

Society

Wheeler-Wakeley Wedding.
The wedding of Miss Mildred Wheeler, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago and Mr. Arthur Weeks Wakeley, son of Mr. Lucius Wakeley, took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Lindsay Wheeler served as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Norman Harris, Miss Ethel McNair, Miss Helen Leavitt and Miss Esther Van Dervoort.

Miss Wheeler was graduated from Vassar in the class of 1918 and is interested in welfare activities in Chicago. Mr. Wakeley was graduated from Cornell in the class of 1911. During the war Mr. Wakeley was a lieutenant in the artillery and served in France and in the army of occupation in Germany.

Besides the Omaha relatives of the groom, other out-of-town relatives present were Mrs. C. E. Crain of Springfield, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wells of Menominee, Mich., and Mrs. W. C. Safford of Boston, who was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Mr. Wakeley's mother.

Higby-Parsons.

The marriage of Miss Bonnie Bess Parsons, daughter of Mrs. Anna Parsons, and Charles Dewey Higby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Higby, will take place Monday afternoon at the South Side Christian church. Rev. Ford Ellis will officiate. The couple will be attended by Miss Hazel Parsons, sister of the bride, and Frank W. Ruemping. They will leave immediately after the ceremony for Chicago and will be at home in Youngstown, O., after April 18.

Boyles-Burleson.

The marriage of Miss Pearl Burleson and H. B. Boyles took place last Monday at the First Christian church, Rev. Cobbe officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Boyles are at home at 5300 North Fifty-first street.

For Bride-Elect.

Mrs. H. O. Hitchcock entertained at a shower at her home Saturday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Miss Helen K. Brown of Lincoln, whose marriage to Earl Drath of that city will take place in May. Twenty guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock entertained 50 guests at a dancing party at their home Saturday evening for this couple. A mock wedding was staged during the evening.

Wedding Date.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Meyer of Omaha and H. Joseph Cohn of Chicago will take place here April 20. Miss Verna Kirschbraun will be the only attendant. Mr. Cohn arrives in Omaha April 17.

For Bride-Elect.

Mrs. C. M. Brookman and Mrs. M. A. Arnold entertained at an aluminum shower Saturday evening in honor of Miss Bonnie Parsons.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen McCaffrey announce the engagement of their daughter, Clare, to John W. Halpine, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Halpine of this city. Miss McCaffrey was graduated from the Sacred Heart academy and Mr. Halpine from St. Marys college, Kansas. He served in the aviation service during the war. The marriage will take place in June.

Engagement.

An engagement which is of interest to Omahans is that of Miss Alice Ray Becker of Peoria, Ill., to Dr. M. Eugene Wolcott of Omaha. No date has been set for the wedding but it will probably take place during the summer.

Third Wedding Anniversary.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Conlin entertained at a bridge dinner at their home Saturday evening in honor of their third wedding anniversary. Spring flowers were used in the decorations. Those present were Mrs. and Mrs. J. M. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rees, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gordon and Mrs. Robert Switzer, jr.

Card Party.

The Degree of Honor lodge will give a card party Wednesday afternoon at the Odd Fellows' hall, Twenty-fourth and M streets.

Dancing Club.

A dance will be given Monday evening at Crouse hall, Sixteenth and Capitol avenue, by the Monday Night Dancing club.

Fine Arts Luncheon.

Mrs. Ward Burgess will entertain at luncheon at her home Wednesday. Her guests will be those women who have acted on the board of directors of the Fine Arts society during the presidency of Mrs. Burgess.

Kappa Psi Delta.

A dancing party will be given at the Hanson park pavilion Thursday evening, April 22, by the Kappa Psi Delta.

Good Times Club.

A dance will be given Wednesday evening at Lyric hall by the Good Times club.

Pershing Club.

The Pershing club will give a dance Monday evening at Lyric hall, Nineteenth and Farnam.

To Aid Benefit.

Mrs. Christopher Thornton will be in charge of the specialty show, which will be one of the features of the Atlantic City Board Walk Fete to be given April 16 and 17 at the Council Bluffs Auditorium for the benefit of St. Pauls church. Her assistants will be Mrs. G. A. Van Inwegen, Mrs. A. W. Rickman, Mrs. M. H. Hammond, Mrs. D. J. Gates, Mrs. Emmett Tinley, Miss Lillian Peterson, Miss Leona Grahl and Miss Marguerete Brown.

