GAS PURCHASE DISCUSSED AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Water Board Head Explains Views on Municipal Ownership - Urges Re-Election of Members.

Speaking before the political and social science department of the Omaha Woman's club Monday afternoon, K. B. Howell, general manager of the Metropolitan water district, recommended the re-election of Charles R. Sherman and C. M. Wilhelm on the water board.

He expressed regret over the failure of the city council committee to take favorable action Monday looking to the submission of a $1,000,000 bond proposition to the voters. It was his opinion that the gas company would have come down immediately if they had.

Help Milk Plan. "Every one of the 23 fire stations in the city will sell milk in the near future, according to Mr. Howell. Women were asked to patronize this co-operative sale of milk. The sales must be big in order to make the plan possible at all and the general effect, in Mr. Howell's opinion, will be a reduction in the cost of living.

Pershing is Real Leader Says Omaha Business Man

Success Shown in Every Endeavor Undertaken and Masterful Leadership in War Proves Army Chief Qualified for President, Says J. F. Ferguson.

"Am I for Pershing for president? I'll say I am! I'll say I'm for him first, last and all the time!" Thus spoke J. F. Ferguson, well-known Omaha business man, who not only is convinced that General Pershing would make an excellent president of the United States, but has no difficulty to assign reasons for his conviction.

J. F. Ferguson.

He has always affiliated with the republican party, and he desires to see that party nominate at Chicago next June a candidate for the presidency who will command the respect and the support of republicans in all parts of the country, and who, when elected, will administer the government fearlessly and efficiently.

Knows No Failure. "General Pershing does not know that there is such a word as failure. He is distinctly a man of action—a man of deeds. I believe, if he is elected president, the world will be at peace. Although a warrior by profession, he is a man who stands for peace. Every foreign ruler and every foreign secretary would know that he meant to do just exactly what he said he would do. They would respect his word."

Roosevelt Knew Strength. "The immortal Roosevelt knew Pershing better than any other man knew him. He knew what he was doing when he advanced him from the rank of captain to that of a general. I shall be proud to follow the leadership of one who has been so thorough, so efficient, so 'super' in everything he has undertaken. Just think of all the distinguished generals of Europe who 'fell down' in the world war and had to be replaced, and then compare their careers with the career of General Pershing. Even the great Joffre was replaced by Foch."
