Three More Police Barracks Destroyed — Londonderry to Be Put Under Martial Law.

Dublin, May 18.—Two police barracks in Limerick and one in Gormanstown, County Meath, were destroyed Monday.

Sir John Taylor, undersecretary in the Irish administration, who, it was reported last month would resign, has returned here and resumed his duties.

A London dispatch April 23 said Sir John Taylor would resign as a part of the new government policy toward Ireland. He was credited by the Daily Sketch with having for years been the "power behind the throne" at Dublin castle, and it was said his life had been in constant danger.

Gen. Sir Cecil F. N. Macready, military commander of Ireland, addressing a parade of the royal Irish constabulary and Dublin police at Dublin Monday, eulogized their services and courage and added, according to a dispatch to the London Times from Dublin, "everything that it is possible for the military to do to assist the police shall and will be done."

Washington, May 18.—A deadlock on the army organization bill was reached today by the senate and house conferees. Senate provisions to reorganize the force caused the breach and the question will be brought before the house for a vote.

The disagreement, Chairman Wadsworth of the senate said, came despite an offer from the senate side to strike out the senate provisions for voluntary military training of youths between 18 and 21 years of age.

Republicans Will Answer Call of Country To Solve Its Perplexing Problems

N. P. McDonald, as Temporary Chairman, Opens State Convention in Lincoln With Keynote Address—Denounces Rule of Executive Department of Government Last Seven Years as Autocratic.

Lincoln, Neb., May 18.—(Special.)—Denouncing the work of the executive department of the government for the past seven years as strongly autocratic, and stating that the republican party is now answering the call of the country for a solution of its perplexing problems, N. P. McDonald, temporary chairman of the republican state convention, opened its sessions here today in the Orpheum theater with the following keynote address:

"Our country is again calling to the republican party for a solution of its perplexing problems, and we are responding to the call. For 10 years prior to the present congress the legislative branch of our government has been controlled by our political opponents, and for the last seven years the executive department has been ruled by the greatest autocrat since the birth of the republic. It has not redeemed its promises, nor met the needs of the time.

The democratic party has no solution for the problems of this reconstructive period, except spoils and free trade, and the foreign policy of that party is in such a muddle that the democrats are in hopeless disrepute as to what it is and what it ought to be.

Protect Service Men.
"When last we met in state convention our country was stirred to the utmost endeavor to defeat our enemies in the greatest war known to the world, and to prevent ruthless autocracy from dominating the earth.

"It is our duty to see that the boys who fought abroad did not make their sacrifice for an ungrateful government and that none who donned the uniform of Uncle Sam shall suffer in consequence.

"We congratulate ourselves today that the ladies are participating in the deliberations of this body. We think it a credit to republican ideals that most of the states where women are permitted to vote are republican, and that most of the states that have adopted the suffrage amendment are controlled by the republican party.

Revenue and Taxation.
"One of the greatest problems that confronts us today is revenue and taxation. It goes without saying that the republican party will never tolerate in time of peace an expenditure of $9,000,000,000 upon an income of less than $6,000,000,000.

"In raising revenues we shall return to the principle of the protective tariff and levy our duties in such a manner as will promote our industries in this country and preserve to Americans the benefits of the American market and insure to the laboring man a wage that will permit him to live up to the American standard.

"National prohibition has come to stay and the friends of the liquor interests have abandoned all hope of getting us into their net. Plain living, high thinking and sober conduct are always consistent with republican ideals.

Americanization Important.
"Americanization of the people is an important problem for the state and nation. It applies to those who are citizens as well as to those who are to become citizens. We must have no foreign allegiance or hyphenated citizenship. We must have one flag, the Stars and Stripes, and one country, the United States of America. The prosperity of our government depends upon the intelligence and moral fiber of its citizens in order that they love and defend their institutions.

"The church must be left free to lead the people in religion and morals. The school in various forms must be maintained for all who are informed so they may understand our institutions and the duties of American citizenship. This implies that they must be taught the English language because that is the language in which the spirit of our institutions is expressed.

"It is common knowledge that there is wide-spread and deep-seated industrial unrest and dissatisfaction. The causes therefore are many but not difficult to ascertain.

