Six Hundred Boys to Take Part In Treasure Hunt for Memberships

A band of boy treasure hunters, least 600 strong, will start from Y. M. C. A. building at 1:30 this afternoon on an adventurous ex-pedition that will lead them through highways and byways of downtown Omaha and along paths of suburban ravines and woods.

E. E. Micklewright, boys' work secretary at the "Y," announces that 600 boys have responded to 3,000 treasure hunt invitations sent out this week. He predicted the expedition today would be the biggest treasure hunt yet promoted by "Y" officials in any city in the United States.

The four "caches of treasure," each a year's free membership in the Y. M. C. A., have been hidden for some time in the north, east, south and west portions of the city. At 1:30 today the boys will be handed printed sheets telling them just how to get to the treasure and will the chart of the chart. will start on the chase. can cats see in the dark? (Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syn-dicate, Inc.)

CTRICTLY speaking cats cannot see in complete darkness any more than human beings can. But, owing to a peculiar construction of their eyes, they can make much better use of whatever light there is and, as a result, they can find a "way through a room which appears to be very dark. The pupils of a cat's eyes are capable of being enlarged or distended to a great extent, thus letting in every particle of light. Moreover, this enlargement of the pupil takes place almost instantly and there is therefore little apparent hesitancy on the part of a cat which enters a dark room after being in the bright light. The same principle holds good, in a lesser extent, in the human eye, for after we "become accustomed to "the dark"— or after the pupils of our eyes become sufficiently distended to allow rays to enter-we are able to see much more clearly and distinctly than formerly. This, however, takes an appreciable time, while it occurs automatically in the eye of the cat. Tomorrow's Question-WHY do our faces keep warm in cold

THEATERS

O TIS SKINNER is the attraction at the Brandels theater tonight, with matines this afternoon, when he will be seen in his new comedy-drama "Pietro," written for him by Maud Skinner and Jules Eckert Goodman, In the company with Mr. Skinner will be O. Final performances of the show at the Empress, which has as its stellar attraction the musical novelty offered, by Dorothy Sherman's "Cameo Giris," will be given tonight. Mitchell and Mitchell, two of the foremost banjoists, win popular favor. The comedy playlet, "The Wrong Guy," presented by Frank Hall, the author, and a capable company, is the real laughing bit of the bill.

At the Gayety all week, commencing this afternoon, the "Golden Crook" company is the bill, headed by Billy Arlington. Fifty people, in addition to the star, are employed, including 22 of the prettiest chorus girls. The vehicle is entirely new, the material providing rollicking and enduring fun, and laughter is incessant from curtain to curtain. Tomorrow's matinee begins
