BARROWS GIVES YOUTHFUL AUTO BANDIT PARDON

Clemency Promised by County Attorney Fulfilled by Act of Lieutenant Governor.

Lincoln, April 23.—(Special.)—Acting Governor Barrows pardoned Ray Sandlovich, sentenced June 19, 1918, for receiving stolen automobiles. Sandlovich was 20 years old at the time and contends he had been drawn into the crime by his older brother.

According to evidence before the acting governor, Sandlovich turned state's evidence with the understanding that the county attorney would recommend a fine instead of imprisonment, if he gave the evidence necessary to convict the leaders of the gang.

The district judge refused to carry out the recommendations of the county attorney and sentenced him to two years in prison.

The only presidents of the United States previous to the election of President Wilson who served two full terms of four years were Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Grant.
