egg. It is that season when one is given a chance to grab a line on what the ladies think in relation to "skull pans," anyway. Having accumulated a set of

into his cash pockets every time a holiday flops up, the old man will have to walk around with his hands full of empty pockets during the Easter parade.

ing a nest full of highly colored Easter eggs went over and beat up nobody wants to take the hobbysensible; they all think a hobby is something useful.

Lamp Big Store Windows.

Every Easter we see the fair sex who are figuring on purchasing a new Easter outfit lamping the big store windows like a cat lamps a mouse only with the opposite effect; you never heard of a mouse wreck-cover a multitude of sins; the minute they are inside the hat garage they start an argument. Both customer and clerk buzz for two hours straight without saying the same thing twice or anything once, then

The clerk measures off the size of the old lid from the outside, the customer parks herself in front of a trick mirror, the clerk derricks on a new bonnet, if it casts a shadow she like a shad Ing a cat. trick mirror, the clerk derricks on a before the They will figure on a hat that will new bonnet, if it casts a shadow she ornament. figures she is over-dressed, if it don't she gives the clerk her hub-

Faithful Greet Each Other.

by's name and address.

The Easter idea originated many

Though it is not certain that eggs were used in the spring festivals other with a shrill blizzard of words among the people of those times, in rapid succession; friend wife All of this and more, too, is catait is possible that here, as in other cases, they adopted the egg plant, which at that time was the playmate with a face, each going over the forest that old saying, "the sins of the cases and beat cases and beat that the soldiers and the suppless to the face, each going over that old saying, "the sins of the cases and beat cases and beat that the soldiers and the suppless to the face, each going over that old saying, "the sins of the cases and beat cases are cashed up the next morning. Well, other if you can.

The quit.

The case of the suppless to the face, each going over that old saying, "the sins of the cases are cashed up the next morning. Well, other if you can.

The quit.

The case of the suppless to the face, each going over that old saying, "the sins of the cases are cashed up the next morning. Well, other if you can.

The quit.

The case of the suppless to the face, each going over that old saying, "the sins of the cases are cashed up the next morning. Well, the suppless that the suppless that

Now the faithful greet each recognize a family jar when he sees

Been Shuffled On Top Of W. O. W. Building

Far up above Farnam street, a brand new spring derby hat was soaring faster than the H. C. of L., while a disconsolate bald-headed man stood staring at the top of the Woodman of the World building, one hand clutched vainly in the air. The wind itself was blowing by at he rate of 50 miles an hour and went up. Then it went up some more. At last it vanished over the set off hopelessly. An excited citizen came smashing into him at top speed at the corner. The bald-headed man reversed, stopped, and so hard.

Derbies Must Have

the customer puts her old bonnet income blanks ago, the faithful of the coconut.

on the operating table.

so fast it sounds like a cash register writer shall be visited upon the working overtime and the saluta-reader." gasped. "I caught it just as it dropped over the building." And off

Ushers Spoil Music

Episcopal church Passion Sunday.

It happened at St. Barnabas

Bishop E. V. Shayler was conirming a class of 30 and the church

The choir has been practicing diliwas crowded.

backed up. The excited citizen But it is admitted the ushers were waved a derby under his nose. a marked success in safe "Here's your hat old man," he the figures of the church.

Only Four Aces, So Behind him the bald-headed man walked angrily. "Hey you, this ain't my hat," he cried, "who'd you give mine to?" Keegan Figures He's

Fort Crook Soldiers

Prefer Daily Smile

To Wartime Ravings

The following poem, entitled, "Our Side of It," emanates from the members of the 20th infantry, stationed at Fort Crook. It defends the wearers of the uniforms in peace time, requesting daily courtesies, in lieu of wild cheers in wartime and

We're not ashamed of the uniform, and if you are a friend against it, any word that will offend.

Uniforms have many patterns; some are

We have many skilled mechanics, men of letters who Loyally serve the country they have a credit to.