Class Controversies.
"How often have we heard the cry, 'O, if we only had a Roosevelt in the White House.' All we need is a capable, courageous, common sense, righteous and sympathetic United States republican.

"He must have the sense to know what the trouble and the remedy is and the ability, disposition and courage to administer it. He will put the profiteer in the necessities of men out of business; he will not be cowed by the man or class of men holding a stopwatch on him or on congress; he will not permit the rights of the public to be disregarded in any controversy between classes of men; he will in broad sympathy see that justice is done and the right prevails and that honesty and ability are enthroned in public places. When the government is administered by that kind of a man, these troubles and disturbances will disappear.

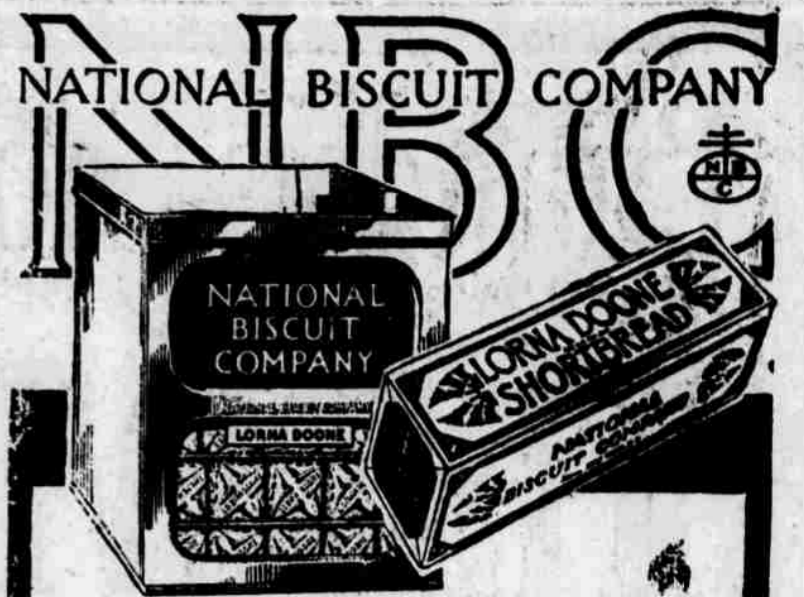

"Laboring men were never so well organized in unions as they are today. They have great power for good to themselves and the public. In all this the public gives its approval and bids them Godspeed. But there have been unjustified and unnecessary strikes.

Administrative Code Bill.
"Neither labor, capital nor the public can afford the losses occasioned by the strike. There ought to be a way to adjust their differences in justice to both sides without the necessity of a strike.

"We welcome the assault of the enemy in the state campaign. During the past two years the legislative and executive departments have been republican and they have made a record that entitles them to the commendation of the people of the state and the united and enthusiastic support of every republican. The pledges made in the platform two years ago have been faithfully performed.

"Among other things, the administrative code bill was passed by the legislature and signed by the governor. There has been a vast deal of criticism of it by our political opponents and those who do not know what it contains or what its effect is. If it had had the support to which it was justly entitled, there would be few left to criticize it except those whose positions were lost by reason thereof. It may not be perfect, but it accomplishes the purpose of efficiency and economy in government, and is framed along the lines of good business administration."

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch, and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol tablet, placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such diseases. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vannie Thacker, R. F. D. 2, St. Paris, O., writes: "I had 80 chicks and they all died but 32. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhoea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 373 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

SIMPLE WAY TO GET RID OF UNSIGHTLY HAIRS

There is one simple, safe and sure way to get rid of unsightly hairs on neck, arms and under arms, and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get a bottle of Frezco Hair Remover Lotion from your druggist, apply a little with the finger tips, or with a little cotton, just like you would a face lotion, to the hairs not wanted, in a few minutes wash off and you will be surprised how the hairs have disappeared. Puffy or heavy hairs simply dissolve and leave the skin soft and white—shaving and other methods only remove hairs for a short while and they come in thicker than ever, while Frezco Hair Remover Lotion dissolves them away below the skin and weakens the growth. If you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should try this simple and safe method of getting rid of them.
