

ANDREWS MAKES KEYNOTE SPEECH AT G.O.P. MEETING

Nebraskan Says Recent Primary Shows State Opposed To League of Nations.

Washington, May 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative W. E. Andrews of Nebraska was the "key-note" at the convention of District of Columbia republicans held last night at the new Ebbitt hotel when two delegates to the Chicago convention were unanimously elected.

Mr. Andrews declared that the recent primaries in Nebraska had shown conclusively that the people of that state were strong against the league of nations without reservations and the democratic administration. He argued that the republicans revise the slogan of the administration, "Make the world safe for democracy," so that it shall become "Make the world safe for representative government."

The platform adopted at Chicago, he said, should include a promise of protection for American citizens and American interests wherever they may be.

Switchmen Held to Grand Jury on Conspiracy Charge

Salt Lake City, May 7.—Five of the 10 switchmen tried before United States Commissioner H. V. Vanepp on a charge of conspiracy and violation of the Lever transportation act in seeking to prevent shipment of food and fuel were discharged and five were bound over to the federal grand jury.

Labor Claims First Victory by Defeat of Bailey for Governor

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, May 7.—Labor's non-partisan political campaign claims to have scored its first notable victory in the defeat of Joseph W. Bailey as candidate for governor in the democratic primary in Texas and in his defeat as a candidate for delegate to the democratic national convention.

"Bailey was opposed actively and vigorously to the labor movement of Texas," the committee announced. "More than 800 local unions were united in the contest. Nothing except labor's activity accounts for the overwhelming defeat of Bailey in his effort to come back into power. The national nonpartisan political campaign committee is gratified by the results of this initial struggle. The Texas result is a triumph for human progress and a bitter rebuke to reaction."

Troops Guard Court House During Murder Trial of a Minister

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Brooksville, Ky., May 7.—Troops with guns mounted at vantage points are guarding the court house here, while in a small room inside a jury is deliberating on the fate of the Rev. Thomas Markberry, 28 years old, on trial charged with having robbed, and stabbed to death, his best friend, Jesse Glenn, leader, and then dismembering and burying his body.

While the presence of the Latonia home guard, the same company that quelled the Lexington riot, had tended to allay the spirit of lawlessness which manifested itself when the preacher's defense consisted merely of his own unsupported denial of the murder, the little county seat town is packed with people, awaiting the jury's verdict. Threats were openly uttered by many that Markberry should be lynched if the jury failed to return a verdict with the full penalty.

General Wood Wins One Of Ohio Big Four Delegates

Columbus, O., May 7.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will have one of Ohio's "big four" delegates to the republican national convention. Official results of the recent primary announced by the secretary of state shows Wm. H. Boyd, Wood candidate, to have been elected by a plurality of 959 votes over Harry M. Daugherty, Senator Warren G. Harding's national campaign manager. General Wood thus will receive nine of Ohio's 48 delegates, the others going to Senator Harding.
