JUST A WORD TO MY PATRONS

FULLY agree with some of the older merchants of Omaha who advise the people not to jump at conclusions, regarding reductions, without sufficient reflection.

Big reductions do not mean anything in savings to the consumer unless they are based on a reasonable mark-up on the original cost of the merchandise.

MY POLICY HAS ALWAYS BEEN to give my patrons the best quality of merchandise at the lowest prices consistent with good merchandising. I have been able to do this because my location away from the high rent districts, coupled with strict economy in buying and selling, automatically lowers my cost of doing business.

I invite you to this store at any time to compare our prices with those of others who make startling announcements regarding reductions. I am confident that you will appreciate PHILIP GREENBERG. the values that are offered at this store.
