Salt Lake Base Ball Club Sues Cullop for Jumping His Contract

Salt Lake City, May 12.—Nick Cullop, former New York American pitcher who recently jumped his contract with the Salt Lake club the Pacific Coast league, was made defendant today in a damage suit filed in the United States district court and also was notified that an application for a restraining or-der was to be filed tomorrow.

The complaint in the suit brought by the Salt Lake club asks damages of an "equitable amount" on account of the club being deprived of Cullop's services. Cullop is scheduled to pitch Friday for an independent league club and a restraining order will be asked for to prevent him playing base ball with any club other than Salt Lake. Weiser Dell, who left the Vernon club to play independent ball, arrived in Salt Lake today an will pitch his first game Saturday.

BREAK TIE IN HIGH SCHOOL BALL LEAGUE

Commerce Beats Creighton High and Steps Into First Place — Central Defeats South.

Commerce High school base ball team broke the tie for first place in the City High School league Tuesday by defeating Creighton High nine, 3 to 2, at Creighton field. Central registered a victory over South High, 6 to 4, at Thirty-second and Dewey avenue.

Creighton High made their only allies in the second inning, when Wogan singled, reached second on sacrifice by Maloney and scored on a three-base hit by Daley. Daley crossed the plate on a two-bagger by Redmond. The Blue and White squad was held scoreless from then on.

The bookkeepers were unable to score until the fifth frame, when Kline singled and scored on Rokusek's triple. Rokusek tied the score when he tallied on a single by Chester Leubbe. Leubbe stele second, reached third on a single by his brother, Carl, and crossed the plate when Mahoney singled. Mahoney on the mound for Commerce hurled a good game, striking out 10 and only allowing four hits. Smith on the firing line for Creighton struck out five men and allow-The Packers hit heavtly the first

Dry Goods Dealers Note Thrift Tendency On Consumers' Part

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bec Leased Wire. New York, May 12.—Those in touch with the dry goods trade are not surprised to learn that mills are receiving many cancellatoins. Leaders in both the wholesale and retail trade admit the public has slowed up buying, and while they do not ex pect the general public to don overthey do expect an extended thrift movement which is bound to have its effect on trade in clothing and other dry goods lines

There is general unsettlement i the textile trade, due not so much to accumulation of manufactured tocks in quantity as to the greatly inflated values of inventories and prices is a weight which, in addition to other matters, is regarded with anxiety in the textile trade. The silk situation causes anxiety

With raw silk down from $18 pound to $10 a pound in a comparatively short while, due in part to overspeculation in Japan, coupled with the slackening in demand here, t is natural that big silk jobbers have been offering huge quantities at prices which spell big losses to small firms whick have their inventories written skywards.
