

LABOR RADICALS IN BRITAIN ARE BADLY DEFEATED

Rebuke Comes at Recent Meeting When Miners Sought General Strike to Enforce Demands.

By JOHN S. STEELE.
Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.
London, April 2.—The radicals of the British labor movement have suffered the heaviest defeat on record in the vote of the special Trade Union congress at its meeting in London which was summoned to consider the demand by the miners for a national strike to enforce nationalization of the mines. Although the miners had voted in favor of a strike by a large majority the day before, the representatives of the organized workmen of Great Britain turned the strike proposal down by a majority of 2,820,000 votes.

Triumph for Thomas.

The vote was a personal triumph for J. H. Thomas, the railwaymen's leader, and J. I. Clynes, the former food controller, both of whom had pointed out that a national strike would be playing the game of the government.

The man who would profit most by such a strike is not here but in Downing street, said Mr. Clynes. "He would reply with a general election at which he could rally the whole country against labor. We would be giving him just the issues he wants."

The next step on the part of the miners will be a fresh demand, part of which is quite likely to be conceded to them. The labor party as a whole will concentrate on the political campaign making nationalization the chief plank in the platform.

Astors Attended Session.

It is interesting to note that among the spectators on the platform at the Trade Union congress were Lord and Lady Astor, both born Americans and millionaires. No politicians in England have the confidence of the labor men to a greater degree than Lord Astor and his wife and it has often been rumored that they intended to join the labor party. They have no such intention, but they sympathize deeply with the workers and understand their problems. They have both been close friends of J. H. Thomas for years and I think I may now tell a story of how Lady Astor's influence helped to bring about a peaceful settlement of the recent great railway strike in Britain.

Thomas was the leader of the strike and he was, as he has always been, a moderating influence. The wild men seemed to get control, however, and every effort to settle on reasonable terms was thrown down. One evening Thomas, tired, dirty, unshaven, after 40 hours continuous work came to Lady Astor and told her that he had failed. "It means revolution," he said. "I can hold them no longer."

"Don't be that way," Jim Thomas, the American viscountess replied. "Go home and have a bath and go

House Conferees on Postal Measure Drop Opposition to Aid Mail

Washington, April 2.—House conferees on the postoffice bill receded from their opposition to senate amendments providing for the establishment of a transcontinental experimental mail airplane service between New York and San Francisco, via Chicago and Omaha. At their request, however, the senate appropriation of $1,400,000 for the service was reduced to $1,250,000.

VICTIM OF LOVE WIVES OF WOMAN GAINS FREEDOM

Mann Act Charges Filed Against Hayward Thompson Not Substantiated.

Hayward Thompson, confessed victim of the love wives of Mrs. Gladys Wolfe of Kansas City, Mo., was released from the city jail yesterday after confinement of one week. Mann act charges that had been filed against him failed of substantiation when Mrs. Wolfe testified last week before United States Commissioner Neely that Thompson did not bring her to Omaha from Kansas City.

An alleged forgery charge against Thompson was withdrawn after a $50 check, which he is said to have passed on Brandeis' store bank, was made good police say.

Daniels Denies He Referred to Japan as Menace to America

Washington, April 2.—Chairman Paige of the senate naval committee made public a letter from Secretary Daniels denying reports published in some newspapers that the secretary had told the committee that Japan was a menace to the United States.

"I am moved to write to you," said Mr. Daniels, "because this publication conveys the impression that is calculated to give to a friendly nation a view of the attitude of the secretary of the navy and your committee that is wholly at variance with the attitude of your committee and the Navy department."

Salesman Buys Plane In Effort to Obtain Big Order for Trucks

Lincoln, April 2.—(Special.)—Roy L. Williams, Oklahoma City motor truck distributor, who was at Lincoln today on business with his factory, received word by long distance phone that an oil company would purchase Saturday morning a large fleet of motor trucks. His partner's wife being seriously ill and unable on that account to attend to business, Mr. Williams tried to hire an airplane to take him home. Unable to do this, he purchased a plane outright and with a pilot, left Lincoln at 9:30 this morning, expecting to arrive in Oklahoma City, 500 miles away, four hours later in time to land the order for Patriot trucks for his company.

Little Girls' Outer Apparel

The outdoor apparel of Little Girlhood is ready and waiting in the Juvenile Department, and it is all designed with a sure appeal not only to the Tiny Tot who wears it, but to Mother, who is ever on the watch for practical charm in her little daughter's clothes.

There are coats of silver-tone, polo cloth, covert and navy blue serge, indeed, in the selfsame fabrics and styles as the coats for grownups. The sizes are from two to six years and the prices very reasonable.

There are wash hats for two to six-year-olds, plain or trimmed with lace, ribbons and ribbon roses, the prices are from $1.75 up.

Navy Blue Tailleurs

BECOMING simplicity is a great part of their charm, and an evident excellence of tailoring and fabrics assures continued satisfaction. Thompson-Belden suits have the known dependability which makes their purchase a wise expenditure and selection is made pleasurable by the variety and attractiveness of our showing.

Georgette Blouses for Easter

Are a part of the delightful Spring displays in the Blouse Shop. You will find exquisite costume blouses in peplum styles, patterned intricately with embroideries and beading. And by varying degrees the showing reaches the simpler suit blouses, in white and flesh color, rich in frilly rows of Val lace, Venetian and Filet inserts and silken hand embroideries.

The wash blouses deserve more than a mere mention, so fresh and dainty are the models shown—voiles and batistes, tailored or trimmed with Irish, Filet or Val laces, with touches of hand embroidery.
