to have traveled from various cities with Max-me Wayne before he was married

CHARGES PILE UP Former Western Leaguers Abound In Brown's Camp

Van Gilder, Burwell, Thompson and Other Former Western Circuit Players on Manager Burke's Team-Roy Sanders Also in Lineup.

By JAMES CRUSINBERRY. Taylor, Tex., March 15.—(Special.)—If the St. Louis Browns could trade a portion of their diligence and left handed pitcher and a first class infielder. Manager Jimmy Burke might be leading a team in the world's championship series next

The Browns have George Sisler. Any team has a chance to win a pennant with such a player, Sisler has ripened into a real star. It should not be surprising if he supplants Ty Cobb as leading hitter and base runner of the league. He is likely to accomplish such a feat this year. As great as he is, Sisler is always among he first in a uniform and one of the most active of the squad in the daily Weilman's Fitness Big Item.

If Manager Burke is worrying at all, it is over his pitching staff. He possesses one of the best left handers in the game in Carl Weilman. the tall, slim star who has been handicapped by illness during the last two seasons. It looked like Carl will regain his old strength this year. but he was late in reporting because of an attack of the flu. If Weilman recovers thoroughly and regains his form, the chances of the Browns will be good. .

The veteran Lefty Leifield and a green recruit from Tulsa, named Billy Bayne, are the only other southpaws on Burke's staff, and one must have southpaws to fight the coming battles.

Pitcher Davis Has Record. the Yankees; Bert Gallia, the veteran break in this year. who was late in reporting because he Cubs had he not injured his is the utlity man. arm, is back for another trial after and Billy Burwell, last season with Joplin. Roy Sanders, a spitball hurler, tried once by Pittsburgh, is on the list, but hasn't reported, with bit of their enthusiasm for a star two or three other youngsters on the squad. The pitching staff has great possibilities, but lacks in certainty.

Austin a Perennial Pepperpot. In the infield, of course, Sisles stands out prominently, but the veteran Jimmy Austin at third base, who never seems to grow old, is back with more pep than any of the

Around the middle bag, the Browns have Walter Gerber at short and Joe Gedeon at second, both capable defensive players, but lackng in brilliancy.

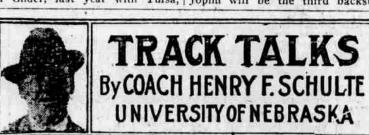

There's a possibility that Burke will develop one or even two from his squad of youngsters. He has seven kid infielders and thinks so well of them that he said none would get away without a string attached. Eugene Robertson, a boy off the St. Louis lots who was carried with the Browns all last season, seems about ready to break into a reg-ular job. He's likely to take Gerber's place in many games. Billy Mullen, another lad picked up in St. Louis, is after Austen's job, and if he doesn't get it this year he'll get it some time unless he grows old be-

For the 100 Yard Dash.

1. Perfect yourself throughout the season, on form in starting and tered your sprint form and your on the start itself. Each day take start, each separately, should you five or more short starts, and as begin to combine the two. At first, many more for fifteen or twenty work through some 50-yard dashes fairly smooth in the mechanics of eye of a coach or level-headed team-starting you should begin working mate; later, when you can hold good out against a worthy opponent. If form throughout, begin working he is slow in starting, or you can your half-distances against another beat him to the 20 yard mark, start sprinter, him with enough handicap so that 6, Pra each of you run about even at the finish.

2. Be careful of the way in which

3. While racing over the 20-yard course and against an opponent who has been handicapped, is a good time to practice the pitch for the tape. 4. For your sprinting practicedo most of that by going from a slow jog gradually into top speed and stride. In other words, practice your starts at one time, and your sprinting form at another. In that part of the work. Incidentally, by General Suggestions on Training that method you will develop a better sprinting form. 5. Only when you have masning of the training season than was expected. Lelivelt wants to yards. As soon as you have become without a competitor, but under the way you, can concentrate on each

6. Practice sprint races should rarely be over 50 yards. For your endurance work coast through, at nine-tenths speed, an occasional 120 you slow down after you pass your yards. Cut loose with top speed for finish. Never stop short. Let your- not more than the last 10 yards self coast and slow up graually. The Each day it is well to do quite a bit sharp stop is a speed-thief.

OF NEW COURSE Plans Well Under Way for Pappio Club-Omahans Enthusiastic Over the Location.

GOLF EXPERTS

INSPECT SITE

Plans are now well under way for he construction of what probably will be the finest golf course and club house in the state, to be erected on the Alfred R. Hanson farm, nine miles west of the city at a cost of approximately $265,000. It will be known as the Pappio Country club, taking its name from the creek that winds through the Hanson farm. The work of laying out the course will be started this spring or summer and the club house will be erected next year. Inspect Course.

Several Omaha business men, instrumental in forming the organizatogether with a number of local golf experts yesterday made a trip of inspection over the Hanson farm. Those in the party were Charles Johnston, professional at the Omaha Country club; Bobbie Christie of the Happy Hollow club, Pete Louden of the Seymour Lake club, Stanley Davies of the Omaha Field club, Blaine Young, former state champion, Charles Gruenig, Ernest Sweet, John H. Beaton and O. H. Menould. The men were enthusiastic about Frank Thompson, at Joplin last its adaptation as a golf club.
