

JOHN J. PERSHING

Nominated by Nebraska;

Elected by the Nation

IN THESE WORDS History will record the result of the primary, April 20, in this state.

Pershing would not accept the nomination from politicians. Months ago some of the most astute campaign managers in the country made their offers--and were turned away.

PERSHING WAS WAITING. Waiting--not for orders from some mystic inner political circle; not for the approval of any group or faction--BUT FOR WORD FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

THAT WORD NEBRASKA--AND NEBRASKA ALONE--CAN SPEAK.!

Nebraska can speak it because Pershing is Nebraska's own; Nebraska WILL speak it because it knows Pershing for what he is--knows that, far better than any other man in the field, he is fitted to carry out the immense and crucial tasks which will devolve upon the next President of the United States.

The prophecy which heads this announcement is not a vain one. The Nation has weighed the early rush of politician-picked candidates--and the Nation waits. WHEN NEBRASKA SPEAKS THE NATION WILL WAIT NO LONGER. It will have heard that for which it listened, and it will respond with all the force of a mighty and overwhelming purpose.

Consider the situation coldly--without prejudice or sentiment. The campaigns of the politician-picked candidates are half over--and not one of the five leaders has yet shown any decided strength over the others.

Pershing's campaign--or, to put it squarely, the campaign which the people are putting on for Pershing--has not yet begun; cannot begin, in fact, until Nebraska has spoken at the primaries.

YET, EVEN NOW, according to recent Washington dispatches, the political sages of the East are again turning toward PERSHING AS THE SOLE LOGICAL CANDIDATE OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN 1920.

They know now what no one knew a few months ago--THAT PERSHING WILL RUN. With that knowledge, there has come to them--as it is coming to the people of the United States--new certainty that there can be only one outcome to the 1920 campaign. THAT OUTCOME WILL BE THE NOMINATION OF JOHN J. PERSHING AT THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION JUNE 8 AND HIS ELECTION TO THE PRESIDENCY OF THE UNITED STATES NOVEMBER 2.

YOUR course is clear. It is to go to the polls April 20, and help pile up the biggest majority on record for the man who is at once the candidate of this state and of the Nation--a majority which will spread broadcast in a night the news that Pershing IS a candidate--and a candidate, not of any group nor faction, BUT OF THE PEOPLE TO WHOSE SERVICE HE HAS DEVOTED HIS LIFE.

Let Nebraska do its part, and, within 24 hours, History will be reaching for its pen to write the words which begin this announcement: "JOHN J. PERSHING--NOMINATED BY THE PEOPLE OF NEBRASKA--ELECTED BY THE NATION."
