

RUMP FACTION IS OUTLAWED BY REGULAR FORCES

Lancaster and Douglas Delegates Are Seated Over Insurgents; Hitchcock and Bryan On Resolutions Board.

was held in Lincoln on last Monday afternoon. When quizzed by the committee Bryan admitted that some of the members of his delegation had not been regularly elected to the Lancaster county convention, but had been selected from a list of names used to fill vacancies in precincts where no fillings had been made. This situation was analogous to the one offered by the Douglas county contest.

Women Are Represented.

"I see no good purpose that could be served by seating the delegates of the convention held yesterday," said Mr. Harmon. "The Bryan delegation named women because there is a militant women's democratic organization in Lancaster county."
"Mr. Harmon made his speech because he had been told that Mr. Bryan would bolt the convention if his delegation was not seated," was the retort of J. S. McCarty, one of the protestants.
Mr. Harmon further explained that he sought to have obtained the naming of C. W. Pool on the Lancaster delegation because he wanted Pool named as chairman of the new state central committee.

In presenting the report of the credentials committee, Chairman Kavanaugh said: "We were unanimous in our report, but personally I would like to rebuke some of the things that were done in the conventions that elected delegates. The legislature that inflicted this infamous law on us should be ashamed."

Delegates Are Divided.

Mat Miller of David City objected to allowing Douglas and Lancaster counties to have double sets of delegates, each delegate having half of a vote. The chair did not approve his point of order.

When the smoke had cleared away, Douglas was allowed 166 and Lancaster 46 delegates.
A bit of humor occurred when C. J. Campbell, secretary of the state central committee, rose from a seat to a point of order and was declared out of order because he was not a delegate.

Several Women Spoke.

The convention was called to order by A. F. Sprague, state chairman, followed by Mayor Smith, who offered a brief address of welcome. Mr. Shallenbeger, named as temporary chairman, delivered the keynote address. During the mayor's talk Senator Hitchcock entered and was greeted with hearty applause.

Among the afternoon speakers were: Mrs. Antonette Funk of Chicago, Mrs. T. J. Doyle of Lincoln, J. H. Morehead, candidate for governor; Harry S. Dugan, candidate for congress from the Fifth district; T. C. Grimes, candidate for congress from the Sixth district, and W. H. Thompson, the new national committeeman.

Bryan's Move Overruled.

When the resolutions committee was announced during the closing moments of the afternoon session, Mr. Bryan moved that the state candidates be declared honorary members of the committee, his thought being that the candidates should have a voice in the preparation of the platform inasmuch as they will be expected to make a campaign on it. After a roar from the delegates, Mr. Bryan withdrew his motion.
Mat Miller of David City asserted that it would be wrong to hamper the resolutions committee in its deliberations on matters which transcend any interests the candidates may have.

"If the candidates do not like the resolution and platform, let them stand aside," said Mr. Miller.
E. A. Gaul of David City declared that Mr. Bryan's idea was inadvisable and out of order.

insistence upon selecting its own members of the platform committee put the convention in a turmoil for half an hour. James Walsh, against whom the protest was directed, undertook to pour oil on the troubled water by volunteering to withdraw. Douglas county delegates, reinforced by some outside groups, insisted on a motion for the selection of the entire committee by district caucuses. On a roll call this was defeated, 292 to 473.

The platform committee was appointed by Chairman McDonald. In appointing the committee, he recognized the wish of the Omaha delegates. The 15 members were: P. James Cosgrave of Lincoln, James A. Rodman of Kimball, C. H. Sloan of Geneva, F. N. Prout of Falls City, Mrs. H. M. Bushnell of Lincoln, Anan Raymond and Mrs. James Richardson of Omaha, B. J. Ainlay of Belgrade, Mrs. T. L. Mathews of Fremont, Ed Hall of David City, Miss Carolyn Cook of Wahoo, R. B. Austin and Mrs. Walter Stokes of McCook, George C. Snow of Chadron and Mrs. M. A. Brown of Kearney.

Applaud Governor McKelvie.

During the interims while awaiting committee reports the convention listened to speeches by Governor McKelvie and by Mrs. McCarter of Topeka, Kan., representing the national committee.

