

JUDGE RECALLS PRISON TERMS OF GUILTY MEN

Only Admitted Crime When Told Sentences Would Be Light, They Explain to Court.

Pleading guilty to charges of stealing interstate shipments from the American railway express, William H. Bone yesterday was sentenced to two years in federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., by Federal Judge Woodrough.

Bone was the confessed bearer of revolvers, hack saws, and emery dust to prisoners in the county jail several weeks ago, when an attempted jail delivery failed late one Saturday night because of the vigilance of deputy sheriffs.

Charles Foley and Harry Chertrett pleaded guilty to having received stolen goods from the American Railway express, knowing them to be such.

Judge Woodrough sentenced them to four years in federal prison.

After sentence had been pronounced, the two prisoners told the judge that they had pleaded guilty to the charge because M. Andreasen, former adult probation officer, who was dismissed by order of the district judge for the pardoning of "Red" Donaghy, who had been convicted of attacking pretty Marie Honach, had told them they would receive a sentence of but one year and one day.

Upon this declaration, Judge Woodrough recalled their sentence and allowed them to enter pleas of not guilty.

When questioned concerning his statement to the prisoners, Mr. Andreasen stated that he had merely told them that the minimum sentence for their offense is one year and one day, and that he had not made any promises to them.

BAD COUGH; NIGHT SWEATS; LOST WEIGHT

Mr. Coleman thought his time had come. But he's well now.

"I was taken with a dry, hard cough about 6 months ago. Finally I got so sore across the chest I could hardly breathe; had night sweats so bad every thing would be wringing wet, and coughed continually until I thought it would kill me. Had no appetite, spent over $100 on doctors and medicines, and was worse off than when I started.

"The first bottle of Milks Emulsion did me more good than all the $100 spent for other treatment. It soon gave me a good appetite, my cough left me, and I have regained the flesh and strength I had before I was sick."—Arthur Coleman, Box 321, Helena, Ark.

MOVIE ACTRESSES AND THEIR HAIR

Did it ever occur to you that every movie actress you have seen has lovely hair, while the more popular ones curl as their chief beauty? In fact, many are leading ladies just because of their attractive looks. Inquiry among them discloses the fact that they bring out all the natural beauty of their hair by careful shampooing, not with any soap or makeshift, but with a simple mixture, by putting a teaspoonful of casanthox (which they get from the druggist) in a cup of hot water and applying this instead of soap. This full cup of shampoo liquid is enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. After its use, the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. The hair is so fluffy that it looks much heavier than it is, its luster and softness are delightful.
