ing revolutionary change with the use of force and those advocating evolutionary changes by constitutional methods should be recognized."—Ernest M. Spaulding, 23 Richardson Hall, Dartmouth.

Education.
"The republican party favors the establishment of a national department of education with a secretary of education who shall have a place in the president's cabinet."—Cyrus G. Mink, 2936 Fulton street, Woodhaven, Long Island.

Conservation.
"We advocate co-operation between national and state governments to safeguard the supply of natural wealth for future generations, and to guarantee economy in its use for present needs. Specifically, we favor more extensive irrigation and reclamation, instruction in the rotation of crops and in efficient agricultural methods, regulations to insure less waste in the extraction of minerals, more adequate prevention of forest fires, utilization of waterpower for fuel and improvement of waterways to render them navigable. The federal government should also exercise greater care in the disposition of lands, so that only legitimate settlers may be accommodated."—I. W. Friedman, 26 New York avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Taxation.
"The republican party advocates the repeal of all war taxes that kill initiative as well as the spreading of our war debt over a long term of years, and we pledge the party to the development and execution of a plan for the reduction of taxation. We further advocate such a reduction in the cost of administration as will make possible the reduction of taxation which we promise."—C. A. Lemmers, Budget and Efficiency Commissioner, State House, Denver, Colo.

The Four Additional Planks.
Tariff: "We urge the return to the policy of a protective tariff. We believe that had the principles of the republican party been carried out in the last 10 years, this country would not today be dependent upon Europe for drugs, dyes and numerous other necessities which have aggravated the high cost of living."—Dr. Ethel Hurd, Minneapolis, Minn.

Mexican Question.
To secure from infringement the rights of Americans in Mexico and to render our southern border safe from attack are among the first duties of the government. To this end we believe a definite policy uniformly asserted far more effective than neglect allowed with unsportsmanlike threats. If armed intervention seems the only method certain to maintain American rights, then intervention should be thorough and complete."—A. T. Otis, 3 Dunbury Place, White Plains, N. Y.

Budget.
"Expenditures of the government should be determined upon and made in accordance with a regulated system and not haphazard, as they have been heretofore. We, therefore, pledge ourselves to establish a budget system for expenditures, so that the finances of the government may be administered in accordance with recognized business principles."—H. G. Chase, 835 Park Row Building, New York.

Merchant Marine.
"We favor an American merchant marine, privately owned, and such government assistance as will enable it to compete with the merchant marine of other nations, so that American goods can be carried in American bottoms, under the American flag."—William R. Ecker, 750 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

Omaha Teacher Who Was Killed by Police Officer's Motorcycle

Insert picture of Policeman George Swan, whose motorcycle struck and killed Miss Anna Jensen.

Policeman Held for Causing Woman's Death

given by seven witnesses against Officer Swan, the policeman adheres to his original statement, that he was speeding to catch a racing Cadillac car that passed to the left of a south bound street car.

Saw No Automobile.
Julius Bacon, 2556 Cuming street, conductor on the street car from which Miss Jensen alighted an instant before she was killed, testified that he saw no automobile speed past the car.

Going 50 Miles An Hour.
The motorcycle officer must have been going 50 miles an hour, he testified.
Otis Maxwell, motorman, 818 North Sixteenth street, said he heard the motorcycle "popping," but that he thought the machine would swerve out of the way of the alighting passengers.

Shouts Futile Warning.
Edward Nielsen, 1716 Van Camp avenue, yelled "look out" to Miss Jensen just as the motorcycle sped past him as he alighted from the rear end of the street car, he testified.
Concerning the verdict rendered against Policeman Officer Swan, Chief of Police Eberstein said: "The police department will back Officer Swan in so far as he is right in his statement that he was chasing a speeding automobile. If it is determined that he was not in line of duty at the time of the accident, it will be a different matter." The verdict against Policeman Swan was the first against any Omaha officer for manslaughter in connection with the death of a person by speeding.

MILITARISM IS DEAD IN JAPAN, SAYS MINISTER

Big Change in Far East Is Described by Missionary At Methodist Conference.

Des Moines, May 8.—Dr. Frank Herron Smith of Seoul, Korea, speaking tonight at the fraternal delegate from the Japanese Methodist church to the Methodist general conference, stated that Japan was not a military menace, giving as his reason the fact that the boys no longer are anxious to enter either the military or naval academy.

Dr. Smith gave as further evidence that Japan is turning from militaristic tendencies, the fact that the enormous war profits of that nation are being used by the government to build 29 new colleges and 10 new universities, and to educate hundreds of Japanese young men, both at home and abroad, to assume professorships in these new institutions.

He stated further than the most popular word in Japan today is "democracy," which, he said, is equivalent for "democracy." The four great problems in Japan, said Dr. Smith, are the high cost of living, labor agitation, bolshevism and universal suffrage. An election to be held throughout the empire next Monday has to do with the matter of suffrage, and bids fair to mean great things for Japan. Dr. Smith stated that in 12 years the membership of the Methodist church of Japan has doubled, and contributions are twice as much per capita as in America.