"The republican party of Nebraska need apologize to no one," said the governor. "Every pledge it made was redeemed by its legislature and state officers. No act of any considerable importance, committed by its representatives in office in Nebraska, can be condemned."
The governor pointed out that increased state appropriations have been necessary expenditures for improved roads, schools, state institutions and a new capitol. The civil administrative code, he said, was simply a return to fundamental principles of government.

Mrs. McCarter won great applause and laughter when she referred to President Wilson as one who "kept us out of war, out of peace and out of everything else, including sugar." She declared that women voters can achieve results only through adherence to party organization.

Senator Walsh Denounces Profiteers and Recommends Public Trading On Large Scale.

Washington, May 18.—Profiteering was denounced today in the senate by Senator Walsh, democrat of Massachusetts, who asserted that extortions of profiteers are the principal cause of widespread unrest and that congress has been "culpably inactive" in moving to relieve the situation.
Senator Walsh cited many large dividends, declaring the public outcry against the high cost of living were an acute political problem.

Calls Republicans Lax.

Republican leadership and majorities in congress, the Massachusetts senator said, are responsible for failure to enact anti-profiteering legislation.
Among recommendations made by Senator Walsh to check profiteering were:
1. Passage of several pending bills, including the packer-regulation measure, the McNary bill to stamp out prices on shoes, the cold storage regulation bill and others.
2. "Further recommend," said Senator Walsh, "that congress promptly inaugurate public trading on a large scale unless exorbitant profits are voluntarily and materially reduced at once."

Among instances of corporation profits cited by Senator Walsh were those of the "big five" packers as reported by the federal trade commission, the American Woolen company and several textile mills, steel companies, coal operators and news print manufacturers.

and Florence lakes. Dairymen were driven from their homes and their crops totally destroyed. High water damaged truck gardens and homes in East Omaha. Winspear Triangle and in the vicinity of Ninth and Clark streets.
The Omaha Refining company warehouses now under construction adjoining the hog ranch on Avenue H, East Omaha, is completely under water. Building material is submerged. Huge gasoline storage tanks are completely surrounded by water.

Workmen were busy all night and day distributing sand bags and old lumber about the main road in an effort to check the rising waters.
Freight Cars Submerged.
Long strings of freight and oil cars show their tops through the surging currents. The spectacle resembles conning towers of submarines protruding from the water.
The road leading through East Omaha to the Illinois Central draw bridge is submerged. Flood waters about the hog ranch and in the vicinity of Ninth and Clark streets are slowly receding.

A fall in the river was reported at points farther north along the Missouri river yesterday.
Refuse to Leave.
The Norris Lumber company, Ninth and Seward streets, is still submerged, the seething currents having broken through that vicinity late Monday night when the river broke through Eleventh street.
Families in their homes in that neighborhood refuse to move out. In several instances boats were used, however, to rescue children from their homes.

The park garden at Camp Gifford, a Boy Scout outing place near Child's Point, was completely ruined by the overflow of water from the river at that point. A group of scouts under the direction of Scout Master Hoyt worked feverishly all yesterday in an effort to check damage to buildings at the camp.

Homes Under Water.

Some of the homes still under water are:
Thoma; Dressp, Tenth and Clark streets; Mrs. Annie Buckles, Ninth and Clark streets; Lon Stone, Tenth and Seward streets; Fritz Hansen, 1024 Grace street; Al Banks, Tenth and Grace streets; Charles Amos, 1005 Grace street; Michael Martin, 1024 Seward street; Henry Pollock's hog ranch, Avenue H, East Omaha.

The Sinclair and National Refining company's warehouses at Eleventh and Seward streets are at the edge of the flood in that district.
The high water gauge at the Thirty-seventh street pumping station in Council Bluffs registered 21.3 at noon yesterday.

Bluffs Damage Slight.

Damage done north of Council Bluffs was chiefly to farms. All club houses at Lake Manawa were isolated by the high waters. The Council Bluffs Rowing association and the Fish and Game club were attainable only by boats.
Many houses in the vicinity of the east road to Manawa are completely inundated. Motor boats were used Monday night and yesterday in patrolling the flood waters in search of families probably in danger.
No drownings were reported either in Omaha or Council Bluffs.

