RETURN EXCESS WOOL PROFITS

Over $1,000,000 Taken by Dealers in Transactions During War Go Back to Sheep Men.

Washington, April 16 .- Excess profits of more than $1,000,000 obtained by wool dealers in transacwhen the national supply was all under government regulation will be collected and returned to the growers by the bureau of markets of the Department of Agriculture. The de-cision announced by the department followed a hearing on questions re-lating to the valuation and handling of the 1918 clip.

The bureau took over on December 31, 1918, the work of the wool division of the war industries boar1 and the hearing was arranged in response to complaints of Texas wool growers. It was decided that these complaints relating principally to territory woot would be referred to the War department's claim settlement board and that claims regarding fleece wool only, would be handled by the biffeau. Reports have been secured from nearly all large dealers as to business transacted during the period under inquiry, it was said, but the work of checking up accounts has been delayed by the discovery that some 800 country dealers had oper-ated without federal licenses.

Secretary Meredith said the work of collecting and returning excess profits would be pushed vigorously.

Aged Man Slays Young Grandchild With Axe As She Leaves School

Muskegon Mich, April 16-"I did It because I loved her and wanted to take her out of this life of misery," was the explanation offered by Stuart C. Moon, aged 72, of the killing of his 10-year-old granddaughter, Irma Moon, according to officers who arrested him today. Moon, a tretired lumber man, was said by residents of Muskegon Heights to have called the girl out of a school-room yesterday and attacked her with an ax.

Moon was held on a charge of murder. An investigation into his sanity probably will be ordered.

Representatives of U.S. Newspapers Get Print Paper In Canada

Toronto, April 16 .- A party of American newspaper representatives headed by C. A. Stevenson of the Chicago Herald and Examiner, to-day succeeded in arranging for the shipment of several carloads of paper to Chicago and other cities in the United States, where newspapers are facing a shortage because of a strike of railroad employes. Large shipments of paper have been held up in the yards here owing to the Railroad officials said freight traffic here is largely returning to normal conditions.

Mutinous Chinese Troops Capture Town of Annai

Amoy, China, April 16-The Chinese troops which mutinied at Anhai recently, succeeded in gaining posession of that town to the northwest of Amoy, in Kukien province. Their success was aided factional forces from Chang Chow, southern Fukien. Fighting also is reported in other places in the vainity, with Christian churches being seized for the use of the sol-

The forces of General Chen are said to be gaining strength. Troops of the northern army have captured several hundred cantonese (southern forces), near Amoy.

Liberty and Victory Bonds Drop to New Low Marks

New York, April 16,-Liberty bonds and Victory motes continued to decline today, the first 41/4s being the only one of the nine issues not to have made a new low record-by noon. The railroad strike, like the steel strike, is said to have caused some selling and corporations have been realizing on their holdings to acquire additional capital, but the principal reason as-signed is the pending issue of treas-ury certificates of indebtedness at 514 per cent.

Economist Blames Retail Dealers for Shoe Prices

Washington, April 16 .- E. M. Robertson, an economist employed by the federal trade commission, told the senate manufacture committee that retail dealers were principally responsible for high prices of Tanners and manufacturers, he said, have taken more profits than they should, but retailers have imposed heavier burdens upon the public than the others.

Mr. Robertson said the most effective remedy would be for the publie to refuse to patronize merchants.