School Banquet.

The girl student body of the University of Omaha, gave a banquet at the school Saturday evening for the members of the foot ball and basket ball teams. Decorations were in the school colors, red and black, and covers were placed for 266. Paul Pressly was toastmaster for the evening and those responding were Dr. D. E. Jenkins, Dr. Gilbert James, Glen Reeves, Ernie Adams, Jack Beacon, Harlan Haaker, Ray Phelps and Hilbert Peterson.

Miss Marguerite McCartney, athletic sponsor, was present.

Week-End Visitors.

Miss Marjorie Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Parsons, who attends the University of Nebraska, is spending the week-end in Omaha. Miss Lucile Crost, who is also a student there, is her guest. Miss Crost is a member of the Michigan chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma and is also a member of the honorary sorority, Phi Nu Epsilon.

Both will attend the Phi Chi fraternity formal dancing party to be given at the Blackstone Monday evening.

For Mrs. Low.

Mrs. Wilson Low was hostess at an informal luncheon Saturday at her home in honor of the birthday of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Low.

Anna Edstrom a Bride

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Saturday evening when Miss Anna Edstrom became the bride of Dr. H. E. McKibben of St. Cloud, Minn. The ceremony, mony was performed by Rev. P. G. Nelson of Sioux City at the home of the bride's brother, Dr. Andrew J. Edstrom, and Mrs. Edstrom. Pink and white roses and ferns were used through the rooms. The wedding march was played by Henry Edstrom, a brother of the bride, and Alice Edstrom, her niece, sang "I Love You Truly." There were no attendants.

The bridal gown was of white satin combined with georgette crepe with which a shower bouquet of white roses and sweetpeas was carried.

Immediately after the ceremony dinner was served at the Edstrom home for immediate relatives.

Mrs. J. A. Edstrom, mother of the bride, and Mrs. C. E. Bergren, sister of the bride, both of Two Harbors, Minn., were present at the ceremony.

Dr. and Mrs. McKibben will reside at St. Cloud.

and Hilbert Peterson. Miss Marguerite McCartney, athletic sponsor, was present.

Miss Marjorie Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Parsons, who attends the University of Nebraska, is spending the week-end in Omaha. Miss Lucile Crost, who is also a student there, is her guest. Miss Crost is a member of the Michigan chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma and is also a member of the honorary sorority, Phi Nu Epsilon. Both will attend the Phi Chi fraternity formal dancing party to be given at the Blackstone Monday evening.

For Mrs. Low. Mrs. Wilson Low was hostess at an informal luncheon Saturday at her home in honor of the birthday of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Low.

Personals

A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Norman at St. Josephs hospital.

Mrs. Victor Coffman leaves May 1 for California, where she will join her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Dixon, and Mr. Dixon to spend six months.

Miss Stella Grant of Chicago is the week-end guest of her sister, Miss Josephine Grant.

A daughter, Elizabeth, was born April 4 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Clark of Des Moines, formerly of Omaha.

Mrs. Herman Rehfeld and daughter, Leona, return Sunday from California, where they spent three months.

Mr. Myron Wood Thomson of Denver, Colo., was the house guest for several days this week of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Low.

Mr. Robert Byrne left Friday for the east where he will spend 10 days.

Mrs. B. Warren, who has spent several months in California, returned to Omaha this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maury Porter, who recently have made their home in Chicago, have returned to Omaha and are in their new home at Fifty-second and Jackson streets.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scobie returned Thursday from Ormond, Fla., where they have spent the winter.

Mrs. Arthur Remington and brother, Mr. Harry McCormick, returned last week from California where they spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Nash Cartan of San Francisco, who have been on their wedding trip to New York, are expected in Omaha the first of the week to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nash for a few days, enroute to their home.

Mrs. Harry Jordan sailed Thursday from Honolulu where she has been the guest for several weeks of Mrs. J. J. Dickey, formerly of Omaha.

