RESOLUTION ON SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL IS REVOKED

Bitter Protest Filed by Members of Legion Results in Chamber of Commerce Rescinding Action.

A resolution passed by the execu- tive committee of the Omaha Cham- ber of Commerce on May 11, held by members of the American Legion to be antagonistic to a federal bonus for all service men, was revoked by the executive committee of the chamber at its meeting yesterday. The question of the stand of the Chamber of Commerce on a bonus for former service men was referred to the public affairs and legislative committee for further consideration. Recommendations of that body will be submitted to the executive com- mittee for approval.

Conference Is Planned.
Representatives of the Douglas County post of the legion will be asked to meet with the legislative committee, F. A. Brogan, chairman, said yesterday. The meeting prob- ably will be held next week and will seek to find a plan on which repre- sentatives of the chamber and of the legion can agree. The rescinding of the resolution, which "warned against a general cash bonus distributed indiscrimi- nately," followed a storm of protest lodged by members of the legion against the chamber. Many legion men announced their determination to resign from the Chamber of Com- merce unless the resolution was im- mediately withdrawn. Legion Men Indignant. Unofficial meetings of legion mem- bers for the purpose of crystallizing sentiment protesting the resolution were held, and, according to legion men were responsible for the an- nouncement that the resolution would be reconsidered at yesterday's meeting of the executive committee. Representatives of both sides of the controversy are of the opinion that a satisfactory agreement on the chamber's attitude toward bonus legislation can be reached.

People Realize What Burgess-Nash Have Done For Omaha

The great movement which we started was the subject of much favorable comment yesterday throughout the United States. Telephone calls, let- ters and telegrams began coming in complimenting us on the action we took to start a campaign on

Lowering the Cost of Merchandise

Reports from the Federal Reserve banking authorities and com- mercial and manufacturing bodies stated still higher prices on necessities and explained that there did not seem to be any way to prevent it.

There Was One Thing Which Could Be Done In This Community

From a conscience sense of duty to the public, we felt we should live up to our motto to be of "The Greatest Service to the Greatest Number"

We therefore made an announcement that we should make a 20% Deduction

on the Actual Prices of Our Entire Stock of Merchandise with the exception of a few trade marked brands which no mer- chant should cut in price.

It is very gratifying to see that others have followed in our foot- steps and we only hope that it may be the means of forcing pro- ducers to a leveling down of prices and releasing their stocks for better interests of the public.

To mention all that is comprised in these vast and varied stocks of of Burgess-Nash would make an unreadable list.

Burgess-Nash merchandise is noted for its high quality and splen- did values and even without this radical reduction of 20% would prove extremely interesting.

Our original price tags are on every piece of merchandise and a 20% reduction is taken from these prices at the time of the sale.
