ROURKES TAKE ANOTHER FALL OUT OF BLUES

Wallop Three Kansas City Pitchers and Win Second Game, 11 to 4—Omaha Pitchers Going Fine.

Okmulgee, Okl., March 23.—(Special Telegram)—Jack Lelivelt's Colts walloped three more Kansas City pitchers in the second exhibition game here Tuesday and won easily, 11 to 4. Henning received most of the walloping, six hits and 10 runs being made off his offerings in less than two innings.

Lee, Gislason, Maullins and W. Weidell were the star performers for Omaha, although Maullins had two errors chalked against him. Rourke believes Maullins will make a valuable member of the team.

Donica led in the stick work for the Rourkes, with Lee and Frenick close behind. The Omaha outfit shows excellent team work in the field and had the Kansas City boys on the go throughout the entire game. Palmero and Frenick both pitched excellent ball and Palmero was going strong when he was hit in the pitching hand by Henning, who was wild.

Pat Mason, Oscar Fuhr and Earl Schatzman all joined the Omaha squad here Tuesday. Fuhr having decided to sign up and get to work after holding back his decision for several days. A final ultimatum has been sent to Hemingway, who will be suspended April 1 unless he arrives in camp or signs up by that time. Matty Fitzpatrick also arrived Tuesday and will act as trainer for the Rourkes during the rest of the preliminary trip. A cold, dust-laden wind held the attendance down.

Giant Brothers Meet Here; Aggregate Weight Is 481

Wladek Zbyszko (with the cane) and his brother, Stanislaus, starting out on a "long hike" from Hotel Fontenelle Monday.

Stanislaus Zbyszko, weight 248, and his brother, Wladek, weight 233, both wrestlers, met in Omaha Monday and strolled from Hotel Fontenelle to Twenty-fourth street and back for a "good workout."

It was a tedious grind for the heroes of the mat. Bathed in perspiration, they moved back into the hotel, shed their clothes and sprawled on one poor bed in Stanislaus' room.

"We just had a fine workout," commented Stanislaus, the elder brother to a reporter. "We walked clear to Twenty-fourth street."

"You'd hardly call that a workout," ventured Mr. Reporter. "Why didn't you walk to Florence?"

"Ah-h-h-h! Twenty-fourth street is a long way off when de wind is blowing," laughed the Polander.

March "zephyrs" were "wafting" around downtown corners at a 60-mile rate Monday.

Stanislaus is touted by many wrestling fans as the greatest man in the game today. Monday night he dumped Gus Kervaras, Greek champion, twice in an hour and a quarter in Council Bluffs.

Wladek is a mat artist of some note, but can't be compared with his elder brother.

Wladek is 25 years old; Stanislaus, 39.

Wladek carries a cane, shaves twice daily and wears silks, where Stanislaus wears heavy woolens, ordinary clothing and doesn't know what a cane is for.

The parents of the Zzyszko brothers were not unusually large in stature. The brothers attribute their size and strength to living outdoors a great deal.

OMAHA WALLOPS DOANE FOR STATE BASKET TITLE

Locals Capture Collegiate Conference Championship By Trimming Tigers, 35 to 23.

Omaha university basketball squad won the Nebraska collegiate conference championship last night at the university gym by trouncing Doane college team 35 to 23. The visitors were outplayed throughout the game except for the first few minutes.

Ernie Adams, student coach, was the big man for Omaha.

Doane started the scoring. Brown, forward, hooped the sphere from the middle of the floor and soon followed up with another basket. The locals were up in the air, and unable to get started until Doane got well in the lead. The first half ended with Omaha in the lead 22 to 15.

Omaha came back with more confidence in the second period and held Doane scoreless until the last five minutes of play. The locals played a good defensive game, giving the former champs very few shots.

Beacom hit his stride towards the last of the game, getting three baskets in succession.

Stewards of Nebraska Speed Circuit to Meet In Omaha Next Friday

Stewards of the old reliable Nebraska Speed circuit will hold their annual meeting at the Paxton hotel Friday evening of this week to map out plans for the 1920 harness racing season. The probable lineup of the circuit this year is Alliance, Sidney, Kearney, Beatrice, Fremont and West Point. E. D. Gould of Kearney is president, O. M. Smith of Omaha, vice president and N. J. Ronin of Fremont, secretary and treasurer.

Officials of the circuit say that two or three more towns would be a welcome addition to the layout this year, and invite associations that wish to make a bid for dates to send representatives to the meeting. A general invitation for all fair men and horsemen to attend the meeting.

THE SUPREME RESULT

Every mechanical improvement in the Dual Valve Six Pierce-Arrow harmonizes with and supplements every other improvement. That is the supreme result achieved.

Two perfectly-timed sparks are delivered to each cylinder of the Dual Valve engine by the new ignition system. The gas is completely exploded. The full force of the gas is delivered. No gasoline is wasted.

The car gets under way in less time, accelerates more quickly, ranges from three miles an hour to seventy-five on high gear, overtakes other cars or ascends hills without shifting.
