

WOMEN DEMAND JUDGES REMOVE M. ANDREASEN

Open Fire on Adult Probation
Officer for Activity in Procuring Pardon for
James C. Donahue.

A petition addressed to the district judges of Douglas county asking them to remove Adult Probation Officer M. Andreasen was signed by more than 150 women who attended an indignation meeting yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. to protest Andreasen's activity in procuring a pardon for James C. Donahue, found guilty of assault and battery on 19-year-old Marie Honach and sentenced by District Judge Troup to 60 days in jail.

The letter written by Andreasen to Governor McKelvie on this subject was read by Dr. Jennie Callias, who presided at the meeting.

"I want particularly to note," she said, "that this man Andreasen tells the governor in this letter that Donahue was sentenced in the police court, whereas Donahue was on trial for three days in the district court and was found guilty by 12 men. He also states in the letter that Donahue has served about 29 days, whereas Donahue had served only 23 days."

Mrs. Sumney Applauded. Applause greeted Mrs. Sumney when she declared that "the usefulness of Mr. Andreasen as a probation officer is at an end."

"He made a misstatement to the governor in his letter, which is putting it mildly," she declared.

Mrs. Draper Smith declared that she could not see why the district judges had only reprimanded Andreasen under the circumstances.

Great sympathy for the mother and sister of Donahue was expressed by nearly all the speakers. "But while I have deepest sympathy for the mother and sister, I am still sorrier for the girl who was the victim of this Donahue," said Mrs. Robinson. "Forbearance in such cases has ceased to be a virtue. Our girls are not safe on the streets. They are scarcely safe in the homes."

Looks Well Fed. Mrs. W. T. Graham spoke sarcastically.

"Mrs. Callias and I called at Mr. Andreasen's office," she said. "He told us he has lived in Omaha for 38 years. He said he gets a salary of $125. Yet he looks well fed and doesn't seem a bit overworked. The high cost of living doesn't seem to bother him at all."

The petition was passed by unanimous vote.

Another problem was introduced by Mrs. Callias and warmly approved in speeches by others present.

"We object to making heroes of married men who come home from France and are followed by beaming girls who are about to become mothers," said Mrs. Callias. "They ought to be put in jail and kept there," exclaimed another woman.

South Side Will Perform Irish Step Dances and Play At St. Patrick Event

CANADA AGAINST ANY REVERSION TO COLONIAL STATUS

Heated Arguments in Dominion Parliament Urge Amending British North America Act.

Ottawa, March 16.—Parliament today in the peace treaty with Bulgaria by a virtually unanimous vote tonight after spirited debate in a prolonged session.

Coincident with the treaty's ratification, the minister of justice announced that the Canadian government had opened negotiations with provincial governments with a view to amending the dominion's constitution permitting amendments to the British-North America act with reference to the government of Great Britain.

Approval of the position Canada holds as a first-class nation within the British empire, determined not to revert to the old colonial status, was indicated by the general tone of the debate on both sides of the house. A less optimistic tone, however, was evinced in the remarks of W. S. Fielding, of Nova Scotia and J. F. Cockshutt of Brantford, Ontario.

Fielding said Canada could not afford to take her place with "rich parliaments of the world."

Cockshutt declared Canada "had gulped the expensive responsibilities involved in ratification of the treaty of peace while the United States had found it necessary to amend article ten after debating the treaty for eighteen months."

Des Moines Jewelry Store Robbed of $25,000 By Two Unmasked Men. Des Moines, Ia., March 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Two unmasked men entered the Kamen jewelry store at 518 Walnut street shortly after noon Tuesday, and after slugging and gagging David Kamen, the proprietor, who was alone in the store, escaped with loot valued at $25,000. Diamonds, watches and war savings stamps made up the booty. The men escaped in an automobile in which a third man was waiting.

Five men have been arrested and are being held in the city jail in connection with the robbery.

High Wind Plays Havoc With Signs and Trees In Council Bluffs. A northwest wind that howled along at 40 miles an hour wrought considerable havoc in Council Bluffs yesterday. Signs were blown down, windows pushed in and trees leveled. A big tree on Park avenue was toppled over, carrying down electric light wires which presented a real element of danger, but there were no accidents.

