

W. G. URE ELECTED HEAD OF DOUGLAS G. O. P. COMMITTEE

Mrs. Draper Smith Vice Chairman—32 Men and 31 Women Delegates to State Convention.

At the organization of the new republican county central committee in the city council chamber yesterday afternoon, W. G. Ure was unanimously elected chairman for the next two years and Mrs. Draper Smith was elected vice-chairman.

The new chairman will name an executive committee, the members of which, in conference with the republican candidates, will agree on a secretary and treasurer of the county central committee.

The county convention, which met during the hour previous to the committee organization, named 63 delegates to represent this county at the republican state convention at Lincoln next Tuesday.

Harmony Prevails.

The county convention and the committee organization reflected the harmony which exists in Douglas county republicanism at this time.

There are a few spirited expressions which were easily ironed out when the mooted points were explained.

The convention was attended by 70 women and 52 men and it was the first time in the history of this county of a political convention where men and women sat with equal privileges. One of the refinements of the occasion was the absence of tobacco smoke.

Anas Raymond was selected chairman of the convention and Mrs. Katherine Sumner served as secretary. Mr. Raymond announced that he would not inflict a keynote speech on the delegates. Mrs. E. G. McGilton, Mrs. James Richardson, Mrs. William Berry, Ray M. Crossman, Amos Thomas and Allen Tukey were named a committee to nominate the 63 state convention delegates. While that committee was preparing its list James Walsh, Mrs. Smith and Robert Smith addressed the convention briefly.

Women Expect Full Franchise.

Mrs. Smith said that the women confidently expect that they will receive the full rights of suffrage in time for the fall election. Mr. Walsh referred to the women as the new recruits of the party.

"This is the most representative republican county convention ever held in Douglas county," Robert Smith said. "I believe that the republican party is the best instrument at hand for the carrying into effect of the will of the American people."

In calling the convention to order County Chairman Baker said he hoped that the women would be nient and not impose their numerical superiority. He urged the women voters to understand the measures and persons for which they vote.

"Parties are essential. I don't like bolters," he said. "Be good republicans and fight for your party, but don't lose all of your hair as I have done."

One of the seventh ward delegates suggested that the list of 63 delegates as reported by the nominating committee had been "hand-picked," but he was quickly convinced that the list was a fair representation of all of the wards and the country districts.

Ure Unanimously Chosen.

The call for the meeting of the new county central committee was made by Chairman Baker as soon as the county convention adjourned. He urged every member of the new county committee to work loyally for the success of the party and he charged them with the responsibilities which will devolve upon them.

He called for nominations for the new county chairman, whereupon Mrs. June B. Twamley nominated W. G. Ure and F. L. Bugbee nominated Tom Hollister, who declined to allow his name to be considered. John W. Robbins, nominee for state senator, announced that the candidate at a meeting last week endorsed Mr. Ure and Chairman Baker stated that he believed that the selection of Mr. Ure would be a wise one. The election of Mr. Ure then followed with an unanimous expression.

Mrs. Draper Smith, chairman of the republican women's committee, was named as vice chairman of the new central committee.

In accepting the gavel from Ben S. Baker, the retiring chairman, Mr. Ure said:

"We are to be congratulated upon the fact that the world do move, for today we have before us men and women together in a county convention. We are to be congratulated on having these women recruits with us and we will expect a good deal from them. We want politics and the right kind of politics. I have learned that I can trust the word of the average politician as much as I can that of the average business man. This central committee is going to support the whole republican ticket and we are going to elect the entire ticket. Our party has spoken and we will support its ticket from top to bottom."

The new county chairman endorsed the code bill, which he commended to all voters.

Women on the Inside.

Mrs. Smith, the new county vice chairman, accepted her honor with these words:

"I see Douglas county women today for the first time officially on the inside of politics. We are all well content to be here because of our great desire to serve our country."

She stated that Nebraska has enough law for the protection of domestic animals and asserted that the women are going to see that there are more welfare laws for the human race.

Under the new law, the county central committee is entitled to one man and one woman from each of 168 voting precincts of the county. Vacancies in the committee will be filled by the new executive committee which will be named by Chairman Ure within a few days.

Delegates Selected.

The county convention selected the following delegation of 63 women and men to represent this county at the state convention at Lincoln next Tuesday:

Women—Mesdames E. P. Whitney, Corinne Detwiler, Nellie Goodbody, Henrietta J. Smith, Grant Parsons, Blanche J. Horn, Hattie Kugel, Hazel M. Crosby, Clara M. Fowler, Almyra W. Laug, June B. Smith.

There are 32 men and 31 women in the delegation.

HAZEN ASKS FOR CUSTODY OF HIS THREE CHILDREN

Father's Motion in District Court Sequel to Mother's Breach of Promise Suit For $25,000.

George E. Hazen yesterday filed a motion in district court asking custody of three small children of himself and his former wife, Marie C. Hazen. The children are 7, 5 and 3 years old and are at present with their mother at 1470 Emmet street.

Day before yesterday Mrs. Hazen sued her ex-husband for breach of promise of marriage and asked damages of $25,000.

They were married eight years ago; she secured a divorce two years ago and a modification of that decree, giving her $85 a month for the support of the children, a year ago. The first of this year Mr. and Mrs. Hazen began friendly relations again and she stated in her breach of promise suit he proposed that they reunite. She accepted, she said, but at the appointed time he refused to marry her.

In Mr. Hazen's petition asking custody of the children and a reduction in the alimony payment, he says his former wife is "not a fit person to have the children," alleging that she has been moving from place to place and that she has not kept the children in school, has left them alone at times and allowed them to "run at large."

He says they have been neglected. Unless he gets them, he says, they will soon refuse to recognize him as their father.

Mrs. Hazen told yesterday of an altercation she and another woman in the affair had at the Rome Hotel two weeks ago. She said she slapped the other woman. Hazen denies Mrs. Hazen's allegation that he has "allowed himself to become interested in an old attachment." He charges her troubles to "too much mother-in-law."

In New York state the average of factory workers' earnings for March, 1920, was 26 per cent more than in March, 1919.

Regular Habits Produce a Beautiful Complexion

Daily elimination rids the system of poisons. Women should realize that!

MANY women complain daily of their complexion, of their headaches and general ill health, little realizing that the trouble is constipation. Women, too, are much more subject to such congestion than men, and much more careless of it. The result is seen in lusterless, weary eyes, in shallow, pimply complexion, in lassitude, bad breath, and in that word so often used, "indisposed."

At the first sign of these symptoms the wise woman will take a laxative, and will see that the young girl and others in her care do likewise. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite with thousands of women because it is mild and gentle in its action and in the end trains the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work naturally without the aid of medicine.

This combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, which can be bought at any drug store, is also a very sterling first-aid in colds, fevers and other sudden ills that make it advisable to always have a bottle in the home. It is free from narcotics and safe for the finest baby.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
