

AGREE TO GIVE HOWE $231,500 FOR FOUR MONTHS

Skinner Reaches Agreement With Company President—But Stockholders Balk at Plan.

R. C. Howe has reached an agreement with Lloyd M. Skinner, vice president of the Skinner company, packers, bakers, macaroni manufacturers and produce dealers, under which agreement Mr. Howe shall keep the $200,000 cash bonus paid him when he became vice president and general manager of the company and shall also receive one year's salary, $31,500, in consideration of his relinquishing his position as president and general manager of the Skinner company.

The only obstacle to this settlement is the fact that the three stockholders who filed a petition of intervention in the suit two weeks ago, refuse to ratify the agreement, according to R. C. Praser, attorney representing the three stockholders.

Gets Restraining Order. Mr. Howe left his position as manager of Armour & Co. here, January 1, 1920, to become vice president and general manager of the newly built Skinner Packing Co. at a salary of $31,500 a year under a 20-year contract and a bonus of 1,000 shares of stock annually for the first five years.

March 1 he became president. April 8 Lloyd M. Skinner notified him that he was discharged and Mr. Howe secured an order from the district court at midnight of that day restraining Mr. Skinner or other officers of the company from ousting him. Since then attorneys and principals have been trying to bring about a settlement.

Stockholders Object. This would have succeeded now, except for the fact that the three stockholders won't agree to paying Mr. Howe $231,500 for four months' work.

The stockholders who intervened in the big suit are Jacob F. Papernick, Frank Chittenden and Andrew C. Kastner. Their suit asked the court to stop Messrs. Howe and Skinner from carrying out the proposition which, the stockholders alleged, provided for a $200,000 cash bonus for Mr. Howe.

for the Skinner company, said yesterday he expects to see the whole trouble smoothed out within a week.

Killing Departments Idle. "The plant is there. It is a perfect plant," he said. "There is no trouble except this temporary variance of opinion, and I believe, that will be straightened out to the satisfaction of the officers and everybody concerned."

Caesarian Operation Performed On a Hog. Longmont, Colo., May 1.—What is believed to be the first Caesarian operation ever performed upon a hog proved only a partial success here. Failure to Locate Bluebeard Victim May Delay His Trial

Los Angeles, Cal., May 1.—The failure of a searching party to find the body of Nina Lee Deloney may, according to the district attorney, delay further proceedings against Walter Andrew Watson, alleged bigamist and murderer. Watson, in a statement made Thursday night, was alleged to have told of a score of marriages and of the subsequent murders of four of the women he had wed.

Mrs. Deloney was one of the murdered ones, he said, and gave explicit directions for finding her in San Diego county.

District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, with a party of investigators, went to the spot he had indicated, but a search of several hours failed to disclose the location of the woman's body. In order to bring a successful charge of murder against the man, Woolwine said, it is necessary to find the body, to complete the needed proof. Mrs. Deloney was the only one of the women alleged to have been killed in Los Angeles county, hence the murder proceedings are at a standstill until this point is cleared. Photographs of the probable location where the body was concealed will be shown to Watson today, and he will be asked to indicate the spot for a further search.

British Dealers Say Food Prices Will Go No Higher

London, May 1.—British food exporters believe that prices have reached their pinnacle and that henceforth a slow and gradual decline will set in. Reasons advanced by large wholesale houses are: First, mechanical transport and tractors are being more widely used in all food producing countries, thus adding vast acreage to food production that formerly grew food for horses; second, high European prices have stimulated production abroad and heavily increased harvests will soon be reaped; third, there are large stocks of food in British warehouses and docks that will soon have to be put on the market to prevent loss from spoiling; fourth, the United States has shut down on food and other credits for most of Europe, while England's credit is still good; hence America's exportable surplus will have to come to England, which can re-export.

Hubby Hitched to Auto Tire Rack to Get Evidence

Sacramento, Cal., May 1.—After hearing testimony that Raymond Weaver had hitched to the tire rack of an automobile in which his wife was riding with another man in order to gain evidence, the court decided that he deserved a divorce. Boy Swimmer Drowns In Large Rain Pool

New York, May 1.—James Bonaugie, 12 years old, of No. 672 Maple street, Brooklyn, was drowned while swimming in a deep pool in a lot in back of the Kings County hospital at Troy avenue and Fenimore street, Brooklyn. The pool is about 30 feet wide and in places from five to six feet deep. It was caused by the accumulation of rain water in a large depression in the lot.

Plan to House Evicted Tenants in Poorhouse

Bloomfield, N. J., May 1.—Officials here have under advisement a plan to utilize the town almshouse to solve the housing problem should conditions become more acute. It is planned to accommodate a number of families in the almshouse temporarily, in the event that they fail to find more suitable accommodations. A nominal rent would be charged, and the two persons now being cared for in the house would be "boarded out" elsewhere.

Paris Gentlemen Balk at English Cuff Ruffles

Paris, May 1.—No gentleman will wear ruffles on his evening shirt in Paris, at least this summer. A smart shop on the Avenue de l'Opera tried to boost the fashion by exhibiting in its windows a lot sent over from England with two wide lace ruffles which overlapped the lapels of the coat. The crowds that gathered about those windows guffawed the thing out of Paris.
