U. S. FOR HELP, SAYS GRIFFITH

Intervention by America for Freedom Coming Soon, "Acting President of Republic" Declares.

By JOHN STEELE. New York Times-Chicago Tribune, Cable, Copyright, 1920.

Dublin, April 9 .- Ireland is look ng for American intervention in favor of Irish freedom. This dec aration was made by Arthur Griffith, "acting president of the Irish republic." He says it is coming, not immediately, but soon, but refuses to specify the date more particularly. Meantime his policy is no compro mise of his demand for the fullest possible independence.

Mr. Griffith, like other Sinn Fein members of parliament and officials. is "on the run." I have had three appointments in three days and each was called off at the last mo ment because the address he had been staying at had become danger-ous. I found him today in a beautiul Dublin house. Dismisses Home Rule Bill. Mr. Griffith dismissed the home rule bill in a few scornful sentences. 4th District, Engine House, 12th and Dedge.

"The bill keeps policemen, tax gatherers, and postmen under English control. It prohibits Irish trade development. Dublin castle remains the power, and the Irish parliament a mere debating society. Our postition is clear. They talked of constitutional action. We adopted it, elected representatives by four to 4, and took a stand on self-determination. England's answer is the jail for our elected representatives. Now we are at war. The police barracks are armed blockhouses for the invading force; their destruction is an act of war, and I would like to see how they will collect the tax for compensating the owners. "The bill keeps policemen, tax compensating the owners. America Must Intervene.

"America must intervene. When England was defeated and going down, President Wilson came in and saved her, laying down certain prin-ciples which it has not lived up to. worth.
