

1920 FORECAST SHOWS DECREASE IN WHEAT CROP

Estimated Production Is 483,700,000 Bushels, Compared to 731,636,000 Bushels During the Past Year.

Washington, April 8.—Production of winter wheat this year was forecast today at 483,700,000 bushels and rye 75,841,000 bushels by the Department of Agriculture, which based its estimate on the acreage planted last December, allowing for average average abandonment and assuming average influences until harvest.

"DANDERINE"

Stops Hair Coming Out; Doubles Its Beauty.

A few cents buys "Danderine." After an application of "Danderine" you can not find a fallen hair or any dandruff, besides every hair shows new life, vigor, brightness, more color and thickness.

The New Home Treatment for Ugly Hairy Growths

(Boudoir Secrets) Here is a simple, yet very effective method for removing hair and fuzz from the face, neck and arms. Cover the objectionable hairs with a paste made by mixing some water with a little powdered salicylic acid. Leave this on for 2 or 3 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. No pain or inconvenience attends this treatment, but results will be certain if you are sure to get real salicylic acid.

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

In Blisters, Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals. "I awoke one morning with my face covered with pimples. The pimples were all scales and were in blisters and they were very large and red. They itched and I scratched them and they burned so that I could hardly sleep. I was a disgrace to go out. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. A free sample helped so much that I bought more, and now I am completely healed." (Signed) Miss Evelyn Shepard, 922 E. Minnehaha St., St. Paul, Minn., April 7, 1919. Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum for all toilet purposes.

Youthful in Body and Mind

Never mind your age—as measured by years. How do you feel? That's the thing that counts! See this sprightly old gentleman coming toward you down the street. His birth record would show you that he is past seventy. But judging from the easy grace with which he swings along, his erect carriage, his ruddy complexion, the keen glance of his eye, his whole appearance the very picture of health, you would say that he is not a day past fifty. He is young in spite of his three score years and ten.

LYKO
The Great General Tonic
Just try "LYKO" when you are feeling the least bit jaded, tired and worn out. See for yourself how quickly it restores you—what a fresh feeling of strength and power is given you. It's a reliable appetizer, a splendid aid to digestion, besides tending to strengthen and tone up the entire body. Your druggist has "LYKO." Get a bottle today. Look for the name on the package and accept no substitute.
LYKO MEDICINE COMPANY
Kansas City, Mo.
For sale by Boston Drug Co., 15th and Farnam Sts., and all retail druggists.

THURLES, STORM CENTER FOR ALL REVOLT CRIMES

Twelve Murders Have Disturbed Quiet of Richest Farming Provinces in Last Six Months.

By JOHN STEELE.
New York Times-Chicago Tribune Cable, Copyright, 1920.
Thurles, County Tipperary, April 8.—This little town of 4,000 people in the heart of one of the richest cattle districts of Ireland is a storm center of political unrest. In less than six months it has been the scene of 12 murders, half of whom were policemen and half civilians. There is little doubt but that the police were murdered by Sinn Fein extremists. The Sinn Feiners say the police murdered the half dozen civilians; the police say it was done by the inner circle of the Sinn Fein. Thurles lies half way between Cork and Dublin, and I stopped off to try to find out why this peaceful little town, capital of an archdiocese of the same name, possessor of one of the finest Irish cathedrals and residence of one of the ablest, saintliest archbishops in the Irish

DENY AMUNDSEN HAS LEFT VESSEL FOR DASH TO POLE

Norwegian Geographical Society Declares He Will Follow Nansen's Idea Before Starting His Dash.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.
Washington, April 8.—Capt. Ronald Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, and now leader of a North Pole expedition has not left his ship, the "Maude" for a final dash to the pole. The denial of the recent report from London that the Amundsen dash had actually begun was received in Washington today by Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the National Geographic Society, in a cablegram from the Norwegian Geographical society. According to the earlier report from Christiania published in London on March 26, the explorer began the dash across the polar ice field accompanied by only two men. Had this report proved true, Amundsen's dash if successful might have brought him to his goal on the same day of the year on which the pole was discovered by Peary, April 6, 1909. Geographers who are familiar

PERSHING AND ROOSEVELT CLASH OVER MULES AND NEBRASKAN IS VICTORIOUS

Condition of Winter Wheat April 1 Was 75.6 and Rye 86.8 per Cent of Normal.

