Will Use Service Men.

Edward P. Thayer of Indiana, sergeant-at-arms of committee, was appointed temporary sergeant-at-arms. Maj. Gen. aJmes A. Ryan of Chicago was named chief doorkeeper. His assistants will all be former service men. Genera Ryan was General Pershing's chief of staff on the Mexican expedition. Ushers also will be overseas soldiers, under the direction of Capt. Knowlton Ames.

The national executive committee also may meet today in its regular monthly session. It was decided to postpone hearing of seat confests to May 31, at 9 a. m. Chairman Hays reported that the situation showed such improvement that the original plan to open the hearing May 25, was not necessary.

British Continue to Close Irish Police Barracks

Dublin, May 10 .- The authorities are continuing the policy of shut-ting down the small police barracks in the rural districts. Two organized attacks have occurred at small barracks. At Cloyne, County Cork, the small garrison of seven was compelled to surrender, one of the men eing wounded.

The other raid was at the village Newtown Hamilton, South Armagh, where 300 Sinn Feiners attacked the barracks garrispned by The fight lasted two and half hours. The building was prinkled with petrol and burned, driving the garrison into an outhouse, where they continued their defense. The raiders ultimately re-
