Sheep—The week opened out with a fairly liberal run of sheep and lambs, shout 8.00 head. Offerings included a few loads of shorn lambs and only a few loads of shorn lambs and only a few shipments of fat sheep. Trade was late in starting as packers, buyers and aleamen were far apart in their ideas of valuation and a slow market was the result, prices averaged not far from steady. Well finished lambs soil around 220.25@20.50 with good shorn lambs quotable at $17.50@17.75. A few fat ewesthanged hands at $15.00. No sales of aboring lambs were reported.
