An investigation of the "chilled steel" bars of the Douglas county jail may be made as a result of the softness of these bara discovered when eight of them were cut off cleanly in a few hours by several prisoners who attempted escape last Saturday night.

"One of the workmen who helped put in the jail equipment told me yesterday that with a hacksaw he ould make his escape from the jail in an hour," Depute Sheriff Hoye said yesterday. The four sawed-off bars, each cut through in two places as cleanly and apparently almost as easily as if they had been wood, are held in the county jail as evidence.

"We're going to solder them back on and they'll be as good as they were before," said one jailor, half, iestingly jestingly.

Deputy Sheriff Foster said he thinks the outer bars are really

The pledge signed by the five county commissioners just before the election of June, 1919, when the people voted $3,000,000 for paving Douglas county roads is not lega and binding upon the commission ers, according to an answer fil:d to day by County Aftorney Shotwell to the suit of Jamin B. Root, filed 10 days ago in an effort to enjoin the county comissioners and Allied Contractors, (Inc.) from proceeding to lay 12 miles of "bitulithic" paving. This is the pledge in which the five commissioners solemaly promise-to use the $3,000,000 for no other paving than brick. The pledge we signed because it was not legal to mention any kind of pay in the printed ballots on which the people voted on the $3,000,000 paying proposition.

The hearing of the suit for injunction to stop the bitulithic paying is set for tomorrow morning it district court.
