BRYAN SLATE OF DRY DEMOCRATS ENTER PRIMARY

Republican Candidates Favor Nomination of Pershing, But Will Support Voters' Choice.

Lincoln, Neb., March 19.—(Special.)—Petitions were filed with the secretary of state for candidates to be delegates to the democratic national convention in San Francisco. The list includes the names of "dry" democrats who are avowed supporters of W. J. Bryan's principles and antagonistic to the candidacy of Gilbert M. Hitchcock.

Women Seek Honors.

Second district: Mrs. E. B. Towle of Omaha and Albert E. May of Omaha. Third district: Mrs. Marie Weekes of Norfolk and Seymour S. Sider of Fremont.

Republican Delegates File.

Petitions were filed to place the names of the following on the primary ballot for delegates to the republican national convention: To be delegates-at-large: Titus Lowe of Omaha, Charles H. Kelsey of Norfolk, George S. Austin of Orleans; alternate, Charles E. Henning of Omaha. Second district: Gould Dietz of Omaha. Third district: Ed J. Patterson of Central City; alternate, Robert L. Stout of Tekamah.

Former Soldiers Enter.

Voters' petitions for Capt. C. E. Adams of Omaha, former national commander of the G. A. R., as district delegate to the republican national convention from the Second congressional district were filed. Petitions were also filed for Hird Stryker and John H. Caldwell of Omaha, both returned soldiers, for alternates.

Favor General Pershing.

They personally favor the nomination of John J. Pershing. Petitions asking that the names of M. A. Shaw of David City and H. J. Campbell of Osceola be placed on the ballots were also filed. Shaw is a candidate for district delegate to the republican national convention from the Fourth district and Campbell is a candidate for alternate.

Good and Armstrong File.

Auburn, Neb., March 19.—(Special.)—Ellis Good, member of the last legislature, representing Nemaha and Richardson counties as float representative in the lower house, has filed for the republican nomination as representative from Nemaha county. J. W. Armstrong of Auburn will file as float representative for Richardson and Nemaha counties on the republican ticket. There are no democratic filings for the legislature in this county thus far.
