IN DELAWARE MAY YOUNG MEN ARE DEFEAT SUFFRAGE

Pouring in on Governor and G. O. P. Chairman.

Chicago Tribupe-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, March 21 .- On the eve of final victory in the long fight for national woman suffrage, ratification by the state legislature of Delaware which convenes Monday. is endangered by a factional fight over the school code of the state, and the redoubled efforts of opponents of suffrage in and out of Delaware, who are making a last desperate stand against ratification of the national amendment.

Delaware, if the suffrage forces finally win out, will be the 36th state to ratify, since the Washington state legislature is expected to ratify without delay.

Up to date no state legislature having a republican majority has failed to ratify the amendment, and republican governors and state and national committeenien from Massachusetts to South Dakota have been pouring telegrams into Delaware impartially to Governor Townsend, and Daniel Layton, republican state chairman. Both men are ostensibly in favor of ratification of the amendment, but in spite of a suffrage statement issued by Laytheir enemies.

Senate One Vote Short.

Polls of the members of the legislature show at the best, one short in the senate and more than required for ratification in the house while the suffrage poll, which is leaving nothing to chance, shows three votes lacking in the senate and six short

"The 'antis' are certainly putting up the fight of their lives," one national organizer reported to Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the National Women's party.

The uncertainty and alarm in republican circles lest Delaware, with a strong republican legislature, should defeat the amendment by refusing the 36th ratification is evidenced by the reports received at national suffrage headquarters here.