No, indeed, they are not all angels: black-guards, we have some of those, But when they joined the service they all wore civilian clothes.

Many men when they are drinking misbe-have, get rough and swear. Drinking soldiers, or civilians, are disgusting anywhere.

Grant us, then, forbearance; we'll appre-

"South Omaha's Four Aces. "Hitchcock, for president. "Hopkins, for congress. "Tanner, for state senator.

"Lovely, for police judge." The above is a facsimile of a cloth sign on the rear of the automobile of "Rick" Lindsey, South Side poli-that futile grasp only missed its gently on a particularly difficult mark by seven stories. The derby number it was intended to sing Then it went up some while the offering was being taken. tician. for the democratic nomination for anyway, his friends in need about the But the ushers who collected the offering missed their cue. They bepolice magistrate, who resides on police station declare. The bald-headed, very angry man gan the collection while a hymn was the South Side, saw the sign on in progress.

So the choir didn't get to sing the Lindsay's automobile the other day number on which it had struggled he asked him why his name was not noon until sundown tother day try-on the sign and Lindsey replied: a marked success in safeguarding only four aces in the deck, but I might put you on as the joker."

known as a waiter, sat idly on a the guys that would do that. stool in a downtown restaurant the Depends On Clothes. It has covered henored bodies and by other night. He was considerably heroes has been worn

Since the day of our republic, when the stars and Stripes were born. the passing of the days of petty

Hasher Squawks at System

Down-and-Outer Bewails Numbers and Checks and

A confirmed "hasher," otherwise understand. You'd be surprised at and Easy-Why, Everybody Did It.

To Stop His Pinchin' Dough

Cash Registers and Things - Recalls Halcyon

Days When Snipin' on the Boss Was Legitimate

"Before they had the places cluttered up with cash registers, we'd handle all the money over the counter and that made it passin' soft, you And the men who choose to wear them are of many patterns, some are sons of wealthy parents, some are sons of wealthy parents, some are college graduates; some have many virtues and some are simply reprobates.

graft in the one-arm chair restautors and that made it passin soft, you know. These chain joints always have a manager, and when you see the called them. He was of the old one of these managers prowling round the place in an apron and coat, he's grafting the same as the graft in the one-arm chair restauknow. These chain joints always have a manager, and when you see round the place in an apron and coat, he's graftin' the same as the "I've worked in all of 'em from rest, but when he wears ordinary coast to coast," he said with a sigh. civilian clothes he's pure, and wouldn't graft a nickel.

"There ain't a chance for a good "When these anti-graftin' managhasher to cop any dough any more. ers would stand at the end of the The owners is wise these days. counter and watch us, we'd beat 'em They've got you numbered and anyway. I used to slip the nickels checked and cash-registered until and dimes off the counter into the there ain't a show for a square guy beef stew so fast they never could outside the wages he gets, and they "Later I'd take the beef stew pot won't buy no furs for the wife.

"And the tips is meager, I say out in the kitchen and rake out the We have sat with you in public and have smelled your whisky breath;
Heard remarks both sane and silly, nearly boring us to death.
Though we've offered no ebjections when in public we have met.
To you think you should exclude us from your exclusive set.

"And the tips is meager, I say — meager in these serve-self beaneries. If you cop a berry you got to get it from the boss. Efficiency is what has made the life of the old hasher sad. Gawd, how I hate that word. coins. We always split with the cooks. It was part of the ethics or somethin', you know. A cook ought to have a chance.

Efficiency Done It."

"In the old days when they'd leave these chain joints in charge of a "In the old halcyon days a cove common bunch of hashers at night, could pull down eight and 10 berries they thought they had a swell system. They'd check everything updifferent now. different now.

"I've worked in Childs' and Thompson's and all of 'em—verywhere. Thompson used to have a place in Atlanta that was read for fan to which the response is, "in the basement." A fellow doesn't have to be a crockery expert to recognize a family jar when he sees one.