Washington, April 8.—Illustrating the determination with which Pershing entered upon every duty and his unqualified success in all of his undertakings, the New York Tribune prints a story of a meeting between General Pershing and Colonel Roosevelt while both were on duty in Cuba. "Pershing was quartermaster and adjutant of his regiment," relates the Tribune. "On the left of the Tenth happened to be the Rough Riders, commanded by Roosevelt. Mules were precious property in Cuba just then and Pershing had lost two of them. Colonel Roosevelt also had lost some mules. They both found two mules wandering in the underbrush and they found them at the same time. It was intensely dark, too dark for variance in military rank to make much difference. Roosevelt was sure he had found his mules and so was Pershing. I am informed that the conversation which followed there in the darkness would not, even in this enlightened age, look pretty in print. Two strong wills clashed and a duel of words was the inevitable result. Gentlemen seldom resort to fist-cuffs, and Roosevelt and Pershing were gentlemen. But Pershing's fellow officer who told me the story pointed with some pride to the fact that Pershing got the mules.

Foster Son of Kit Carson Dies at Soldiers' Home

Los Angeles, April 8.—Lewis C. Shilling, scout, guide, foster son of Kit Carson, associate of Davy Crockett and Col. James Bowie, and member of Gen. John C. Fremont's California expedition, died at the National Soldiers' home at Sawtelle, near here. He was 88 years old.

Fire at Aviation Camp Causes $1,000,000 Loss

Dallas, Tex., April 8.—Several airplanes, large supplies of lumber, the engine house building and the unloading sheds at the army aviation repair depot, north of Dallas, were destroyed by fire early today. The loss was estimated by army officers at $1,000,000.

39c
PINT CANS
Larger sizes cheaper per lb.
MAZOLA
CORN OIL
SAFED AND COOKING
MAZOLA
Corn Products Refining Co., P. O. Box 161, New York City
Cartan & Jeffrey Co., 408 South 12th St., Omaha, Neb.

Militarization Only Way to Utilize Man Power, Trotsky Says

Moscow, April 8.—Militarization is the only means to fully utilize Russia's man power, said Leon Trotsky, bolshevik minister of war, addressing the ninth convention of the communist party last night. The address was chiefly directed to define the relation of the mobilization of the industry to the industrial revolution of Russia. Trotsky declared the working army, which is built on the principle of compulsory work, is no less productive than was the old system of competition. He asserted that political administration of railroads was unsatisfactory, adding, however, that it was necessary because railroad workers are more conservative in tendency than men engaged in other branches of labor. The general tenor of the speech was in support of centralization of power in the hands of a strong government. Speculation, in Trotsky's opinion, is equivalent to desertion of communist principles, and the only effective way to combat it is by military discipline.

Stock Yards Arbitrator Says Bonus System He Put In Effect Wrong

Chicago, April 8.—Judge Samuel Alacimier, sponsor for the bonus system for stockyards workers, declared it to be a failure after he had acted as arbitrator, this week, in the latest yards wage dispute. He said: "Workingmen do not seem to regard the bonus as part of their pay and honestly believe the employers do not get credit for all the money they pay out. If you ask one of the men from the yards how much he gets an hour he will tell you, but won't refer to the bonus." Dennis Lane, international secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers, said that the bonus looks like charity.

Attorney General Recovers Atlanta Ga., April 8.—Attorney General Palmer, who was stricken at Gainesville Tuesday with an attack of acute indigestion, arrived here Wednesday night apparently recovered and will continue his speaking schedule in Georgia.

—and when Mother made "French toast" on Sunday mornings

How we would stuff our little stomachs. Gee, those were wonderful breakfasts. And do you recall the way Dad would let out his belt as he tackled the last piece, with rather a reluctant expression on his face, that he was not going to be able to get away with more? Dad used to say Mother worked too hard, and that it was foolish to go to so much trouble over breakfasts on Sunday mornings, 'cause we all had to hurry off to church anyway. But do you remember how Mother would give us kiddies the wink and say nothing? It didn't matter to Mother about the work she did. Her whole life, her every happiness, came when she could watch us youngsters stuffing ourselves with the things she was able to make us in her kitchen. It was Mother who set the bread standards of the world. In every loaf of Mother's bread she put that generous portion of Mother's Love that today nothing takes its place. Mother knew hundreds of ways of serving breads so that our little mouths would fairly water in anticipation of the goodies. French toast, country sausage and brown syrup was only one of these—but, Gee, how we loved it. Today the bread baking is done in the bakeries. Here the standards that Mother set years ago are always the cherished aims. We make Tip Top and Hard Roll Breads so good that your enjoyment in them will bring back those good old memories of Mother's Bread. Order a loaf today, and see how close we have come to those standards which your Mother left for us.

In Mother's Bread there was a generous portion of that "never-to-be-had-of-again" ingredient—Mother's love.

Insist on knowing where your Bread comes from DEMAND!
one of these famous brands—the Label will protect you

Petersen & Pegau Baking Co.
Illustration of a loaf of bread and a rolling pin.