Nebraska Lands.

A SPECIAL "BARGAIN DAY" SALE OF DAWES COUNTY LAND, am on account of scarcity of hire help unloading a large number of my farms that I have heretofore been farmfarms that I have heretofore been farming. I am going to gve terms of anywhere from 25 per cent to 50 per cent down and the balance back on the land at 6 per cent but, scarcity of labor, coupled with a temporary illness that may require my being away from "the heart of things," for some time, absolutely necessitates my letting loose; necessitates to such an extent that I am going to make real bargain prices and exceptionally good terms on any and all of my personal holdings, and very close margins on some other holdings which I am offering for nearesdent friends and patrons. In other words, a general cleaning of some of the best and chelest places in all northwest Nebrana I have gotten out a map showing every 40 acres to a distance of 15 miles west of Crawford; 15 miles north of Crawford; 15 miles east of Crawford. Above and below and down the sides along the margin of this map will be found descriptions and legal num. ford. Above and below and down the sides along the margin of this map will be found descriptions and legal numbers of the places I am offering. Comeright to my office and get one of these maps: look it over theroughly and then instruct me what places you want to see and I will gladly send you to see it. If you cannot come right away, write me for one of these maps. The map shows Crawford in its center; shows the C. & N. W. railroad from its cast to west edge and the Burlington railroad from its south to its north edge. The map also shows Writney and Glen on the C. & N. W. line and Marsland, Helmont, Hern, Orgila and Mansfield on the Burlington line. These two railroads cross at Crawford. The map also shows the location of Fort Robinson military reservation joining Crawford and the Fort Robinson military wood reserve to the west of Crawford. Take this map, read the descriptions of the places I am offering and from the legal numbers given with each description, you pick out the township from the legal numbers given with each description, you pick out the township and range in which the place is located and then the section and you can locate any place and mark it and see the exact distance from Crawford or any of the adjoining railroad towns. It is a new stunt and a thought, but one which I think you will appreciate for, in deliberating, one likes to know the exact location on the map of such pieces of land as one is figuring on. Any child can pick out any piece of land described on my map.

of there are the real ones that I either own or control and which have required own or coursel and which have required my personal attention. I am now going to get out from under the responsibility of at bast a number of them, and while I realize that I am going to lose money by selling them, it is necessary and my loss will be your gain. From the moment you contract for any of them, the increase in value belongs to you and stops coming to me. However, that's all right with me. Scores and scores of men in the past have made fortunes off men in the past have made fortunes off of their buys through my offce. I would feel mighty had to think that enyone ever lest a dollar through any buy through my office—I want you all enyone ever lest a dollar through any buy through my office—I want you all to win and to prosper on anything you buy from me. Some of these places are the very choicest of choice offerings and they will make you mighty good money if you yourself, your son, your son-in-law, or some good friend whom you can trust, can come on and take charge. Should I not be at my office when you strive, I will leave dependable mer who will take you out. Men who will tell you nothing but truth and fact. If one of these places suit you, so right to the bank with my man, but my $1.900 or $2.000, according to the size of the deal, and the bank will give you a receipt for it, closing the sale on the land at the price affectuled on my man or in this advertisement. I may be here to neet you. I hope I am, but, should I not be, don't let the street lonfer and curbstener steer you away from my effice. The man I will leave to take cars of you will be dependable and I would thank you to give them our confidence and curbstoner is here today and gone tomorrow. He has nothling to de will getting you here and The street loafer and curistoner is here today and gone tomorrow. He has nething to de with getting you here and you over him nothing, but, like any horse thief or cattle rustler, he will steal you if he can. You will not find my men on the street curbstoning. I do not run that kind of a business, nor will I ever. My office is over the First National bank. Come to my office and you will be treated fairly and honorably whether I am home or not. My polley remains and in carried out, even though I am away. Most sincerely yours.
