ROBBERY OF SAFE HELD BY POLICE

MAN WHO CLAIMS

Police Discredit Story of Fireman Who Says He Was Held Up by Two Men.

F. E. Snyder, Hotel Harley, foreman at the warehouse of the Sinclair Refining company, Eleventh and Seward streets, is held by police charged with the robbery of a safe in the warehouse office early Sunday morning.

Snyder was suffering with a gunshot wound in the left hand when detectives arrived at the scene of the reported robbery at 7:30 Sunday morning.

He told police two unmasked men held him up at the point of guns, blew the safe and fired three shots at him. Snyder's left hand shows powder burns, which indicate firing at close range, police say. Snyder was released under $1,000

ond. Cash is Recovered.

Of $300 in cash and checks missing from the safe, detectives found $103 in a small box hidden among a stack of automobile tires in a room adjoining the office, a police report states. Snyder first told detectives the two alleged robbers blew open the safe with nitro-glycerine, but later said a sledge hammer was used, police allege.

Snyder told detectives he fired three shots at the two men as they escaped from the office. Snyder was a victim of a gang of robbers last February under similar circumstances, a police report states. In that case, it was reported that he was bound and gagged and that an attempt to break open the safe was unsuccess-

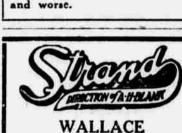

H. A. Anderson, manager of the Omaha offices of the Sinclair Refining company, told detectives that Snyder notified him of the robbery at 7:15 Sunday morning. Snyder has been employed by the Sinclair Refining company for
