

WARRIOR HEAD TO DEBATE WITH 'BILL' HAYWOOD

J. W. Bryant Will Invaade "Wobbly" Stronghold In Chicago to Urge Americanization.

J. W. Bryant, chairman of the Northwest Warriors' committee on Americanization, will meet "Big Bill" Haywood, secretary of the I. W. W., in debate at the "wobbly" headquarters in Chicago, Sunday, March 28. He will argue the affirmative of the question: "Resolved, That the principles of the I. W. W. are in direct opposition to the principles of the constitution of the United States."

Mr. Bryant returned yesterday from an inspection of committee work in Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Chicago. American work is thoroughly organized in the first two cities, but is just being launched in Chicago.

Will Halt Propaganda.

"It is not our intention to give organizations of the character of the I. W. W. an opportunity to spread their propaganda in new fields," said Mr. Bryant in regard to his coming debate with Haywood. "We attempt to turn their lecture periods into debates to demonstrate to their old followers what the constitution of the United States really affords."

Permanent national headquarters of the Northwest Warriors have been established at 20 East Jackson street, Chicago, and Mr. Bryant will return there to direct organization and prosecution of the Americanization work in several states.

Open Office Here.

Dr. E. C. Henry, who is also head of the local American Legion post, has accepted the position of chairman of the committee which has been organized in Omaha to take charge of the Americanization work here. The committee includes W. B. T. Bell, A. C. Scott, A. B. Warren, David Cole, Hird Straker and Allen A. Tukey. This committee will take up the active campaign work in Omaha and will be assisted by Mr. Bryant, who will return regularly from Chicago for this purpose.

Omaha Man, Backed by Cupid and Army Record, Wins Fight With Immigration Officers for Girl Who Is to Be His Bride

Returns Triumphantly to Omaha After Battle With Boston Authorities.

Tom Mascarelli, 823 Pierce street, backed by cupid and an honorable discharge from the United States army, has won his long fight with Boston immigration officials, who opposed his efforts to claim as his bride Miss Maria Bavaresco, who had come all the way from Vicenza, northern Italy, to marry him.

Yesterday he arrived triumphantly in Omaha, accompanied by raven-haired, sparkling-eyed Maria. All that now stands between them and a wedding day is Miss Bavaresco's lack of schooling. She is going to remedy that in a hurry, she declares, under tutelage of a former Italian schoolmaster now a resident of Omaha's "Little Italy."

Held in Boston.

Miss Bavaresco landed in Boston January 6 from Naples, with plans arranged for her to hasten to Omaha for an immediate marriage. Hard-hearted immigration officials, however, declared her illiterate and her pleas in the cause of love and romance fell on unsympathetic ears.

Tom Mascarelli, anxious lover, informed of the dilemma, obtained aid of Omaha federal officials in rushing his final naturalization and then hastened to Boston. Immigration officials have now been satisfied with his posting of $500 worth of Liberty bonds as security for return of Maria for further examination at the end of 60 days, during which time she is expected to try to qualify for passing the required literacy test.

OMAHA POLICE AID SEARCH FOR IOWA EX-SERVICE MAN

Audubon Man Reported Dead, But Doctor Cannot Be Found.

Mystery surrounds the disappearance of Lee Donaldson, Audubon, who has been heard by relatives since March 11, according to A. J. Winn, city salesman of the Standard Oil company, and J. H. O'Kelley, both of Council Bluffs, who reported his disappearance to police last night.

A telegram signed by Dr. McCabe of Omaha, sent to a friend, "Boob" Pepper of Audubon, on March 11, said: "Lee Donaldson operated on 4:30 yesterday. Before death said: 'Tell 'Boob' I am happy now.'"

Cannot Find Doctor.

No trace of a Dr. McCabe has been found in Omaha, according to Winn, and no one by the name of Donaldson has been received at any of the local hospitals.

Mrs. Appleton of Des Moines, sister of the missing man, was notified of the telegram and has organized a search for her brother, who belonged to the 168th machine gun company during the war and had his discharge papers with him when he disappeared.

Money No Object.

A telegram received at the branch office of the Standard Oil company at Council Bluffs from the assistant manager of the state office in Des Moines notified them to spare no money in locating Donaldson, according to Winn.

Mrs. Appleton is employed by the Standard Oil company at the main office in Des Moines.

Contract to Cut Down Hill On Honey Creek Is Awarded

Honey Creek Hill, the terror for drivers on the Lincoln highway between Council Bluffs and Missouri Valley, will be razed this year. The board of county supervisors yesterday awarded the entire contract for building the new roadway around the hill to the Wickham Tile and Bridge company, involving an expenditure of between $80,000 and $90,000.

Tom Mascarelli and his pretty Italian bride-to-be, Maria Bavaresco, for whom he waged a long fight with the immigration officials at Boston, as they appeared upon their arrival in Omaha yesterday. They will celebrate their wedding day as soon as Maria has mastered the English language.

Difficulties of Tom and Maria may also be solved by legislation now pending in congress, permitting the entrance into this country of illiterate European girls coming here to wed former United States soldiers. Tom served 15 months during the world war, being stationed at Camp Cody with the 127th field artillery.

These Dry's, a negro spiritual of distinct charm, and "Come Buy," by Peccia, also won great favor.

The audience, as usual with the Tuesday Musical club, entirely filled the theater with a few extra seats upon the stage. The applause was enthusiastic, and endures were the rule, rather than the exception.

