WHEN BOOTS WERE TRUMPS. In the big shoe factories of New England fifty machines and one hundred people take part in the manufacture of each pair of shoes...

Remembering Zion. Just as the Jewish captives sat by the river of Babylon and wept as they recalled the departed glory of Zion, so has the longing persisted to this day...

The Debt Paying Time. There has not been a time for a generation when the government could reduce its indebtedness so easily as now. The same is true of any individual.

Some Undress History. In 1794 a Berlin actress was accused of an offense against morality and decency when she appeared on the stage in bare arms.

A Temperamental Judge. Landlords and tenants assembled in the court room of Justice Morris on New York City yesterday for an extraordinary outburst on the part of that justice the other day.

Attorneys for the landlords had courage to say they might take their cases to the supreme court. Tearing off his robe the justice shouted:

Go to the supreme court! Go to the supreme court! Go to hell! The attorneys and their clients left the room.

While public sympathy is all for tenants whose rentals have been raised, the bias and intemperance of Justice Morris on the bench were strangely out of place in a man sworn to decide issues of law without prejudice or passion.

Fannie Hurst's Views on Marriage. Common fairness dictates that Fannie Hurst be allowed to have her say in defense of her astounding matrimonial arrangement.

Being firmly of the opinion that nine out of ten of the alliances I saw about me were broken by endurance tests, overgrown with the fungi of familiarity and contempt; convinced that too often the most sacred human relationship wears off like a piece of high sheen damask...

Neither Fannie Hurst nor her companion at two breakfasts a week has yet tasted the real bliss of matrimony. What do they know of the pleasures of planning, of building, of dreaming together for the home that is to be...

A Line O' Type or Two

CONCERNING Fanny Hurst's matrimonial arrangements, Mrs. Countess says that if the marriage is successful, "in any event" it is no concern of the public.

INDIRECTLY, however, the public is interested. The happy couple referred to occupy two establishments, a selfish arrangement considering the shortage of houses and apartments.

PLEASE DO SO. IT INTERESTS US STRANGELY. Did you ever hear of the man who made his wife return her new glasses because he was afraid they would hurt her eyes?

SPEAKING OF BLUEBEARDS. (From the Belvidere Republican.) Wanted—Lady boarder and roomer in private family.

WHY THE EDITOR COPPED A FAST FREIGHT. (From the Elgin News.) Mrs. Alfred Caven and her houseguest, Mrs. Faron of New York City, saw Alice Brady in "Forever After" Saturday afternoon.

THE GENTLEMAN IS OVERRULED. After reading some of your scathing diatribes against the use of the word Olympiad for Olympic games, instead of designating the period between the games, or the Olympiad, however, we will submit the point, without argument, to Dr. Paul Sherey.

SONG. (With penitence to Laura Blackburn.) I flame in gardens small, I flame 'gainst castle wall, Beauty to flaunt before you.

POPPY. MAY 9 being Mothers' Day, the florists are urging one to say it with flowers. Milkweed, is Double Barrel's frivolous suggestion?

CRUEL AND UNUSUAL. (From the Salt Lake Tribune.) Pocatello, Idaho—Guy Dutton struck Patrolman Howard in the back of the neck yesterday, and nearly put the officer out.

WE WONDER WHETHER THE R. J. BELFORD, who died in California the other day, was the founder of Belford's Magazine. All the memory of it was that it had a light blue cover, and that it published our first short story, for which it parted with twelve dollars.

The VELVET HAMMER By Arthur Brooks Baker. O. W. ELDRIDGE. The artist of the old is quite a crafty guy. His stuff, of course, was never meant to please the western eye.

How to Keep Well

KNOWLEDGE AVERTS FEAR. "What," J. B. B. asks, "is the probable cause of a feeling, something like hot flashes, burning sensation, succeeded by cold feeling and perspiration? This occurs frequently during the day as well as the night."

As a rule women know the symptoms of change of life. Many of them learn them years before they may be expected and worry somewhat in anticipation.

WHEN lightning out of a clear sky, there come hot flashes and cold sensations they are likely to be apprehensive lest it means the oncoming of some serious organic disease.

THE ovaries secrete certain substances which are poured into the blood stream and which help the woman to maintain her poise during the ages 15 to 55.

WITH VARIOUS APOLOGIES. When you and I were young, Maggie, Potatoes were cheap enough to eat. Real cream did each day careen your hair.

REPLY. Dislocated cartilages and loose bodies in the knee joints are not infrequently sources of trouble. If the inconspicuousness is great enough to justify it, have the knee operated on.

REPLY. No spring medicine for the blood taken from a bottle or box is worth the cost of the label. Young radishes, onions, green peas and salad are the best of all spring tonics.

REPLY. I develop the muscles of your feet and lower legs. Wear broad shoes. Walk with your toes turned in. Adjust the heels of your shoes.

REPLY. "I. Are raw onions healthful or unhealthful? If healthful why, and vice versa?" "2. Is Swiss cheese good for the stomach?"

REPLY. 1. They are as healthful as other good vegetable foods and for the same reason. 2. Swiss cheese eaten slowly and with a good deal of food and easily digested. It is good for the stomach in that sense.

REPLY. "1. What treatment do you recommend for fallen or broken arches?" "2. Do you approve of metal supports?"

The Bee's Letter Box

About Profitless. Stamford, Neb., April 29.—To the Editor of The Bee: I note in The Bee an article on the price of spuds and that there must be something lacking in Denmark.
