Rain-Church Teams Have Trouble Obtaining Players.

Yesterday afternoon the teams or the City, Class A, American and Booster, Class B, and the Gate City, Class C, affiliated with the Municipal Amateur Base Ball association, were forced to postpone the openers for the second consecutive Sunday on account of rain.

Presidents of the various leagues announced yesterday that no meet-ings will be held at present, unless rain prevents the staging of the opening games next Sunday. The schedules will probably be revised

Ban Twilight Games.

Twilight games, which were numerous last season, will not be played this year, according to some of the league officials as the teams will be unable to play a nine-inning game. The Commercial league, the Saturday afternoon circuit, played their opening contests in a drizzling rain.

Following is the Commercial league standings: Commercial League.

Swift & Co.
Bemis Bag
Kirkendall Shoe Co.
Western Union
Iten Biscuit Co. Whether the Church league, which intends to play Saturday afternoon ball, will be launched is still uncertain, according to President N. J. Weston. Last week six teams applied for franchises, but three withdrew Saturday, when it was discovered that there were not enough players to make up a team. There is still a chance, Weston thinks, of forming a four-team league. A meeting will be held this week and teams wishing to join are urged to be present

Bankers Ready to Start.

The Bankers' league, a four-team organization, will open its season next Saturday afternoon and the Commercial league will also entertain the fans, weather conditions permitting. Plans are under way among the members of the Union Pacific Fam-
