

HARRY ZIMMAN BOOSTS DRIVE FOR PERSHING

Only Logical That Nebraska Should Indorse Native Son, Declares City Commissioner.

City Commissioner Harry B. Zimman, long active in Omaha politics and civic affairs, has announced his support of the movement to give John J. Pershing the indorsement of Nebraska in the republican presidential preference.

Mr. Zimman not only favors Pershing, but expresses confidence in his success at the election April 20. "I do not see how it can be otherwise," he said. "I cannot imagine that when Nebraska is honored by a distinguished native son, the state will fail to indorse him. General Pershing recognizes this his home state, and throughout the war Nebraskans were proud of the fact. As Nebraskans we rejoiced in his appointment to head the American expeditionary forces and we boasted of his success in battle strategy and in the intricate organization behind the battle lines. I fail to see how we can now refuse him the reward which faithful service warrants."

"Within the last few days there have been authoritative statements that, while General Pershing refuses to engage in a mad chase after the presidency, he will not dodge the duty and naturally will appreciate the vote of his home state. No Nebraskan can find excuse, under these conditions, for failing to vote for a low Nebraskan of such unquestioned ability and admitted qualification."

To Try Two Free Balloon Flights With Same Bag

Two free balloon flights will be made from Fort Omaha this afternoon with one balloon. A party of six officers will make the first flight, of at least one hour duration. The second flight will be solo by Capt. H. T. Lewis in case the balloon can be landed without deflating so the others may alight. The velocity of the ground wind at the point where the landing is effected will be the greatest factor in deciding the second flight, officers at the fort said. If it is not strong enough to cause the balloon to drag, the solo can be accomplished, they explained. The purpose of the flight is the qualification of officers for licenses of free balloon pilots. Lieut. W. E.uffman will pilot the first flight, with Capt. F. J. Durrschmidt and Lewis and Lieut. H. R. Wells, W. C. Burns and R. A. Gibson as passengers.

This license was revoked on account of the licensee's violation of conditions upon which his license was issued and held, particularly his failure to appear when summoned to a hearing before D. F. Sazdek, second vice president of the United States Grain corporation and special agent of the United States wheat director at Kansas City.