All of this and more, too, is catalogued under Easter Sunday. We logued when the sees of the logued under Easter Sunday. We logued when the sees of the logued under Easter Sunday. We logued when the sees of the logued under Easter Sunday. We logued under Easter Sunday. We logued when the sees one the logued under Easter Sunday. We logued under Easter Sunday. We logued when the sees looking at a soldier and he's where. Thompson used to have a place in Atlanta that was good for eight or 10 a day, but it ain't no other if you can.

"I've worked in Childs' and Thompson's and all of 'em—verywhere. Thompson used to have a place in Atlanta that was good for eight or 10 a day, but it ain't no other if you can.

"I've worked in Childs' and Thompson's and all of 'em—verywhere. Thompson used to have a place in Atlanta that was good for eight or 10 a day, but it ain't no other if you can.

"We used to even beat the cash-in the milk of the milk of the apples of the more. I've quit."

"We used to even beat the cash-in the milk of the milk o

Got acquainted with the soldiers and the heart and soul inside:

Test and try to analyze him, criticise him through and through.

And you'll likely find him just as good a man as you.

Me'd size up a bird coffee and the milk, cut the apples in two and less beans and beat 'em cold all along the line. It was simple.

"We used to could beat 'em, but the did for a livin' and at the and come the faller could beat 'em, but the did for a livin' and at the and coffee and the milk, cut the apples in two and less beans and beat 'em cold all along the line. It was simple. he did for a livin' and at the end as the feller says, the business is of the month or so we'd 'round to decadent and the pa'my days is gone his store and get a new pair shoes, along with grafting in most other or a tie or something else—and he'd lines. Efficiency has done it to us. through one sleeve, crouched, be-came double-jointed, relaxed some.

and threw the other arm almost out

5 o'clock whistle beckoned all work-

Rather Out of Luck Hunsaker Has Awful Time Getting Into His of joint in the struggle. Just as the New Brass-Button Coat ing cuckoos from labor he accomplished his purpose. The coat fit Beat Cashier System.

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

If Policeman H. L. Hunsaker, diminutive officer, waits much longer for a brass-buttoned o'coat that he have to pay storage on the material says.

"Gimme another one, 'bout six sizes larger all the way 'round," he Though smaller in stature than a Hunsaker is still waiting. ing on an o'coat tailored for him out of from one to three yards of union-spun blue. He shoved an arm spury "Essentially artistic." "How's that?" "The family fly swatter is adorned with a bow of pink ribbon."—Birmingham Age-"Don't you know that there are ing on an o'coat tailored for him him like paint on a barber pole. Out of respect for himself he wouldn't bend over nor would he try to take a longer step than a foot and a half. for a brass-buttoned o'coat that he ordered shortly after the riot he'll gained freedom from the coat, he

"What kind of woman is Mrs. Gad-

KES THESE SPELLING RULES ANYWAY?

This Young Man "Rolls His Own" In Profound Argument for Culture Against "Illetercy."

Lays Great "Strece" on "Publick Liberies." What Happened to

We certainly agree with the youth who wrote the following essay that "more time should be devoted to the study of English in the secondary schools." The "essay" is copied verbatim. The author of it is a student in an Omaha institution of learning higher than the high school. More we will not divulge. Look out below! Here is the learned dissertation just as the youth wrote it:

Subject: "More time should be devoted to the study of English in the secondary schools."

By English we mean the allied subjects, Grammer, Retoric, Composition and Litture.

The existing conditions of today require more time to be spent on English. Most bussiness houses have some correspondence. The larger they are the more they will have. Be a business ever so small it will receive letters. Intelligent and digineffied advertising is very essentional to a bussiness sucess.

"Unsatissfactory Stenogafers." Bussiness men of today complain that the high school graduates are unsatissfactory for stenogafers. They are defficent in spelling, puncutation and penmanship. They can not write clear direct and forseful

Spends Pleasant Time

Hurling Corn Kernels

and passed his time decreasing the corn supply by hurling kernels with unerring aim at passing pedestrains. And it wasn't April First, either.

