BARROWS SCORES GOVERNOR HARD IN PARDON CASE

Denies McKelvie Ever Asked Him to Delay Action—Raises Several Issues of Veracity.

Lincoln, April 28.—(Special.)—Lieut. Gov. P. A. Barrows issued a statement today in reply to that made by Governor McKelvie, denouncing Mr. Barrows' pardon of Ray Sandlovich, a 20-year-old youth sentenced to the penitentiary for receiving stolen automobiles after he had turned state's evidence and assisted in prosecuting others of the gang.

Mr. Barrows raises several issues of veracity between himself and the governor. He denies that the governor ever asked him, as acting governor, to delay action in the case, or that he ever told him of having denied the pardon himself. In support of that latter contention he cites the official records, which fail to show any such action on McKelvie's part.

Refers to Kirk Case.

Mr. Barrows remarks that he is not the only state official who has incurred the governor's ire by refusing to abide by his wishes, remarking that State Auditor Marsh was threatened with political oblivion by McKelvie for the same reason. He continues, referring to the Kirk and Dinsmore cases: "The governor sets up a mighty howl because I, as acting governor for one-fifth of his administration, called into his office because of his absence, grant a pardon to a boy charged with receiving stolen automobiles, but he gave all of his official sanction to the act of a man who was not even elected by the people of the whole state to fill the governor's chair, who became governor for two days because of the absence of both Governor McKelvie and myself and released from the penitentiary a man serving 20 years for murder, who had not even had a hearing or as far as I know made an application for one."

Rouandy Scores Governor.

"He sets up a mighty protest because I pardon a poor boy sentenced to the penitentiary for two years because such act was 'unpopular,' evidently forgetting that one of the most 'unpopular' acts of his administration was his own pardon of a murderer serving a life sentence for killing his own wife and murdering the husband of another woman with whom he was charged with having unlawful relations."

Governor McKelvie said Wednesday the prisoners would be in the camp by Saturday.

Blame Bridge for Damage To Lands by Elkhorn Rise

Lincoln, April 28.—(Special.)—Approximately 500 acres of land in the vicinity of Waterloo is under water as the result of floods in the Elkhorn river valley, according to word received Wednesday by the State Railway commission from J. G. Robinson of Waterloo, head of the Robinson Seed company there.

The Union Pacific bridge over the Elkhorn near Waterloo was recently reinforced with crushed rock and logs, which is chiefly responsible for the backwater during flood periods, Robinson claims. If the bridge is moved 90 feet a similar condition will not recur, according to Robinson.

The commission is asked to send an engineer to investigate.

Burlington May Publish Storage-In-Transit Rate

Lincoln, Neb., April 28.—(Special.)—Under an order issued Wednesday by the railway commission, a storage-in-transit rate on hay in carload lots may be published by the Burlington. A similar order was issued a few days ago respecting the Union Pacific, to allow hay dealers to ship hay from Nebraska shipping points at harvest time or when cars are available to be stored in Omaha and later be moved from there to the eastern market on the same billing.

The Omaha exchange requested that the order be issued.

More As An Experiment.

Governor McKelvie afterwards addressed the men chosen and told them that the establishment of the camp was an experiment and that its continuance would depend on the prisoners themselves. The governor and Warden Fenton expect to visit the camps occasionally for inspections.

Most of the road workers are "short termers," although a few were included who are under long terms.
