The grounds have been put in condition for the season, a small grandstand has been erected, and the suits, ordered some time ago, will be here in a few days. Superintendent L. R. Gregory of the Tecumseh schools, is manager of the team, and it is being financed by the Tecumseh Community club. On Thursday next the Falls City Elks team will play the Tecumseh Elks team here. The Falls City men will bring their ladies with them and in the evening a class of 17 is to be evening a class of 17 is to be initiated here, after which there will be dancing and a social time.

Hey! Just a Minute. With the Sporting Editor.

In the Nebraska-California game yesterday in Lincoln an umpire called a safe hit to center field out because he thought the center fielder caught it on the fly. In reality, press dispatches say, the ball came to center field on a bounce. The de-cision was made against the home There is no truth in the rumor that that umpire has been offered a job in the Western league.

Kid Graves says his Indian fighter, George Lamson, is ready and willing to meet Bob Roper. He said stamson had just returned from Excelsior Springs and would start light work at once.

Graves has a new fighter in his stable at Walthill, he says. The new one is a welterweight and his name is Morris Rhine. Heretofore he has been known in Omaha as Jack Ryan and as Kid Schlaifer.

Glenwood, Ia., has equipped a mu-nicipal park with camping places, stoves, tables and the like. Glenwood Park lake affords fine fish Several Omaha out-of-doors enthusiasts are planning trips to Glenwood.

Earl Conrad of Thayer, Ia., claims the state bantamweight wrestling title. In a letter to the sporting editor he says he is anxious to meet Walter Smith of Grand Island.

Option Plan Restored.

Cotner, Hastings, Peru, Kearney, Grand Island, Wayne, Doane, Nebraska Wesleyan, York, Dana and the University of Omaha are entered in the meet. Hastings, last year's winner, has another great team and is expected to repeat. Nebraska Wesleyan, Doane and Cotner universities also have exceptionally versities also have exceptionally good teams. Kearney ran a good race for college honors at the Drake relays three weeks ago, and has entered the same men. University of Omaha for the first time since 1916, will be represented by a track team will be represented by a track team at the conference relays. Coach Adams of the local school has been working on his team for the last month, and, although he had very little material to build upon, he has formed a team which will rank with the best. Adams has entered in only about half the events.

Ray Phelps, captain of last season's champion basket ball team, was elected to lead the track men for this season. Phelps is the locals' star high jumper, and Adams has also entered him in the discus. Other members besides Coach Adams and Captain Phelps to make the trip are: Madson, Moggy, Reeves, Beacom, Thompson and Gustofason. The team will leave tonight.

Cornhuskers Hand Californians First Defeat on Trip East

Lincoln, Neb., May 19.—(Special Telegram)—Nebraska university upset all dope Wednesday afternoon when it defeated the University of when it deleated the University of California base ball team, 1 to 0. The defeat of the westerners is the first they have suffered since the start east. Ten victories had been recorded by the Californians since they started on their trip.

Two questionable decisions, one favoring each of the teams brought.