Mr. E. Dimon Bird of New York City, returned Tuesday to his home.

Miss Eugenie Patterson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Livingston Fairbank of Chicago, is now the guest of Mrs. Jack Richardson, formerly Miss Marion Kuhn, at Auburn, N. Y. From there Miss Patterson expects to go to New York to visit Mrs. Edward Bull, formerly Miss Mildred Patterson of Kansas

Miss Mildred Patterson will spend some time in New York and will take up the study of the Bohemian language at Columbia university, with the view of returning to Bohemia in the fall to do social welfare work.

Edson Rich, jr., who attends the San Diego Army and Navy academy, spent his spring vacation in Omaha with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Rich, sr.

Mr. Luther Drake, who underwent an operation last Friday at the Mayo hospital in Rochester, is reported to be doing very nicely and expects to go to the convalescent hospital in about 10 days. Dr. W. O. Bridges, who accompanied Mr. Drake to Rochester, returned the first of the week, but Mrs. Drake will remain until Mr. Drake is able to return to Omaha.

Mrs. Austin Gailey left Tuesday for Silver City, N. M., for a rest before returning to her home in Indianapolis. She will be joined later by her mother, Mrs. Thomas J. Mackay.

Mrs. H. H. Fish has returned to her home in the St. Regis apartments and is now convalescing following an operation for mastoid at the Immanuel hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Martin have opened their home in Fairacres after spending the winter at the Hotel Fontenelle.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Storz and daughter, Miss Elsie, are at Excelsior Springs, where they will spend a short time.

Mrs. J. R. Ringwalt returned Saturday from California, where she spent several weeks. Her sister, Mrs. Joseph Garneau of New York City, who spent the winter traveling in Japan, joined Mrs. Ringwalt in California and returned to Omaha with her for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Chadwick have returned from California, where they spent the winter.

A daughter was born Sunday at the Clarkson hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guio.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dietz returned Tuesday from Long Beach, Cal., where they spent several months.

Mrs. Joseph M. Metcalfe has returned from New York City, where she spent the winter and is at present at the Fontenelle. She expects to reopen her home shortly.

Gen. John Hines, who, as Lieutenant Hines, was stationed at Fort Omaha a number of years ago with the Second regiment, spent Thursday in Omaha and was entertained by Mr. Arthur Guio. General Hines served with the army in France, where he was commissioned brigadier general.

The daughter who was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters has been named Rebecca Yates.

Mrs. William A. Fraser is at the Nicholas Sent hospital, where she went last week upon her return from Excelsior Springs, having suffered from a fractured limb.

Mrs. Wallace Lyman will leave April 12 for St. Johns, Canada, whence she expects to sail April 16 for Europe to visit her old home in Brussels, Belgium. Mrs. Lyman, before her marriage last fall, was Mlle. Annette de Han. Mrs. Lyman expects to spend three months in her old home, not having visited there since the beginning of the war. Mr. Lyman will accompany her to the sailing port.

Mrs. Edmond V. Krug and small daughter of Pasadena, Cal., are the guests of Mrs. Krug's mother, Mrs. John F. Coad.

Mr. Edward Ayrcrigg of Stamford, Conn., who accompanied his wife

Directs May Fete

Mary Coll Quigley, Omaha's well-known dancer, is giving much time in planning and training the future beaux and belles of Omaha society in terpsichorean art.

When the Christ Child society of Omaha needed funds to establish a milk station for babies for the summer months at the Center-house, Mrs. Quigley volunteered to do this work and aid the society.

Her artistic dance groups, will be given in connection with a movie film Saturday evening, May 1, at the Brandeis theater. Mrs. Quigley and Miss Margaret McShane, publicity director, named the dances which are to appear on the program and members of Omaha's best-known families will take part.

The dance numbers which promise to be the most interesting features of the performance are "The Chase," "Spring," "In a Medieval French Court," "In a French Court Today," "In Shamrock Fields," and "Stars and Stripes March."

and small son to Omaha to visit Mrs. Ayrcrigg's mother, Mrs. R. S. Hall, will return to his home next Saturday. Mrs. Ayrcrigg will remain a few weeks longer.

