

BEQUEATHS CITY SITE AND FUNDS FOR A HOSPITAL

Friends, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—The will of the late Norman E. Warren, who was buried here Sunday-afternoon, has been read and he has bequeathed to the city of Friend two valuable city lots on which to erect a hospital to be known as the Warren Memorial hospital. Ten thousand dollars goes with the lots with which to build the hospital. It is estimated that the estate is worth $150,000.

Other bequests were: To his housekeeper, Mrs. Elizabeth Ronan, he bequeathed a residence property in Lincoln and $5,000 in cash and a diamond cluster ring.

To the Methodist church of Friend he gave $1,000 to be used as directed by the trustees of that institution. To the Salvation Army, $1,000; to the American Red Cross, $1,000; to each of two aunts, $1,000; to four of his neighbors, John Shebel, Jacob Smith, Mrs. S. C. Kleckner and Miss Sadie Mosher, $500, to be paid to them in sums of $125 per month.

One thousand dollars invested in an electric light bond of the city of Friend is set aside that the income may be used for the upkeep of the Warren lot in Andrew cemetery. All other property, including farm land, city property, personal property, cash in bank, stocks, bonds, war saving stamps, etc., he bequeaths to his niece, Miss Erma Warren, a girl 17 years of age, the only surviving heir. There is one quarter section farm which he provides shall, at the death of his niece and her mother, provided no children are left by the niece, remain, the income of which shall be used by the city of Friend for the upkeep of the Warren Memorial hospital. Mr. Warren was a single man, 48 years old. He owned some of the best properties in the city of Friend. He was the owner of several valuable oil leases in Texas and had spent the winter in the south looking after his interests there.

Youth's Prayer May Have Settled Famous Law Suit

Aurora, Neb., April 20.—(Special.)—Emil Fleming's prayer in the court room when his sisters and brothers were fighting for a division of his mother's farm may have settled the case. The court, Judge Corcoran decided the famous suit by ordering the farm sold, the debts paid and the remainder of the funds divided.

Fleming started the court and all the spectators when he called as a witness by rising to his feet and uttering a fervent prayer. This closes one of the most sensational law suits that has been in the Hamilton county court for some time. Minnie Lyon of Sweetwater was the plaintiff. Her sister, Mrs. Frank Black, and her brother, Emil Fleming, were the defendants.

Wife Obtains Divorce on Grounds of Cruelty

Fremont, Neb., April 20.—(Special.)—On the ground that her husband, who was committed to the state hospital for the insane five months after she married him, concealed his mental condition at the time of the wedding, Dora Launer secured from District Judge Button an annulment of her marriage to Otto Launer. She was awarded the custody of their child.

DeWitt Woman, Visiting at Beatrice, Dies Suddenly

Beatrice, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—Mrs. George Barmby, 51 years old, of DeWitt, died suddenly here after a brief illness. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Becker, old residents of DeWitt, and leaves no family except her husband.

Governor Gets Copy of Old Deed to Part of Harbor

Fremont, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—While in Beatrice filling a speaking date Governor McKelvie was given the copy of a deed showing that Nebraska owns a half mile of the south jetty of the harbor at Galveston, Tex. The deed was given to the governor by W. H. Robbins, who was a member of a committee which represented Nebraska at the time when Galveston dedicated its new harbor in 1897. The deed was made out to Alvin Saunders, chairman of the Nebraska committee, and covers the first half-mile of the southern jetty. At the time of the death of Mr. Saunders an attempt was made to discover the original deed, but to no avail.

Drowned Sailor Will Be Buried in Washington

Washington, April 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge Kinkaid was advised by the Navy department that the body of Arthur Perry Larison of Chadron, Neb., a mechanic who drowned recently with seven other sailors while returning from shore leave at Manzanillo through the capsizing of a motor boat, would be brought to Washington for interment in Arlington National cemetery, according to the wish of his father. The body is due to arrive on April 28, being brought to Newport News on the U. S. S. Solus of the Atlantic squadron. It is expected Mr. Larison will attend his son's burial in Arlington.

Heavy Rains Flood Fields In Vicinity of Beatrice

Beatrice, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—Heavy rains here the last two days have flooded the fields and lowlands, and it will be some days before Gage county farmers can resume work in their fields. Dry weather is badly needed, as the farmers are anxious to plow for corn. The moisture, however, is just the thing for winter wheat, and much of the grain, which was thought to have been badly damaged a few weeks ago by the heavy winds, will make an average crop.

Millard Boys and Girls Organize Another Club

Five boys and two girls have organized the ninth boys and girls club in Douglas county at Millard. Ray Siert of Millard was chosen president; Pearl Schomer of Millard, vice president; Verona Schmidt of Millard, secretary; Claus Palmbeck of Millard, treasurer. The other members of the club are Harry Schomer, Benson station, Omaha; Arthur Kuehl, Station B, Omaha; and Carl Hansen of Millard. The name chosen for the organization is "The 100 Per Cent Pure Bred Holstein Calf club." After the drawing of calves, D. H. Propps, field man for the Journal Stockman, made a short talk.

Albion, Neb., April 21.—(Special.)—From a total of 135 slogans submitted to the Albion Commercial club in a contest just closed, Miss Dorothy Main of this city won the prize. "They Shall Not Pass Albion" was the winning slogan.

Two Precincts Are Unable To Vote Owing to Bad Storm

Mullen, Neb., April 20.—(Special Telegram.)—Valley and Highland precincts were unable to vote because messengers were unable to get through snow drifts to deliver election supplies. E. W. Gibbs, a member of the Valley election board, attempted to vote here, but the judges held they could not accept his ballot for another precinct if a voter in his own county. Gibbs stated voters at Valley would demand the right to vote.

Parole Boys Charged With Stealing an Automobile

Beatrice, Neb., April 20.—(Special.)—Wendell Culver and Walter Herron, two boys who were brought back from Harvard, Neb., on the charge of stealing a car belonging to the former's father, Carwin Culver, were paroled yesterday by Probation officer Clark by County Judge O'Keefe pending good behavior.
