

EXCITABLE SON RUNS AUTO OVER MOTHER TWICE

Auburn Woman in Critical Condition—Steps Behind Car in Dark—Sight Rattles Son.

Auburn, Neb., March 19.—(Special.)—Mrs. William Vanderford, an aged woman who lives in the vicinity of Peru, was seriously injured today when run over twice by an automobile driven by her son, Clifford Vanderford.

ran the machine out of the garage. It was dark at the time and he did not see his mother on her return, as she stepped in the rear of the machine, while he was backing out. He first realized that an accident had occurred when the glare of the headlights revealed her form stretched on the ground in front of the car after he had backed over her.

He was so startled and agitated by the sight that he again drove the machine over her prostrate form. Mrs. Vanderford's body was terribly bruised, and she suffered a severe gash on the head. The ligaments of one leg, above the ankle were completely torn. Her condition is reported critical.

$68,000 Sewer Project.

Beatrice, Neb., March 19.—(Special.)—Work on Wymore's big sewer project is now in progress. It will take several months to complete the job. It will cost approximately $68,000.

Armour Manager Describes World's Largest Refrigerator
"I received word today of the completion of the biggest ice box in the world, that of the giant 10-story freezer of Armour Co. at Chicago," said O. C. Willis, general manager of the Armour local plant, Friday. "I understand it is now in operation."

"This giant freezer building is 10 stories high, of reinforced concrete and steel frame construction and cost $2,000,000. It has a capacity of 50,000,000 pounds of meat.

"Thirty-three cars can be loaded and unloaded at one time by the double track system that leads into the cork insulated loading dock. One-fourth of the building is given over to sharp freezing, where the temperature remains at from 10 to

Man Pays $3 Pound for Bacon—Charged With Theft

Three dollars a pound was the price Thomas Wolfe, 5332 South Thirty-second street, paid for bacon at the South Side police court Friday morning, and Wolfe paid for five pounds at that rate, when he forfeited his bond of $15 to answer to a charge of having purloined the bacon from the Cudahy Packing company. He was arrested Thursday evening by Special Officer Frank Hazard.

OMAHA "FINEST" HOSTS AT DANCE IN AUDITORIUM

Forsake Swinging Night Sticks to Swinging Fair Sex in Merry Revelry.

The Auditorium would have been a poor place to start a fight last night, for pretty nearly all the cops in town were there at the grand ball of the Omaha Metropolitan police. They proved themselves more graceful than they look on their beats as they kicked their No. 12's in the merry dance.

Chief Eberstein was there, representing in his uniform. He took a chance on a dance or two. Commissioner Ringer looked in for a few minutes but didn't do any dancing. Ex-Chief Henry Dunn was on hand.

On orchestra of 20 pieces dispensed the tickle-toe tunes. Arlo W. Barnes sang a deep bass solo, "Asleep on the Beat"—no, no, we mean "Asleep in the Deep." The policemen's quartet also sang a couple of numbers.

Judge Julius S. Cooley was lifted to the platform and delivered a stirring address. Receipts of the ball will be used to buy athletic equipment for the new gymnasium.

G. L. Hickey Quits Union Pacific to Leave for Nevada

George L. Hickey, since November, 1917, superintendent of transportation of the Union Pacific railroad, severed his connection with that road yesterday to become general manager of the Nevada Northern railroad.

Mr. Hickey left yesterday for Ely, leaving the Union Pacific and its subsidiary lines that extended over many years. Prior to coming to Omaha Mr. Hickey held various positions with the Oregon Short line, the Oregon & Washington railroad, and the Southern Pacific.

Mr. Hickey began his railroad career at Milwaukee when he was a young man. He is now 49 years old. Mrs. Hickey left with him for Ely, but expects to return to Omaha shortly to close their home at 305 South Thirty-third street.