Be Trying to Get gan to work. The rubbers were kicked off and pushed back again, the window front while the young

New York Firm Will

letters. They also make many blunders in speach.

Some Are "Skepical." The sucess of a proffessional man depends a lot upon his culture. The publick has become more critical and they are more skepical of the worth of the uncultured.

cultured. The colleges have increased their demands in composition and retoric students who wish to enter must posece a good retorical structure.

knowledge of the principals of

They must also be able to apply Retorical principals in com-position. Several young men were not alowed to enter Harvord because of fautly puncta-

The colleges are demanding more litterature work. The present college exmanation board has added a knowledge of

Some people argue that the colleges have no right to dicitate in this matter, is not to the point. Because College Enterance Boards are composed of high school teachers as well as college proffesors.

"Langague" and "Litture."

The large and growing foreign population makes a sim-ular demand. These foreigners must be taught out langague and our litture. Otherwise our free instutions will suffer. The influance of a large illerate population is to lower the standards of Native Americans.

Develops the "Immignation." English work developes the immignation for literature is a product of immignation. It also brings us in touch with lots that is beyound our experiences. It exicutes a strong moral influ-

No "Valled" Objection.

No valled objection to the addition of time to be spent on English has been offered. It has been shown the conditions existing in bussiness and in a prof-woman kept on gazing. Then she moved on with the crowd.

handed to the newspapers: \

"Help the police force to enforce

"JOS. W. MARROW.

"For Police Judge, "Republican Primary."

A Sixteenth street store window. a joy-ride. "Notice, I. W. W. - Bolsheviki.

room, was all too inviting to the suners is unpardonable in Omaha!

The charmed setting of the living rich or poor.

fessional and social life demand a better English education. People who are cultured and refined do not wish to be clased with the illeterit. Cultured social corsponance is nessary. The general average of culture is advanceing

"Scittistics" Prove It.

There is also a growing demand for the publick liberies. The decrease in illetercy among native born Americans as shown by government scittis-

College standards as expressed in enterance requirements demand better English training. They lay great strece on it. The college Enterence Exmanation Board always makes it a part of the exmanation.

Even Chinamen Are Human. (Poem on the Death of His Wife by Wuti Who Lived 187-87 B. C.)
The sound of her silk skirt has stopped. On the marble pavement dust grows. Her empty room is cold and still. Fallen leaves are piled against the doors.
Longing for that lovely lady How can I bring my aching heart to rest?

GETTING INFORMATION.

I asked the pastry cook at the Gearing why cranberry pie was always made with criss-cross tops and he told me it was to hold the berries in. A fellow never gets information unless he seeks it. GRIM REAPER.

(Folk Progress.)
Who will you have for Village trustees to fill the places of those who expire in April. Time to get busy and hold a caucus. DIDN'T LIKE BEANS.

NOTICE-This is to inform the public that my wife, nee Estella Landis, has deserted me, and that I will not be liable for any bills she may contract.

"Here's Your Hat, Dear

Signed GUY A. BEANS. THE DILEMMA.

What should a man do who loves toe shoe. whipped cream puffs and at the same time wears a moustache? One or the other MUST BE sacrificed. Figure (2) shows how every man, woman and child demands shoes that fit the feet as nature grew them. Ground Grippers are such shoes. They are not merely broad-toe shoes. They are scientifically designed—the natural shape of the foot. They assist you in walking correctly. They overcome arch falling. They give the body its natural efficient poise.

OMAHA, NEBRASKA

has so many mysteries to show you-mystic totem poles, gorgeous, impatient Alpine flowers that push up through the snow if it melts too slowly, huge, iridescent glaciers, gold mining, heroic sculpture in rock and ice-that nature has provided

100% Daylight Saving -The Midnight Sun

The trip is a joy and a tonic. Five days northward from Vancouver - 1,000 swift miles on smooth, island-guarded salt water - five days each way of delightful life on one of the palatial

Canadian Pacific Steamers

while watching the finest travelogue in living colors. Canadian Pacific Ticket Office

Thos. J. Wall, Gen'l Agt. Pasgr. Dept. 140 So. Clark Street, Chicago, Ill.

