BROTHERS FIGHT OVER FATHER'S WILL IN COURT

Deputy County Charles Kubat Charges Joseph Used Undue Influence When Drawn.

Two brothers, both employes of Douglas county, appeared in county court yesterday in a fight over their father's will.

Deputy County Attorney Charles Kubat brought the action against Joseph L. Kubat, his brother, who is employed in the county clerk's office. Charles alleged that Joseph had used undue influence upon their late father, Vaclav J. Kubat, who died February 29, in inducing him to make a will favorable to Joseph. County Judge Crawford coincided with this view and refused to allow the alleged will to be probated. Vaclav Kubat was 86 years old when he died at the home of his son, Joseph Kubat. The will was dated February 24, just five days before

Charles charged that Joseph and his wife, Emma Kubat, and their children, Helen and Milada Kubat, all used undue and improper in-fluence to have the will made. The estate is valued at about $15,000. The will left $1,000 to Charles Kubat, $1,000 to Mrs. Marie Lenick, a daughter of the deceased, and all the rest to Joseph Kubat and his family. Charles Kubat, on the witness stand, declared his father did not "have much use" for Joseph.

Joseph Kubat declared he will appeal the case to the district court.

House Committee to Take Up Legislation

Washington, April 14.-Consideration of legislation for the regulation of the packing industry will be be-gun by the house committee in executive session next Monday, Representative Haugen of Iowa, chairman of the committee, announced. Hearings which have been in progress for several weeks were concluded Monday.

Mr. Haugen expressed the opinion that a bill would be reported from the committee.

"The people are getting tired of continued investigations of the packers and want the matter disposed of by legislation," said Representative Haugen. "I believe the house will pass a bill."

The bill as reported from the senate committee on agriculture has been on the senate calendar for some time. It is quite possible that the house will pass a bill in advance of the senate.

Cummins Measure Revised And Presented by Frelinghuysen-Three New Proposals Introduced.

Washington, April 14 .- Spurred by the menace of a nation-wide transportation tieup, the senate Tuesday set itself earnestly to work devising measures not merely to deal with the present "outlaw" walkout, but to safeguard the country permanently against the frequent re-currence of railroad strikes.

Months ago the senate recorded its belief that the proper method of solving the railroad labor problem was the enactment of anti-strike legislation. The house took an op-posite view and forced the adoption Cleveland, O., April 14.—The sixth arrs in charge of railroad legislation piennial convention of the National took the view then that such a measure was not even a good stoption opened here with practically gap, and now they are more than 2,500 delegates from all parts of the ever convinced that nothing short of country and many foreign countries straight out prohibition of strikes on transportation lines can ever remedy the situation.

Three new bills dealing with the railroad situation made their ap-pearance. Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey cut the anti-strike clause out of the old Cummins railroad bill convention officers, appointment of and offered it as a separate new bill. Senator Edge of New Jersey in-troduced a bill fixing drastic penalties for interference with the instrumentalities of interstate and foreign commerce. These and a similar measure inroduced by Senator Poindexter of Washington, will be taken up by a subcommittee of the interstate com-merce committee. An effort will be made to consolidate them into one measure to eliminate the constant menace of a railroad strike.

Senators Cummins proposed a bill to amend the railroad act so that the new labor board can begin work at once in Washington, instead of waiting until it can establish permanent headquarters in Chicago. Senator Dial of South Carolina democrat, branded the Adamson act as "one of the most iniquitous laws on the statute books" and said he Ten thousand dollars alimony on the statute books" and said he was awarded to Mrs. Hazel L. Parker in a decree of divorce from licans at any time to repeal it.

> By International News Service. Detroit, Mich., April 14 .- How much a woman may reasonably spend on lingerie is a question which has been brought to the fore in the Wayne county courts.

Because, according to his statement, his wife, Lorain Beebe of Chicago, spent $1,800 in fine fingerie in five weeks Judge Root granted a divorce to John R. Beebe, wealthy Detroit manufacturer. Miss Bessie C. Lee, head of the Visiting Housekeepers' association, says that a frugal housewife who makes her own frivols can supply herself with underwear for a year at a cost of not more than $25.

Miss Lee's estimate of essentials in underwear is as follows: Two heavy union suits; $4.84; three light suits, $2.79; two corset covers, $1.78; one corset, $1.85; two flannelette petticoats, $2.66; one muslin pet-ticoat, $1.34; one sateen petticoat, $2.33; two night dresses, $3; total, $20.58. February quotations on these items are about 3 per cent higher. The total estimate of the minimum clothing cost for a year is something

Could Mrs. Lorain Beebe actually spend $1,800 on lingerie in five was sleeping, two men quietly enweeks? Managers of lingerie departments in Detroit stores smiled indul-gently and replied: "Most assuredly. Why not?"

In witness thereof they exhibited by sub-debs, with price marks that were quite as fanciful as the garments they represented. The gown to one fascinating bridal set was marked $27, with a combination accompanying it at $16.50. Another gown at $37.50 proved that prices could go even higher with impunity. Boudoir sets run all the way from $35 to $100, silk hose from $3.75 to $15 the pair, and other accessories are at corresponding prices.

Three Claim $5,000 Which Figured In Army Graft Case

Detroit, April 14.—Ownership of the $5,000 fund which figured so prominently in the so-called $30,000,-000 army salvage graft trial in federal court resulted in the conviction of three of the defendants and the acquittal of three others, will be de-cided by the United States supreme

The money, it is alleged, was turned over to Grant Hugh Browne by Burt Harris and Monroe Bardach as part of a bribe of $10,000. Browne turned the money over to Captain Soterios Nicholson. The latter was errested in the Statler hotel as he was dividing the fund with Lieutenant B. T. Reamy, who exposed the plot. Then it was turned over to District Attorney John E. Kinnane. who held it as evidence

Recently Thomas Fe'der, attorney for Browne, claimed the money on an assignment made for attorney

George Monaghan, for Bardach, filed a claim for his client's share. Luckily, Murphy & Helfman have entered a claim on behalf of Harris. Mr. Kinnane has refused to turn the $5,000 over to anyone, saying that it belongs to the government by confiscation.

Meanwhile Levi Cooke, representing Nicholson, in whose possession the money was before his arrest, is yet to be heard from.