OMAHA LEGION MEMBERS FAVOR PLAN FOR BONUS

Telegrams Sent to Representatives in Congress Urging Them to Support Measure.

A telegram asking that the bonus for returned soldiers be considered immediately will be sent to Senators Hitchcock and Norris and Congressman Jeffers by the Douglas county post of the American Legion this morning.

Money was raised last night to send this telegram and every member present at the Legion meeting in the city council chamber promised to write a letter to the senators and representatives asking them to help get the bonus.

The president of the post was instructed to confer with the president of the state executive committee and see that every candidate for office in Nebraska states his views on the bonus question.

Legion men were urged to file for the primary and support soldier candidates for all offices. Maurice Lipp, who several months ago made a socialist speech at the Audubon, will not be expelled from the Legion post. The committee appointed to investigate his conduct reported that he had done nothing to merit expulsion.

Dr. E. C. Henry, commander of the Douglas County post, urged that every man try to get others to work for the bonus. Randall Hammond acted as chairman of the meeting.

MUSIC

TWO more interesting artists were presented to an Omaha audience last night under the auspices of the Tuesday Musical club. These were Mabel Garrison, coloratura soprano, and John Quine, baritone.

An unkind fate seemed to pursue this recital. First Emilio de Gogorza canceled his engagement on account of illness, and the club snatched victory from defeat by engaging John Quine. Then, Miss Garrison developed a cold, and felt that her voice was not in condition, but sooner than disappoint the large audience, she bravely consented to go as far as she was able, and with the exception of two numbers, sang her entire program and added an extra group.

Miss Garrison is a fine artist. Her voice is not large, but it is of beautiful quality, and she sings with such artistry, and musical grace, that one wouldn't want it different in any way. It is remarkably even, and maintains its beauty of quality under all circumstances. Her fluency was remarkable, but used with such flawless taste, and such a daintiness of touch, and restraint, as to give one unalloyed delight. Her songs for the most part were of the light order, but so charming her art, and so winsome her personality, that each song appealed to its utmost of charm.

Mr. Quine soon won himself an established place in the hearts of his listeners. His voice is a baritone of excellent quality, extremely resonant, wide in range, and with a vital ring which gains an immediate response. He is especially at home in the dramatic numbers, although his other interpretations showed versatility and musicianship of a high order, and which will lead those who have heard him to watch his future with interest.

Mr. George Siemona as accompanist and composer, added an interesting share to the program. Mr. Siemona accompanied Miss Garrison entirely without notes, and his setting of the song, "Baby," was one of the most delightful of the program. Other songs sung by Miss Garrison especially noteworthy were "L'oiseau Bleu," "Deceit," "Tranquility" by Foote, and "To an Old Love" by Scott. Mr. Quine presented the two numbers by Sidney Homer, "Requiem," and a very clever setting of "Casey at the Bat," with special process. "Some of

HOLLAND LIMITS MOVEMENTS OF FORMER KAISER

Action Follows Excoriation of Government for Leniency Toward Hohenzollern.

The Hague, March 18.—The Dutch government was taken severely to task for what was declared to be its leniency toward the former German emperor in debate in the second chamber of parliament when the premier announced a decree limiting Count Hohenzollern's movements and his pledge not to mix in politics.

Had Approval of Holland.

Deputy Von Ravenstein, communist, declared that the government's policy of silence had strengthened the general belief that the former emperor came to Holland originally with Holland's silent approval. Count Hohenzollern, he said, had been permitted to live the quiet, easy life of a retired country gentleman with a motor car at his disposal in which he could cross the frontier any time he saw fit.

The same also could be said, Von Ravenstein continued, about the former crown prince, who could maintain communication with the reactionary party in Germany.

People Mystified.

Wieringen, Holland, March 18.—The people of Wieringen are mystified regarding the movements of Dutch torpedo boats off the coast in the Zuider Zee near Wieringen where former Crown Prince William of Germany resides. One boat arrived there Monday, but was withdrawn by order of the Dutch government. Today another came.

Do You Know Why Red Blooded Men Are Successful?

There are just two kinds of men—the weak, thin-blooded, half sick, discouraged kind, who lack ambition, strength and vitality—and the red-blooded, ambitious, self-reliant men—vigorous and successful.

The strong, red-blooded, healthy men who can stand the strain of hard work, and carry heavy responsibilities, without worry or fear, are the men who succeed.

Do you know why they are red-blooded, full of energy and vigor? Do you know why they succeed?

The blood supplies the material necessary for nourishing every tissue, nerve, bone, muscle and fluid in the body, and for carrying on every process of life.

There are over three million red blood corpuscles in one droplet of blood, and these red blood corpuscles carry the iron in the blood.

Iron attracts oxygen, just as a magnet attracts steel. Without oxygen you cannot live. It vitalizes the blood and makes it red, rich and healthy. That's why red-blooded men are strong, energetic and successful. Their blood is vitalized with life-giving oxygen, and liberally supplied with the iron and cell-salts that nature must have to maintain health.

REOLO produces a rapid increase in the number of red blood cells and plasma of the blood. It increases the supply of oxygen in the blood, stimulates the nervous system and accelerates the circulation, sending through the entire body a stream of rich, red, vitalized blood, abundantly supplied with oxygen, iron and the cell-salts that nourish and rebuild the cells.

Start the REOLO systematic treatment today and you will be delighted with the steady improvement in your health.