So easy to reach through the Canadian Pactile Rockies.

This institution is the only one in the central west with separate buildings situated in their own grounds, yet entirely distinct, and rendering it possible to classify cases. The one building being fitted for and devoted to the treatment of noncontagious and nonmental diseases, no others being admitted; the other Rest Cottage being designed for and devoted to the exclusive treatment of select mental cases requiring for a time watchful care and special nursing.

Three ways to reduce

ADVERTISEMENT

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Mos. Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr.F.M.Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ail-ments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look. If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, nead-aches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results. for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 10c and 25c.

Phone Douglas 90

Omaha-Accept No Imitations

Piles Fistula --- Pay When Cured

A mild system of treatment that cures Piles Fistula and other Rectai Diseases in a short time, without a severe surgical operation. No Chloroform, Ether or other general anesthetic used.

A cure guaranteed in every case accepted for treatment, and no money to be paid until cured. Write for book on Rectal Diseases, with names and testimonals of more than 1.000 president people who have been permanently cured.

At Passing Pedestrians her as they were about to cross a street a block from the window dis-Says Fair Pedagogue play.

They began retracing their steps How the Omaha Grain exchange expecting to find the footwear in the controls the corn market has been disclosed.

A young Omaha man and his expecting to find the follower. In the controls the corn market has been mud of a side street.

"Now, who do you suppose put my rubbers there?" she asked of her J. H. Beveridge, superintendent of public schools, avers that it is A young Omaha man and his my rubbers there?" she asked of her friend when she caught sight of them as she hurried by. within his knowledge and belief that some of the teachers have beaux and he looks upon this year with tween Nineteenth and Twentieth misgivings on account of it's leap Wednesday evening. Reports in the papers of the corn market that have disclosed that "up to zoon, no corn had been sold."

Reports in Platform of Court Bailiff for F year associations. He knows of one teacher in par Bailiff for Police ticular who has an affair of the heart and who seems to know how Unquestionably the market was to handle the situation with tact and discrimination. This teacher sets apart one evening of the week when flooded that afternoon. Judge Like Utopia Some unseen habitue of the exchange concealed his carcass be-hind window sashes, or something, Joe Marrow, bailiff in District she is at home for the young man who is getting along quite well in the school of love. This fair peda-

"Why I've lost my rubbers," she said to the friend who accompanied What's Your Hurry?"

nomination to the office of police gogue, however, has a fine regard judge. And here is his platform, as for the flight of time and for the tendency of her admirer to extend "I stand tor:
"The extreme limit of fine or imhis call beyond what she considers a decorous hour. prisonment to automobile speeders. When he called last week and re-This Barney Oldfielding about the mained after the 10th hour of the When he called last week and re-This Window Artist city must stop.

"Also the limit for automobile drivers who entice young girls for evening, she gave him several hint which did not have the desired effect. She then brought the visit to an abrupt ending by taking his hat in her hand and placing it on his furnished as an up-to-date living Work, go to jail or leave town. Idle- head with several deft touches to perconscious feet of a young woman wearing heel strap rubbers the and impartial hearing—black, white, give it the correct tilt.

According to Superintendent Beveridge, the young man compre-hended the full force, of the young woman's actions.

room seemed to repel the very thought of muddy feet and the sub-conscious mind, paying very little heed to the superconscious feet, be-Patience—So she married an actor?
Patrice—Tes, she did.
"Well yes; he acted as if he loved her—Tonkers Statemans."

What License Have We to Talk About Barbarisms? We "civilized" (?) people, who pride ourselves in our humanitarian ideals and at the same time wedge our feet into pointed toe shoes and walk on high heels, ignoring nature's definite laws-what license have we to pass judgment on the barbarities of "uncivilized" people?" The health, comfort and physical perfection of

Figure (1) shows how the foot looks when wedged into a narrow-