Cattle—Estimates called for a cattle run of 5.20a head, or about 3.6004ges than yesterday, but about equal to Wednesday's supply. Fur the five days the total is 21,400 head as compared with 25,200 a week ago and 18,600 head a year ago. The packer demand continues brisk and sales on beef steers were made at prices all the way from steady, to 25c higher. Quality ef the offerings was not as good as the last two days. Top price was $13.75. Butcher stock also active, but rather unevenly at prices ranging from steady to 25c higher. Quality was good with several bunches selling up to $12.00. Bulls are in active demand at an advance of 25c to 50c over earlier in the week, but calves are no more than steady. The feeder market continues practically at a standatill with very light receipts and very slow demand.
