

BRYAN ATTACKS "WETS" IN THREE SUNDAY TALKS

Reiterates He Will Attend Convention to Save Party From Liquor Interests.

W. J. Bryan told three Omaha audiences yesterday that he is not needed in the democratic convention at San Francisco as a delegate, he will be in the gallery for the avowed purpose of saving his party from impending ruin by the liquor interests. Although all three were religious meetings, one in a church, Bryan found opportunity to discuss political issues.

He addressed a gathering of men in the Young Men's Christian association auditorium at 4 p. m., and a meeting of young women in the Young Women's Christian association auditorium at 5:30, appearing in the evening in the pulpit of Grace Methodist church, South Side. The talks to men in the afternoon and to a mixed company in the evening, were substantially the same, the first part being of a religious and moral tone and the latter part being a rather denatured campaign appeal which had a direct relation to the local democratic wet and dry imbroglio.

Don't Deserve Disgrace.

"My party does not deserve the disgrace that has been brought on it by these candidates who are running on a wet platform," he said. "And yet they call me a disturber of the peace and they say I am going to San Francisco to raise a row. I am like the boy who was chided by his mother for pulling the cat's tail. The boy replied that he was only holding to the feline's tail and that it was the cat that was pulling."

Mr. Bryan took his text from the gospel of Luke, 19th chapter, relating the story of the 10 lepers who were cured and only one was grateful for being saved from this terrible affliction. He asserted that there are many people today who, like the nine ungrateful who were cured in the days of old, are ungrateful today for the blessings of education, Christianity and of the free institutions of this country. He extended his thought to apply to the primary which will be held tomorrow, declaring that it would be the part of gratitude to vote for those who represent the "dry" issues. He said he wondered how many appreciate what it has cost to win the victory which may be lost tomorrow at the primary.

"He" But of Attack.

Then he referred to a mysterious Omaha man whom he designated as "He."

"I won't mention his name, but our only difference is that of per cent," Mr. Bryan continued. "I'll state my per cent, but he won't state his. We could get together if we could agree on per cent. My per cent is one part of alcohol to 199 parts of water and his per cent is 199 parts of alcohol to one part of water. The gentleman I refer to knows as much alcohol as I do, not from personal experience, but because there has been a wealth of observation available in Omaha just as there has been in Lincoln. He would bring alcohol back again, but so help me God, there will never be another drunkard in Nebraska or in the United States if I can help it."

"We have a great fight on hand. No republican has had the effrontery to run for the presidency on a wet platform and I congratulate the republican party. My party has three candidates running on a wet platform."

Claims Many Victories.

"I have won out on every great fight because I have been on the right side," he added. "Don't worry this time. God stands behind a righteous cause. I can get along without being a delegate to any more democratic conventions. I attended a convention for the first time when I was 16 years old and a policeman helped me to get in."

Mr. Bryan took his text from the gospel of Luke, 19th chapter, relating the story of the 10 lepers who

BOND MYSTERY IS SOLVED WITHOUT AID OF SLEUTHS

Robbery "Victim" Finds Missing Valuables Just Where He Had Placed Them.

The mystery of the $1,550 worth of Liberty bonds which were lost yesterday by W. A. Kenaston, a wealthy stockman of Wewala, S. D., in the Merchants hotel was solved late yesterday afternoon.

Kenaston reported the loss to the police and Detective Troby and Potach began an investigation. He told the sleuths he had taken the bonds out of his grip and was checking up to learn if any were missing. He left the room and when he returned the bonds were gone.

"Looks like an inside job to me," Detective Troby said to his partner, Potach, as they left the hotel. Two hours later Kenaston called Chief of Detectives John T. Dunn, and informed him he had found the bonds.

He explained that he had forgotten he laid the bonds on a chair in

Willing to Wear Patches To Beat High Cost of Living

Kokomo, Ind., April 18.—"I will wear patches fore and aft before I will surrender to the high cost of living," Senator W. C. Harding, candidate for the republican nomination for president, declared in an address here Saturday night. "I would not boost the price of overalls," he added. "The only way to bring down the high cost of living is to return to the simple ways of living."

400-Pound Man Goes to His Grave on an Open Wagon

New York, April 18.—Philip Ruppel of Garwood, N. J., weighing 400 pounds, was buried in an especially built casket. The coffin was carried on an open wagon.

State of War Still Exists So Far as Spain is Concerned

Madrid, April 17.—The ministers of state have decided that the date when the European war terminated must be regarded as January 10, 1920, so far as contracts are concerned. But so far as Spain was concerned, the ministers agreed, the state of war between the United States and Germany, and between the allies and Germany still continued.

The question of the termination of the war arose through the number of court suits with reference to contracts, the judges being unable to deliver decisions until an official declaration concerning the termination was made.

Winter Crops Make Good Progress in Austria

Rome, April 18.—A bulletin of the International Agricultural institute made public here announces that winter crops are making good progress in Austria, Belgium, Denmark and the United Kingdom. Parts of Italy and Algeria suffered by drought, otherwise the condition of the crops is unchanged.

Winter wheat crops comprise about one-half the usual extent sown in the northern hemisphere.

VOTE FOR C. G. CARLBERG, Republican Candidate for State Senate

NEWS ITEM.—The General Manager of the Water Board, who takes over management of Gas Plant under city ownership, has requested City Council to make provision to pay off $1,000,000 of gas bonds each five years. He states that under city ownership rate should be $1.35.

I stand for Dollar Gas, knowing that it is a possibility by virtue of the purchase of the Gas Plant by the city of Omaha. Occupation taxes and general taxes now paid by the Gas Company, as well as the annual dividends paid to its stockholders, will be eliminated under municipal ownership. However, if it is the intention of the general manager to pay off $1,000,000 in indebtedness each five years, we will not get Dollar gas. It is a gross injustice to saddle the entire cost of this plant on this generation in order to present the next generation with a debt free Gas Plant. We are entitled to Dollar gas NOW. There is no justice in paying $1.35 for gas in order that we may be generous to posterity. If the repayment of the Gas Bonds is spread over a period of fifty years we will get Dollar gas immediately, but if we are to pay for the plant in fifteen years we will have to pay more for gas than we did under private ownership.

If nominated and elected to the State Senate I pledge myself to promote legislation that will insure Dollar Gas NOW. I earnestly solicit your support at the primaries, April 20.