Rentals Hold High Mark In Complaints at H. C. L. Office. Complaints of profiteering in the retail prices of various commodities in Omaha, continued yesterday to come into the office of Mrs. C. J. Ryan, fair price commissioner for Nebraska. Many of the complaints were of alleged exorbitant rental prices. Complaints are being investigated by B. H. Hancock, special federal agent.

Mrs. Ryan was in Lincoln yesterday, but will return for the meeting at 10 a. m. today, when subcommittees of the fair price commission appointed Friday will meet and form some definite policy. Reports of these subcommittees will have to do with prices of food, meats, clothing and other standard articles. Complaints on rental prices are being referred by Mrs. Ryan to the Omaha Real Estate board for investigation.

Police Recover Jewelry; Man Held for Investigation. Jewelry and old coins valued at several hundred dollars were recovered by police last night from R. W. Taylor, arrested at Twentieth and Farnam streets by Detective Danbatt.

Taylor was seen by the detective hiding behind several billboards across the street. Danbatt arrested him and discovered on his person several keys and a number of burglar tools. On going to his room at a downtown hotel a complete set of burglar tools was found together with jewelry and rare coins supposed to have been stolen from some home.

Taylor gave his occupation as a florist, saying that he had just arrived in city from Worcester, Mass. He was booked for investigation.

HOUSE PETERS' first vehicle under the Equity banner, entitled, "The Luck of the Irish," will have its last showing at the Strand today. In this film production Mr. Peters assumes the role of a successful lawyer, who wins a woman, the motif contrasts the balancing of these two characters against each other until the picture is a very interesting and has been keeping the Strand packed to the utmost.

Moon—It has only been a few years since an air stunter thrilled the world by climbing out between the planes of a ship, while thousands of feet in the air today, while watching Lieut. O. L. Locklear do his daredevil stunt in "The Great Air Robbery," all this week's least to the Strand. The picture is a very interesting and has been keeping the Strand packed to the utmost.

AT THE THEATERS. FOR those who insist upon the happy ending, to complete their joy in a play, "Tiger Tiger" will be found lacking. Just that much, but for those who delight to be moved by the primitive emotions, to feel the tiger, the story of a man and a woman, the picture is a masterpiece. The picture is a masterpiece.

Unconventional in the extreme is the plot. Clive Couper, M. P., bachelor of 16, meets a girl on the street of London one night. He is attracted to her and she to him. He thinks she is a girl of the street, but she is a girl of the street. The picture is a masterpiece.

Prisoner Confesses to Complicity In Attempted Jail Delivery Saturday

Jack Hart has made a confession to Sheriff Clark of his participation in the attempted jail delivery at the county jail last Saturday night. He is 23 years old and was a prisoner on a federal charge of peddling "dope."

Hart said the prisoners had been planning the escape for about a week before the break for liberty was to be made. The plot was discovered and frustrated just in time Saturday night. Four bars were completely sawed off.

Hart's confession substantiates that made by W. H. Bone, who has confessed that he brought to the jail two revolvers, dozen hack saw blades and bottle of emery powder for the escape. Hart says that the package containing these things was brought to Jack Adams while he was interviewing a lawyer in the corridor and that Adams turned the package over to Hart in the cell.

The men concerned in the attempted delivery are all in solitary confinement cells.

"Purple and White" Week May Be Annual Event. "Purple and White Week" will probably be an annual feature at Central High, according to Principal J. G. Masters. The movement held three days last week to foster more school pep and better spirit was a success, according to Ralph Campbell, executive chairman.

The idea was very novel and plans for coming years will probably be more elaborate, according to Robert Jenkins, editor of the Register, who was one of the leaders in the movement.

Internal Revenue Office at Seattle Robbed of $20,000

Seattle, Wash., March 16.—Two masked men early today held up the internal revenue office here and escaped with $20,000, part of the last day's cash of Seattle residents to pay their income tax.

R. E. Stafford, cashier of the office, had just opened the vault and sat down at his desk when two masked men ordered him to hold up his hands. Pointing revolvers at him, they backed Stafford into the vault and filled their pockets with packages of currency.

The two robbers then backed out of the vault and escaped. The money the men obtained was taken in by the office last night during the last minute income tax rush.
