Gov. McKelvie Omaha, Neb., April 16,1920.

We Favor the Re-election of Fellow Republicans :---

As admirers and supporters of Samuel R. McKelvie in his campaign for a renomination as republican candidate for governor, we ask that you consider the splendid record he has made during the past fifteen and a half months.

His administration has fulfilled every pledge in the republican platform of 1918.

He has abolished the old haphazard system of handling public business through irresponsible boards and commissions and has brought about orderly, economical and efficient administration of the state's business through the Civil Administration Code.

He has not sought the favor of professional politicians nor allowed them to dictate either his appointments or his policies.

He has been an honest, fearless, broad-minded, businesslike executive.

We therefore declare ourselves for Samuel R. McKelvie for renomination and re-election, and we hope that you will join in supporting him in the primary campaign.

Yours respectfully,