Kearney Seeks Bids on 30 Blocks of Street Paving

Kearney, Neb., May 18.—(Special.)—Kearney city commissioners are advertising for bids on about 30 blocks of paving. This is the limit of street paving that can be undertaken for the year, as that area represented in paving districts will draw on all intersectional paving money available. It is planned to let contracts on May 24, and if possible get the work under way so it may be completed this year.

Agents Threatened U. S. Senator With Death and Disgrace

Washington, May 18.—Charles E. Jones, former Department of Justice agent, today charged Mexican agents in the United States with having threatened disgrace and death to Senator Fall of New Mexico, chairman of the senate committee investigating Mexican affairs, and to W. M. Hanson, one of Chairman Fall's assistants.
Mr. Jones, who made his charges before the Mexican committee, said Raymond E. DeNegri, former Mexican consul general in New York, had told him last fall that "they (Fall and Hanson) will be shot very soon." DeNegri added, Jones said, that he had "a man in New York now to fix them."
The former Mexican consul general, according to Jones, also asserted that "Americans having tremendous political influence with the United States administration are assisting" in efforts to disgrace the Fall committee.
Jones said he also was told to watch "Washington for something to drop" in the matter. Most of the conversations reported were alleged to have taken place in New York during November, 1919.

Russia Orders Arrest Of Zionist Delegates As National Enemies

Moscow, May 18.—Seventy-five delegates and alternates to the All-Russian Zionist congress which met here last April have been arrested, according to a statement issued by the extraordinary commission today. It is asserted that the extraordinary secrecy observed regarding the meeting and the fact that a large proportion of those present were not connected with the Zionist movement, led to the arrests.
Investigation, it is alleged, has resulted in the discovery of compromising documents revealing close contact with entente countries. Charges are made that many bombs have been found in the office of the central Zionist committee.

The Value of Sane Merchandising
(Selling goods of known quality at fair and sensible prices.)

To the People of this Community

Resorting to the sensational never improves the quality or desirability of the merchandise offered.

Your first consideration when contemplating a purchase should be "Do I need this article and does it satisfy me in every particular?"

If you buy on the basis of price alone, too often you are doomed to disappointment.

Good judgment dictates the advisability of knowing that the goods in question are of the best possible quality for the price asked. Common sense shows clearly that price is only relatively important.

Right principles are right for all times and it has been our experience during thirty-four years of business activity in Omaha, that quality counts first, above all other considerations and that the consequent pleasure in ownership and lasting satisfaction one gains through choosing quality will offset in a happy manner any slight and seemingly advantageous difference in the first cost.

You Have Not Heard "All In One" Until You Hear

Sonora
CLEAR AS A BELL

- 1—Sonora is designed to play ALL MAKES of disc records perfectly without extra attachments.
- 2—Sonora has a magnificent tone which won highest score at the Panama Pacific Exposition.
- 3—Sonora has graceful design lines, characteristic of the finest furniture.
- 4—Sonora has a tone modifier which, at the sound source, regulates volume, but leaves quality unaltered.
- 5—Sonora has an all-wooden tone passage, a feature which is exclusively Sonora.
- 6—Sonora (Invariable and Supreme) has a motor meter which tells how many disc records can be played before rewinding is necessary.
- 7—Sonora's motor is internationally famous for its power, sturdiness, reliability and for its extra-long running qualities.
- 8—Sonora has an effective automatic stop, a convenient envelope filing system, and appropriate trimmings, a perfected sound box, etc.

The Sonora plays PERFECTLY—could anything more be desired?—Victor, Emerson, Columbia, Vocalion and Pathé Records (which probably constitute 97 per cent of all phonograph records bought) but should you have occasion to play an Edison record, the Sonora will play that make also without extra attachment and WITHOUT THE OBSTACULAR SCRATCH. The convincing proof of this fact is to hear an Edison Record played on the Sonora Phonograph.

Hear the SONORA—Then Decide.
