

CALLS DIVORCE GREATER MENACE THAN 'RED' FLAG

Attorney's Verbal Onslaught Brings Similar Sentiments From Judge and Victory to Defendant Husband.

"The time has come for the courts to put a stop to frivolous divorces," declared Judge A. L. Sutton in arguing the divorce suit of Gladys Rice against Dr. Grover Rice of Baird, Neb., before District Judge Sears yesterday.

"We have the I. W. W. and the red flag of the bolsheviks in the country, but even they are not as great a menace to our future as the black flag of divorce which is unfurled and under which a perfect avalanche of divorces are poured into the courts."

Refuses to Grant Decree.
Judge Sears refused to grant Mrs. Rice a divorce, declaring that evidence had not disclosed any reason for a decree.

"I myself," said Judge Sears, "had the finest woman in the world for my wife for 17 years, and we got along wonderfully harmoniously. It is a sweet and tender memory to me, that period of 17 years."
In this present case there might be hidden just such a sweet, harmonious life if the parties would just get rid of the overgrowth of the weeds of discontent and selfishness which may lie on top."

War-Time Romance.
The Rices were married in Kansas City, February 2, 1918, while Dr. Rice was in medical training camp at Fort Riley. Mrs. Rice alleged that her husband "complained about the bills" after he returned from France and began practicing his profession in Baird, Neb.

Condemns Divorce.
"Dr. Rice loves his wife and he doesn't believe in divorce. When he first came to me he told me that his father and mother did not believe in divorce and that he held the same views. I married for eternity," he said.
"That is the way marriage should be. When Nathan Strauss and his wife stood upon the deck of the sinking Titanic and when a place in the last boat was offered to Mrs. Strauss, she turned away and put her arms around her husband and refused to take life without him. And together they sank in the icy waters of the Atlantic but their example of devotion goes marching down the years. That marriage was made in heaven."

BAPTISTS BLAME MOVING PICTURES FOR DIVORCE RULE

Lax Laws and Intemperance Share in Church Condemnation—Attack Press.

Washington, May 17.—Moving pictures, lax laws and intemperance are blamed for the numerous divorces in the United States by the committee of temperance and social service in its report to the Southern Baptist convention today. Enactment of a uniform code of marriage and divorce laws was recommended as a remedy.

Quoting from government statistics of the number of divorces obtained annually in the country, the report shows that in 1918, when the last figures were gathered, there were 112,036 divorces.
As a primary cause of "this sad condition," the report denounces the motion picture as now produced, declaring that "nearly every film put on the screen contains somewhere some evil suggestion. Many of the films are based on the 'eternal triangle' and the suggestions of disregard, if not an open breach of the marital relation."
The report recommends, among other things, the publishing of the marriage laws for at least 30 days before the rite can be celebrated; physical examination of each party by a physician and the establishment of a uniform code which as nearly as possible "should come to the basis of bible teaching concerning the ground for divorce with the right of marriage and that in all other cases when divorces be granted it be without the right of remarriage."

Attack American Press.
A proposal to appoint a committee to study the advisability of establishing a Baptist newspaper was made the occasion for an attack by Dr. Ben Cox of Memphis, Tenn., against the American newspapers in general and the Associated Press in particular. Seventy-five per cent of "the blue pencil" American newspaper offices, he charged, were in Roman Catholic hands.

ST. JOSEPH TRAIN BANDIT SOLD HIS LOOT IN OMAHA

Youthful Robber Slain in Chicago Holdup Also Committed Thefts Here, His Alleged Pal Admits.

Horace Walton, the St. Joseph youth who was killed Friday in Chicago following the holdup of the mail car on the Illinois Central New Orleans limited, disposed of portions of his loot from other holdups in Omaha, and even committed a few minor robberies while in the city.

This information is contained in a signed confession made to Police Inspector Frank D. Flora of St. Joseph, at noon today by Dick Smythe, 19-year-old boy, held as an accomplice of Walton in the $100,000 mail car holdup on the Illinois Central last Friday.
Walton was the lone bandit who held up a Santa Fe mail car at Lexington, Mo., near Kansas City, on the night of April 8 and escaped with $800 in cash and $500 in Liberty bonds, according to the confession. Smythe says that Walton disposed of $200 in bonds early the following day in Kansas City, and that afternoon left for Omaha where he remained for two weeks, disposing of the remainder of the bonds.
Smythe says Walton intimated he pulled several small holdups while in Omaha those two weeks, but that he did not try for large stakes.
