Withdraws From Race For Public Defender In Favor of Baldwin

James H. Walker, Omaha attor-ney, 508 Omaha National Bank building, to insure republican success at the November election, has issued the following statement:

ber of my friends to file for the nomination for the office of public defender, I allowed my name to go on the republican ballot as a candidate for that office.

"I now find that there are 13 aspirants for the place and realize that it will be impossible for a majority candidate to be nominated with this number in the race.

"I, therefore, urge my friends to vote for John N. Baldwin, who is undoubtedly the majority candidate and the strongest man in the race. "He is the man best fitted for the position, not only on account of his

Wood's Manager Claims Half Of Michigan Delegation

Lincoln, Neb., April 14.—(Special.)—Frank P. Corrick, manager of General Wood's Nebraska cam-paign, made claim today that Wood will have half of the Michigan delegates in the republican national convention, by virtue of carrying certain congressional districts although losing the state by a big plurality. Corrick's statement is in direct contradiction to statements by Wood's national headquarters in New York, which announced definitely that the entire Michigan delegation was conceded to Johnson Corrick also claims twenty Illinois delegates for Wood by virtue of Wood's success in Chicago.

Wisconsin Man Nominated

To Place on Shipping Board Washington, April 14.—President Wilson nominated Martin J. Gillen of Racine, Wis., to be a member of the shipping board to take the place formerly held by Henry M. Robinson of California.

There were intimations that the nomination might be opposed in the senate because Gillen is said to have incurred the enmity of powerful shipping interests by rigidly safeguarding the government in claims cases.

Wife Alleges Husband is Deserter From Draft

Beatrice, Neb., April 14.—(Special.)—That Edward Pearson is a draft deserter who has escaped cap-ture is charged in a divorce petition filed yesterday in the district court by Jessie Pearson. Pearson, it is alleged, abandoned the plaintiff, leaving for parts unknown with another woman. It is said that the government has offered large rewards for his apprehension. The couple were married in Pawnee City March 10, 1908.