Mrs. Clarke Powell returns Sunday morning from a three weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. John Wiggins in Pomfret, Conn.

Mr. Walter Head left last night for the east for a short trip.

Mr. Henry B. Hart leaves today for New York City where he will serve as best man at the wedding of Miss Leahy and Mr. Aylett Buckner, son of Mr. L. V. Buckner of New York City, which will take place April 14.

Mrs. A. V. Kinsler returned today from Notre Dame, Ind., where she accompanied her daughter, Miss Gertrude, who attends St. Marys school and who spent her vacation in Omaha with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orr have returned from New Haven, Conn.

Mr. Dwight M. Swobe of San Francisco will arrive today, en route to the east, and will spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Thomas Swobe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keogh, who have been in New York for 10 days, are expected home next week.

Miss Lynn Curtis, who has been the guest of Mrs. William E. Martin for the past week, leaves Tuesday for Denver, Colo.

Miss Gwendolyn Wolfe left Thursday for the east, where she will spend several weeks visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Payne have purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Fiel at Thirty-sixth and Dewey avenue.

Mrs. John Slaker of Hastings, who will be entertained here by the Woman's club Monday, plans to spend the remainder of the week in Omaha, as she will attend the convention of the Second district of the N. F. W. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Drishaus have returned from southern California, where they spent two months. They are at home with the parents of Mrs. Drishaus, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Bostwick, 112 North Forty-first street.

Dr. and Mrs. Ewing Brown have left the Fontenelle and opened their house in Florence for the summer.

Luncheon Parties.

Mrs. Arthur Pinto entertained at a home luncheon Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Joseph Metcalfe, who has recently returned after spending the winter in New York. Ophelia Ross formed the centerpiece of the table and covers were laid for eight guests.

Mrs. Pinto was hostess at a luncheon Friday at her home, when the honor guest was Mrs. James Chadwick, who has returned from a winter in California. The guests included eight friends of Mrs. Chadwick.

For Mr. and Mrs. Ayrcrigg. Miss Dorothy Hall was hostess at a tea-dance Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7 at the Fontenelle in honor of her sister, Mrs. Edward Ayrcrigg, and Mr. Ayrcrigg, of Stamford, Conn., who are the guests of Mrs. Ayrcrigg's mother, Mrs. Richard Hall.

A hundred guests attended and were seated at small tables in the ball room.

Card Party. Degree of Honor lodge will give a card party April 14, at the I. O. O. F. hall, South Side.

Dancing Party. Alpha lodge will give a dance at Lyric hall, Nineteenth and Farnam, Thursday evening, April 15.

The Emporium

310-12 SO. 16TH ST.

Tricolette Blouses

The great range of styles and shades in these charming blouses makes selection a pleasure.

Dainty Negligees

A very complete line in pleasing varieties offered now at most reasonable prices.

Sensational Reductions in Women's SUITS

On Monday the woman who appreciates Suits of the better kind will find an opportunity to make a really attractive saving. Our already low markings have been reduced.

25% to 40% Less Than Regular Prices

These Suits represent the finest efforts of America's style experts and include every mode that is new and admittedly correct.

In Four Price Groups:

$35 $45

$55 $65

The new things first is what makes this shop so attractive to particular women.

Girls... just a moment please you're about to choose your vocation

What shall it be? It is a mighty important question and one that you must not answer without careful consideration and study. When you have decided to embark upon a business career seek the employment that will offer you advantages and an opportunity to advance in keeping with your ability.

The Long Distance Lines service of The American Telephone and Telegraph Company is solving this problem for thousands of girls and we invite your attention—think it over.

We have a school where you will be carefully instructed in the work. Competent teachers will see that everything is well explained and just the minute you are capable of taking your place among The Weavers of Speech they will O. K. your advancement.

You will be well paid for your time while you are taking the training and it will be the stepping stone to GOOD, PERMANENT employment at an attractive remuneration.

Your surroundings will be pleasant—the work is interesting and instructive—you will be with agreeable companions—and all in all it is a WISE choice. Miss Bell, Room 318 in the New Telephone Building, is waiting to explain it all to you.

The American Telephone and Telegraph Company
Long Distance Lines Department