

NARROW ESCAPE FOR DRIVER WHO RUNS INTO TRAIN

Driver Leaps for Life—Machine Hurlled Into Nearby Cars—In Heart of City.

Harold Richards, 18 years old, 2226 Burdette street, miraculously escaped serious injury yesterday when he backed a Ford automobile truck belonging to the Ideal Bottling Works, 1716 North Twenty-fourth street, directly into the middle of the Condon & Bolen, contractors, west bound construction train in Dodge street between Fifteenth and Sixteenth street. The train was moving at a high speed at the time of the accident.

The truck was thrown against several other automobiles parked on the south side of the street and tied up traffic in Dodge street for over a half an hour.

Leaps to Safety.
Richards owes his life probably to the fact he jumped to safety when he realized he was backing into the moving train. He was thrown to the pavement by the impact and suffered a bruised left knee and a cut on the left hand.

He was arrested by Traffic Policeman R. E. Ford and booked at the Central police station on a charge of reckless driving, and later released on a $10 cash bond.

The automobiles of Thomas Kozio, 4632 South Twenty-seventh street, and John Reischreiber, 1515 Dodge street, were damaged by the collision when the truck was thrown against them. The rear fender of the Kozio car was broken off while the entire side of the Reischreiber machine was demolished.

Richards said he did not see the train coming and, when the truck hit the train, he said he jumped against them. William Ryan, 2206 North Twenty-fifth street, brakeman in charge of the train, said the street was "clear" as the train approached Sixteenth street, and that he did not see the truck until after it had collided with the train.

Returned to Bluffs From Chicago to Face Charges

F. N. Fanzie, alias F. N. Ferris, arrested in Chicago at the instance of Council Bluffs police, was returned to Council Bluffs yesterday by Sheriff William Ryan on extradition papers signed by Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois.

Fanzie is wanted in Council Bluffs in connection with alleged illegal real estate transactions in which Iowa land was traded for an Omaha apartment house.

Era Bond, formerly part owner of the Kiel hotel in Council Bluffs and now serving time in the Illinois penitentiary for receiving stolen property, is alleged to have been implicated with Fanzie in the real estate transactions.

Isaac Carpenter Makes $24,000 Gift to Baptists

The largest single subscription reported among Nebraska Baptists to the Interchurch World movement to date is that of Isaac Carpenter, who has given $24,000. He gave $10,000 to Grant Island college through the interchurch movement, an additional $10,000 to the Calvary Baptist church building fund and $4,000 to the church budget.

Seven Solemn Lawyers Represent Mrs. Mudge At 'Special' Appearance of Her Absent Hubby

Seven lawyers appeared in District Judge Sears' court yesterday and each solemnly deposed and said that he had been retained by Mrs. Edith Mudge as her attorney.

Mrs. Mudge's career in the Omaha courts started last August, when she appeared unexpectedly here to allege her husband, Clifford Mudge, was living in regal style in a sumptuous apartment at the St. Regis with another woman.

Wednesday's proceeding was to have been a hearing on the special appearance of Mr. Mudge in answer to his wife's suit for separate maintenance, which she instituted following her visit to Omaha. "Special appearance" is purely a legal ploy, as Mr. Mudge has no intention of making an appearance, special or otherwise, so his attorney, Alfred Munger, says.

Each of the seven solemn attorneys told how Mrs. Mudge had come and engaged him to attend to her affairs. She was not easily satisfied with any of them long, which may or may not have been her fault.

At any rate, she first engaged F. A. Mulfinger. Then she went to Frank Gaines and then to his partner, R. A. Van Orsdel, and then back to Mr. Gaines. Still failing to get satisfaction, she sought out Robert Switzer. When he seemed to fail to fill the bill she consulted Herbert Daniel and then Gerald Drew. Her latest attorney was John O. Yeiser.

All these were duly notified to be in court to represent her in Mr. Mudge's special appearance. They all appeared. Mr. Mudge, of course did not. Judge Sears put off solution of the puzzle for a few days.

Woman Loses Jewels Valued as Heirlooms

Jewelry valued at $300 was stolen from the home of Mrs. J. H. Morley, 4174 Chicago street, Tuesday night.

The loot comprised one cameo brooch, one cameo necklace, one cameo lavallier, one ring set with pearls, one sapphire ring and one ruby stud. The jewels are heirlooms, Mrs. Morley said.

Entrance was gained to the home by means of a master key to the rear door. The jewelry was taken from a bureau drawer in an upstairs bedroom.

Little Interest Shown Here Over Debs' Fate

Lack of interest by Omaha radicals in proposals for liberating Eugene V. Debs, Thomas Mooney and others from prison was evidenced in small attendance and absence of enthusiasm at a meeting Tuesday night of the Omaha branch of the American Freedom Foundation, organized to further a movement for freeing "political prisoners."

Less than a score of men and women socialists and I. W. W. appeared at the Labor Temple for the meeting. David Cutts, secretary of the Omaha branch, presided.

14 DIVISIONS OF 1,000 EACH TO BE IN MAY DAY MARCH

One of Largest Parades in History of Omaha Assured For Saturday.

The Americanization parade planned for Saturday afternoon has already gone over the top of the committee's fondest expectations, members reported yesterday, when a check on divisions to march showed that 14 have already been formed, with an average of more than 1,000 marchers in each.

It is known that several others will be formed, which assures one of the largest parades in Omaha's history. Virtually every fraternal order in Omaha, for both men and women, will have a marching group or a float. The Woodmen of the World and the Woodman Circle have already pledged 500 marchers and a float. Members of all orders will also be found in the ranks of different sections of former service men.

Sweetness in Evidence.

The G. A. R. and its auxiliaries and the Spanish War Veterans and its auxiliaries have been grouped with the War Mothers and Gold Star organization in the first division of the parade. The War Mothers have called a meeting for 10 a. m. tomorrow at Hotel Fontenelle to complete plans for their participation.

Sweetness will be added to the parade by Omaha candy manufacturers, who will send all their fair chocolate dippers and lollipop molders to march. Several hundred of these girls will be there, each carrying a flag. The Nebraska Telephone company will be represented by about 350 operators, garbed in white and bearing flags. It will also have 150 men, marching in a group, most of whom are former service men.

Seek Aid of Pulpit.

A battalion of letter carriers, led by their own band, will represent the Omaha postoffice. The Orpheum, Gayety and Empress theaters have announced that on the afternoon of the parade they will delay their performances until the march is completed.

The second step in the Americanization drive by the American Legion in Omaha was taken yesterday, when letters were sent to all Omaha ministers explaining the purpose of the campaign and requesting the co-operation of the pulpit in the way of appropriate sermons.

Preparation Meetings Thursday.

Rehearsal of their part in the ceremonies of the demonstration will be held by "golden star" girls at the Municipal Auditorium at 7:30 p. m. today. All are expected to be there for instructions and practice. Directions were given to all Boy Scout buglers today to also assemble at the Auditorium at the same hour tomorrow evening, for practice in blowing "Taps."

Marshals of various divisions will meet at the office of Amos Thomas, chairman of the committee in charge of the parade, at 1 p. m. today.

Loses Job After 30 Years For Bacon Theft at Plant

After working for the Cudahy Packing company on the South Side continuously for the past 30 years, M. C. Christensen, 5030 South Nineteenth street, lost his job yesterday and was fined $15 in South Side police court when he was found guilty of the theft of five pounds of bacon from the packing plant. He was arrested by Special Officer Peter Jolly.