Town Has Preacher Mayor.
Emporia, Kan., May 8.—Emporia has a preacher for a mayor. He is the Rev. J. C. Brogan, pastor of the Grace Methodist church. The Reverend Brogan was elected mayor over H. B. Morse, incumbent, by a majority of 387 votes. He was endorsed by all of Emporia's labor unions.

"PUSSYFOOT" TO APPEAR HERE FIRST OF JULY

Famous Champion of Prohibition 'Will Be Principal Speaker at Celebration of National "Dry Day."

W. E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson will assist Omaha in the celebration of the anniversary of the Great Drouth, July 1, by speaking in the Municipal Auditorium under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon league.

Rev. F. A. High of Lincoln made arrangements in Omaha yesterday for the leasing of the Auditorium for Mr. Johnson that night. "Pussyfoot" recently returned to his home in Westerville, O., from an extensive campaign overseas, losing the sight of one eye in London during a demonstration of college students against his "dry" speeches. He went from England to France, where he was coolly received.

Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and lived for many years in Lincoln. He later was in the United States service in Oklahoma keeping liquor from the Indians.

Wire Service Is Restored
Between Germany and Spain

Madrid, May 8.—Press dispatches may be sent between Germany and Spain by wireless, according to an announcement made today. Most German correspondents, however, recently have left this country and consequently the services will be used principally for German propaganda here, it is asserted.

Hoover Urges Sugar Ration
To Nonessential Industries

Washington, May 8.—Rationing of sugar of manufacturers of non-essentials and an agreement between the United States and foreign countries not to bid against each other for this commodity were suggested today by Herbert Hoover as means of relieving the present sugar shortage.

The Time for Light Summer Frocks Is Almost Here and in Preparation

We have selected a great many lovely dresses for every summer need, tissue and ginghams for morning wear, voiles and organdies for afternoon wear, attractive sports silks for vacation time and the airiest of dancing frocks for formal and informal affairs.

A Thompson-Belden gown assures its wearer distinction and charm, and in a showing so varied one may feel confident of a becoming selection. Where matters of style and quality have been previously considered, there remains only the following of personal inclinations and tastes.

Apparel Sections—Third Door

Apropos of summer gowns—parasols, colorful, odd and most charming ones, with ivory rings, unusual trimmings and the finest of silks to make them alluring. Visit the section just to the right of the door and allow us to show you our newest designs.

Seasonable Fabrics

White Sport Silks
In so varied a showing one can scarcely choose between the many lovely weaves—such silks as Kumsa, Dew Kist, Newport Cord, Fisher Maid, Tricolette and Tricotone perform their important part in costuming the ever-charming summer girl. And as for white there will never be a color so lovely that it may supplant it, the fresh, cool shimmer of white silk is quite unequalled.

Natural Tan Polo Cloth
The fine soft woolen that fashionable sport coats claim may be had in various weaves, Camel's Hair, Veloude, Pattinette and Velour, all soft, thick and requiring no lining. $5.95 to $20 a yard.

Knit Underwear
The fit of a new gown depends greatly on the fit of your underwear. Underwear that binds and pulls or falls off the shoulder makes perfect fitting outer garments impossible. Our underwear is manufactured with the aim of eliminating all the common underwear faults and is offered for your approval with full confidence in its ability to please.

Visit the Drapery Section and See Its Spring Displays

The business of housecleaning and housekeeping is not half so great a task when fresh curtains and drapes are added from time to time. Sheer net curtains to veil the glass and colorful overdrapes, harmonizing with the color scheme of the room, may be of some sheer silk if it be downstairs or of gay cretonne if it be a bedroom.

Panel nets solve the question of odd-sized windows and are in the end a great saving over "by-the-yard" curtains. The average window requires four 9-inch panels although by your measurements one more or one less may be needed and a corresponding saving effected. Filet and Duchesse weaves in the Dancing Girl, the Urn, the Basket and many other interesting patterns may be had for prices ranging from 50c to $3.25 a yard.

Nets by the yard in various patterns are priced from 65c to $2.00 a yard.

Beautiful Overdrapes

Plain and figured weaves in mulberries, pinks, blues, browns and the like are to be had in madras, very lovely silks and rep; priced from $1.00 to $5.50 a yard.

Cretonnes are always lovely with their bright interesting patterns, various qualities in our showing are priced from $1.00 to $1.50 a yard.

A new favorite is Terry cloth, a rough, slightly Turkish weave that is equally fine for drapes and pillows, in rose, blue or green. $1.50 a yard.

Orleans sateen is unequalled for bedroom hangings. It is especially charming when the bedspread, chair upholsteries and hangings are all of the same fabric. 65c to $1.00 a yard.

May we show you these draperies if you are shopping Monday?
