PALMERO HOLDS OKLAHOMA CITY TO TWO SINGLES

Fielding of Weidel and Hitting Of Platte, Donica and Lee Also Feature Rourke Victory.

While Emilio Palmero held the Oklahoma City Indians to two widely separated hits yesterday, Omaha pounced on Covington for 13 safe swats and carried off the second game of the Oklahoma City series, 6 to 1, for the pleasure of one of the largest crowds the Rourkes have had in many years.

The hitting of Donica, Platte and Lee, the fielding of Weidell and the twirling of Palmero made the game well "worth the candle."

Pitt scratched a little single in the first inning and sprained his ankle scuttling down the first base line. Later he was relieved from duty. The visitors couldn't con-nect with any of Palmero's offerings again until the eighth when Covington slammed out a single, scoring his coadjutor Cole, who had gotten a life on Maulliu's error.

AVENGE DEFEAT OF HIS BROTHER

Hopes to Wipe Out Stain on Family Record From Cutler's Victory Over Wladek Zbyszko.

Omaha mat fans are looking forward to a choice bit of entertainment at the Omaha auditorium Thursday night. It became known in wrestling cir-which will be staged at the auditorium Thursday between Stanislaus France. The greatest crowd since Zbyszko and Charley Cutler is slated the Johnson-Moran bout watched to be a grudge affair. When the match was announced first local followers of the bonecrushing pastime were only mildly interested. About all the match offered was an opportunity to give the elder Zibby the visual forward and back and pass expert judgment as to whether the husky Pole is as

Centers Around Wladek. The grudge between Zibby and Cutler centers around Wladek Zbyszko, who is Zibby's kid

brother. A couple of months ago Cutle and Wladek tangled on a Louis ville mat. When the smoke of battle cleared away the world was astounded to discover that Cutler had given Wladek a drubbing. And Wladek was considered one of the "big four," while Cutler was regarded as a "good old horse in his

Then Cutler followed up his vic tory over Wladek by taking half a dozen other topliners to a cleaning and proved his victory over Wladek was no fluke.

Brother Is Peevish. But one person, in addition to Wladek, was not overjoyed at the Cutler comeback. He was Stanis laus Zbyszko, who is strong for hi kid brother and thinks he's a grea wrestler.

So upon hearing the news of his brother's defeat, Stanislaus deter-mined to avenge the honor of the family. He was convinced Wladel couldn't do it despite the fact that Wladek appeared to be able to hold his own pretty well with Johnny Pesek, Joe Stetcher, Strangler Lew-is, Earl Caddock, et al., so he orlered Jack Hermann, his manager, to land a match with Cutler. Hermann went to Jack Lewis and

Lewis went to Cutler. "Wrestle big Zbyszko?" quoth Cutler. "When and where?" That was all. Cutler was ready to set sail on the spot. "I made a bum out of Wladek, and I'll murder his stuck up brother, too," continued Cutler. When Zibby heard of the latter Centered in Five Men remark he became wilder than ever and promises to rip Mr. Cutler limb from limb.

Thursday night will tell the tale and it appears as though Omaha AMUSEMENTS.
