

WESTERN OFFICE OF $10,000,000 FIRM FOR OMAHA

Concrete Warehouse to Be Erected at Cost of $300,000—Headquarters Now at Des Moines.

Best that will mean the transfer of the western headquarters of the Cleveland Metal Products Co., a $10,000,000 Ohio corporation, from Des Moines to Omaha, was completed Tuesday by George A. Co. Omaha representatives of the firm, who acquired in its name a quarter of a block at the northeast corner of Thirteenth and Davenport streets.

According to George A. Co., the consideration involved was $29,000. A three or four-story warehouse of reinforced concrete is to be erected on the site at once. According to information received by J. E. George, the building will cost $300,000.

The Cleveland company manufactures kerosene oil stoves and other oil burning devices, and various kinds of aluminum cooking utensils. Its distribution is world wide. The products of the company are sold under the trade names of "New Perfection," "Aladdin," and "Puritan." For the present the Omaha branch of the company will be a warehouse and offices of the middle-western headquarters, and no provisions for manufacturing will be made.

The company has been negotiating in Omaha for a site for more than a year, Mr. George explained. Efforts through the Chamber of Commerce, Real Estate board and railroads to secure a location that could be rented failed, so the company bought a site and will put up their own building.

Their present distributing arrangement, with Des Moines as headquarters for this territory, has proven inadequate for some time, according to word received from G. C. Davis of Cleveland. His investigation proved Omaha to be the logical place, because of better railroad service. It is understood that Kansas City and other points in surrounding states were also considered.

According to Mr. Davis, E. A. Parks, district manager, now at Des Moines, will come to Omaha as soon as the branch is opened. At least 30 persons will be employed in the plant, and it is expected that the annual business through the office will amount to $1,250,000.

MANY "RELATIVES" OF OMAHA RECLUSE APPEAR SUDDENLY

State Law Provides $100,000 Estate Goes to Sister, Administrator Declares.

"Relatives" of the late Albert J. Seaman, Omaha eccentric, who died a few weeks ago, have appeared in all parts of the country.

L. H. Weirich, administrator of the estate, has received many letters from "cousins," "nephews" and "nieces" of the deceased, claiming part of the estate of nearly $100,000 which has been found so far.

One of the "cousins" appeared in the county judge's office yesterday. He didn't give his name. He said he was just looking up the estate.

"These people would save postage if they would look up the Nebraska law," said Mr. Weirich. "The law provides that Mr. Seaman's sister is the sole heir of his estate. She gets it all."

Some of the letters are from persons who are not even relatives. "I know Mr. Seaman's sister is open-hearted and she will help me," one woman writes. Then follows a recital of the woman's needs.

Another woman writes stating that Mr. Seaman promised to buy her a home in Iowa. Another informs the administrator that Mr. Seaman promised her the trunk found in Mr. Seaman's room.

Mr. Weirich has found, in addition to cash and securities, from $50,000 to $100,000 in value, many tax deeds which, he says, will require months for investigation. A preliminary inventory of the estate will be filed soon.

Mrs. Harriet Wolf, co-administrator with Mr. Weirich, will remain in Omaha. Her son and daughter who came here with her from Los Angeles, will return there in a few days.

Observe Feast of St. Joseph
The feast of St. Joseph will be celebrated at St. Josephs hospital on Friday with solemn high mass at 10 a. m. Archbishop Harty will attend the service, which will be sung by Rev. Theobald Kalamaja. The Very Rev. John McCormick will deliver an address on "The Model Workman," eulogizing Nazarene who helped the Virgin Mary rear the boy Jesus.

Window Washer Steals $35
Mrs. J. H. Brady, 316 North Twenty-fourth street, hired an unidentified window washer yesterday afternoon. He worked a while and then suddenly disappeared with $35 cash, she told police.

Sly Indian Maidens Aim At Pocketbook, Not Scalp

Sly, reserved Indian maidens will lie in ambush, ready to pounce upon unsuspecting victims, at the Y. W. C. A. carnival to be held in the University of Omaha gymnasium Friday. From the protecting covers of their navajo blankets, they will step forth—not to procure your scalp, but to loosen the strings of your pocketbook. In return, Silver Bell or Aro Wana will offer you miniature birch bark canoes, beads, watch fobs, moccasins, and various Indian wares.

University girls who will take the part of daughters of "Black Hawk" are: Misses Flora Jones, Mildred Tittel, Inez Moore, and Helen Van Cura.

Omaha Man Disappears; Leaves Wife and Three Children With Only $1

L. P. Moran, 2815 1/2 Leavenworth street, disappeared from his home last Friday afternoon, leaving but $1 for his wife and three children.

He left this note on the dining room table: "Goodby, sweetheart, I can't stand it any longer. You were my only pal, I realize. God bless you and good luck."

Mrs. Moran reported to police. Her husband went away with the family automobile, leaving an unpaid mortgage on it amounting to $250, Mrs. Moran said. "I can't understand his actions," she said. "We have been the best of pals and ours was a happy home. He has never deceived me in any matter and I trusted him anywhere."

"He has been sadly distracted since the death of his first wife and 3-year-old child two years ago. That may have preyed on his mind, but I know he'll come back to me." Mr. and Mrs. Moran were married on September 29, 1919. Mrs. Moran was a widow and the mother of three children when she met her present husband.
